The sorcellery, relation to the dark- unknown, untamed- and inner essence of nature.

Why tastes a poison? bCause we don't know what its medication is.

Why going in the dark, because of the dark. The dark feels lonely. If you are terrorized by it, it is simply the fear of what needs (is) to be met and under-gone. The dark is dark only through absence. And the dark is light as universal needs (cries) call for going through to the restful.

Condolences.

Dull? Lull, lure, loom.

Shrine shine
Something hiding the faces when the humiliation or the pain are too great.

Or when the prayers, the quests, err, and confessions of the souls, are the only way for asking for the justice everywhere (be) denied.

Den.

Denier = old currency in French.

We always fall into deciphering what the others are explaining by what we have already met whereas each time it is something completely specific that has been said.

The poetry of the instant is also when we understand the poet; not through that he has said but through what he could not have.

Because of this too powerful barriers of the emotions.

Because emotions are as personal as universal.

Because they are, like the sensations, our common grounds as well as our differentiation.

The barge between life, lift and depths. Flying and cop compassion. Come passion.

Because no one takes another ‘ones’ transportation. (see Egyptian mythology, see religion) and the god that we kill daily, horus, ra, ibis, leo patre.

Patre = shepherd in french

And censorship by politics or definite pretension.
By the way society wants them to be rigid in an ultimate sentimentality of denunciation.

Because of this too powerful barriers of the emotions. The pet, poet points to it, but never will unveil creation.

And if it is the emotions in part that prevent them, it is because they live and never solve their disarray. They did not stop and they sow horrors, and less and more, for others, and would pretend to be at the image of the highest. So what exactly this way would this highest be. A demon, and miracles do not come from this kind od of deity.

The words I was studying and which all the sudden gave me a glimpse of how she could have felt about us.

Despising utopia as being unrealistic.

But, one thing is nowhere where one cannot go.

Two - it is the suggestion that utopias are going to pose problems that is childish as everything being under close scrutiny, analysis and having for a goal to be refined or simply worked on, ‘is’ (=has to be) bathed by the necessary and vital perspective of improvement, self-evolution, in one word being endowed with propriety of the alive.

Third - it is the nature of every project to have to wait some of its implementation to find out more than its natural limitations but also that it will uncover of other parameters, jointed fields, and approached alcoves. The third point is the raison d’être of all concepts. And the first and second point, the trial of life.

Unit, complex.

Females and males agreed to keep on certain areas and that in order to melt their complementary potential for reproduction as everyone knew that an effective reproduction system, faithful couples and family values was alone to protect the human species. At that time the same could not be realized otherwise than by segregately divided sex function.

Now if the same values are the same to keep the human species healthy and evolving, the society is to be strong enough to enable people to choose their partners, role in education, activities- all in all and in short, role within the society as it can be well unless the world become the parent elected, protecting each of its children, and that fraterniy united

Think yourself as a coach who have to take every opportunity of being taught along

Advice for a former.

Don’t think it is easy to find a companion, it is a myth, it is not. Finding love is fighting and we have to be content with be aware of our desilusion. Just find the way you want to live and around it build strong relation. While find the occasional intimate companion, not necessarily the one you dream as dreams for us are endlessly waiting. As society and individual need to go on forming. And enjoy meeting different people while looking after the ones you will closely cooperate. And just don't wait for anyone as if they don't react, you will wait for what is not relevant for days, weeks, months, years, and that is not good for the morale. Live for you can do best, help whenever you can. Aim to enhance.

Apply vegetarianism to another species. i don't think we must separate the tiger from the antelope as i will ruin a eco system. Though i think that there is a moral obligation to try substitute the diet of the tiger for the sake of his prey. As vegetal rights still remain to statuate. s

Any experiment is good provided you are trying (as the main objective) by all means and ends not to harm anything. That is not utopia but the very life's aim.

The ban of the paedophilia as the adult is the only possible reference for the children learn to master his self. The grown-up is the only teacher for the little to have an idea and an image of someone controlling, empowered upon through the wielding of his personal, intimate avidity. The paedophilia here parallel to all kind of exploitation. The adult showing how we have to behave oneself and leading ourselves instead of looting, making profit.

in our society the opportunity of equality -lol- life may change due to your class, type of intelligence, different abilities or what the society have not be able to recognize of your potential. It is why the class gap and struggle has been going on because if you keep some opportunities because of your birth, that at least prevent the leadership from changing through even more harmful and discriminatory criteria.

ex. if everyone would have been promoted for their industrial skills, and because in our society it will be asked to produce not creatively but produce regarding to, following certain standards, and thus creating a raz de maaee ( tidal waves), because a policy which is followed blindly and with the possibility of amassing bigger number of adept, will have tenfold effects. So what if the policy is dictated by egoism or ignorance?

Those who believe in having a better level of conscience by lack of perceiving all that life can imply. Those who think that they know more from refusing to acknowledge the little anyone may fight, improve, perform.

No spiritualism when you regard the individual as one that is to say a pawn and not as being a spirit = challenging himself and the very image of the world itself that he has been presented with. Life, nature, universe of which each experiment are not more than a mere degree or point of view. When the human thinks he is the first in the 'order of things'. When he becomes an evil in believing himself the god.

When he thinks that he is the first missing to be acknowledging the others and others energies, like would have been the remnant of his dead knowledge.

Democracy is the whole question. Discussed point after point, not imposed to people, when the people is a people with everything in hand to respect its inner and outer universe. Elect one program but build a position over all questions -one by one- and give the liberty to engage in what were not pre chosen, instituting and maintaining the freedom for creation. Ex; if government has chosen sheep breeding, one citizen is enough to choose to breed birds if he chooses that. Other rules, government must maintain every species of birds alive. But having the citizens protecting them, and the citizens sharing this tasks. Like the government must maintain the need for breeding sheep but taking into account that sheep breeding must respect other's eco balance.

If you need to smoke that is fine until you take your own time for pleasure time to grow tobacco. Like that, no industry except pharmaceutical has to rely on smokers or lethal habits.

Everyone should be entitled to eat healthy and for those who wanted to cook special, they have the rights to take that as a allowed luxury till we can't do that without putting pressure, for everyone. However, here luxury could not be accumulated by one person or by one organisation. You love food? You love eating better than ordinary, others would choose to drive a car or walk a dog.
This repartition could work as far as the standard brings health and choice.

The choice of specializing in a area and thus testing it and offering it, is important for us to explore our dexterity and for the area exploited can be in the condition of developing state-of-the-art tools and ideas.

Religion as a reference before history and sciences could have been popularised. There’s a harsh defense for tradition as we can fear that tradition would be left by people to gain not only freedom. but also and potentially mainly if the offers of it is high, to conquer the right of diminish the right of others as you would kick the tradition around, losing the respect and the awareness of simple thing, natural thing in the tradition hopefully praised. With for example forgetting of how water is precious as you try to produce more or quicker than the neighbours do. This resources abuses leading you to be able, even more vicious than that, to be allowed to have your neighbour as your maid, also even call employee, later.

Tradition trying to keep the people respecting ritual around the respect of the objects and their functions, the very object which we use or are around us, the objects which serve our survival and future, the material which constitute the way of grasping an angle, a space of the infinity by which we are surrounded.

Some of the best writings may come from an originally very vague attempt.
I re-read myself and can hardly understand what it is all about. In the process or rephrasing I will manage to explain what in my perception is generally missing.
To have a generally too little clear part of an explanation going on and on on our experiments and interpretation will have us very aware or conscientious of its importance when finally we get across its deeper meaning. This conscience will have us particularly skilful at detecting, explaining, solving, analysing, dealing with this aspect.

The family meant to shape a type of organizational society.
When it is not a question of morality. When people want to impose their views not on account of freedom or justice, but because they are looking for a special configuration bringing ease at what will be generally intended. Ex: household easy to manage, society stale into unit hermeticity of the family precluded and inviting ghettoization permitting division of society and thus putting the over privileged at bay of having to account for their facilities with their servicing society, as society services them. ex: the family bearing every element of morality maintenance and societal efficiency – make morality the way one is able to run a family constrained by anarchy, make morality look as easy and restrained- leaving people prompt at being judgmental towards their neighbours liberty instead of implementing a professional good code of conduct, like fair salaries…

I need you.

Better.

Is it love? Is it eternity? Need or punctuality? Assessment, gauging, or bearing? None of that, it s our spirituality.
Maybe one day some answer about how it feels, but how to generate? Natural I reckon, survival have some to hope and further may.

I only write, as I am the possession of the sounds, and not being anything when stopping thinking of you, of not being anyhow.

Stop to think. And feel that paradise has been seen.

Scenery, scenario.

If one day.

You could be.

More than hidden inspirity.

You are not old.

You are mine only.

Being disruptive as one like the money.

Being destructive as to pretend doing care, being paid.

Without you I would have exploded everything.

But it is only I would because separated or not, you are still where my mind is wandering.

b
I work at night.

As during the day I have in front of you to mend your brawls. I am getting fed up with that.

I would not be so fed up if your brawl would lead to what it had fulfilled but no, the perpetual rebeginning, for naught, only to occupy time.

Reborn again in another word, in better substance, and this possible with instances of our embetterment real.

I cannot put any of the worlds down with I call you as if I have to cry it is because the apartheid was not only question of skins.

If I edited one of those worlds then I would damn my seeking.

To read about injustice and torture in the world, not by us, but by the ones who are left on them above, is not quite possible, as it is like trying watching a vampire in a mirror. Or you think it is a funny film, or your blood become icy, or it gonna finish gore.

Speaking of gore. Here I am with the whole colony, me, my spouses, and the children we manage to produce without melting our genes. Only by willing- oh it is the partner that would suit my teaching.

I guess that our problem democratic are gonna solve themselves by human trafficking. Ya, my old friend, you cannot stop good bargain.

As for you, if you are any children left, be careful of anything around as flesh is flesh.

Nice progress.

‘The overall can be incoherent.’
Agreement with limits, openness and territory are the art of parenthood.

And if not inspire, and thinking of all it all the days and years around, then the wrong move will remain in deed and hawked from the nearest to this other one.

I was allowed by my stoics duties as make love and protect one’s spot at the same time it cannot possibly be.

To only touch you during the winter mainly.

The winter the best season ever.

As my way of caressing was to offer my feeling all in giving one of these coldest nights.

Bloody, warmy.

The holy spirit.

And amen.

Are two feminine entities.

Like the father and the son but that it requires too much honesty…

'To convene.

When you need representation to figure oneself a god.

My wife is my god, my spouse, my half, the why I believe in after and the here and now combat, that cannot be bloody as long as I save whatever is longevity. In my heart, whatever could help. In the logics, as much as every as boundlessly. Take without conditions. Otherwise my breach and break all along the venom of if, I pretend not to believe. To hide to myself that proof was just in your hearing. What about my touch?

My spouse is the how I manage to hold on, my progeny the what for. To give my fluid and live and die happy for that.

For all that.

Die happily.

Miss?

Miss what

Half of a heart ? as interrogation mark.

The unfairness of people just showing that they don’t believe in a lot, despite what they shout, groan and essay.

I cannot possibly cheat on you, as each time I love, sexually mentally comprised, it is you I touch as in the free wheel of my life, my choice has been that.
And how I became for the others an it.

To be jealous because in the brawls that can be occasioned your love might be hurt, and you and your relationship teased and tested, for the sake of hazardous occurrences bumping into each another.

You want to nick me?

I could do the same, just to protect my female.

Thanks I have one, as I won’t be thinking of your rape.

You know the Icaria legend.

The difference is that you do not have to flee away.

There is something one single think indestructible as it is the sense of survival and thrive, spread in shock, blatant, roaming, hidden, or fleeing.

To meet the devil is an honor as you can’t make it right without an angel.

Or else it is not a meeting but the end of you or your free.
Fray, and reason build, at a cost, pragmatically. As one will follow without knowing ill or virtue. Without knowing is the purpose of gauge the spirit and mind that will admit after that one’s knowledge is ramage.

To the last,

Like this I don’t have to count any, let alone counting back.

In London, only one spot for the communities to join up, gather: the libraries.

The libraries that are to be super quiet places because people-many of them, children and youth included- suffer from the nuisance of the noise within their household or neighbors- cannot study at their full capacity or sometimes cannot study at all when disturbances are laws.

Are laws, because already the libraries were so noisy as no staff were in charge for the silence to be respected, but now, grandiose, the boroughs have supported laws, policies, allowing the members of libraries to disturb anyone else reading, studying or thinking.

Why all of a sudden politicians decide that it is ok for a library to resemble a café, a market, all but precincts where people are ensured to a propitious, favorable place for studying?

1. Because there is no other place for the people to meet.

In the U.K, where youth need money to enter any significant activities leading to physical, cultural, intellectual, etc…development. Left, the natural game becomes ‘playing wars’ only tool left to strive. Cf: knives epidemic.

There is no space, but the pubs and other private clubs.

To note: the mayor of the borough touching indecent salaries, while the citizens cannot hope for or a space to study with computers enhanced with a working internet (almost everyday slow), nor place where a democratic participation to the social life of the country and counties may be enhanced (common gardens, big parties, regular theatre in the street, paid mission for cleansing a river, a forest, to check if the factories, business and public places respect the necessary compulsorily toward-zero-of pollution and energy consumption that if not respected is like to say to the next generations, we are kindly and systematically killing you.)

2. Because people preventing from working won’t climb the ladder, or will following the principal order: ruins.

B

Along the life, feeling yourself more and more external at your own being, in the sense that whatever you do, think, experience, experiment, strive for, intellectualize, spiritualize, whatever the degree of wisdom, knowledge, truth you’ve found, the way your life goes and unfold cannot be redeemed by of one’s act-none.

To feel then like exterior to one’s body, like watching a poor fiend or elected whore story-at times.

Think about slavery.

Think about cannibalism as if you are hunted from everywhere, it becomes the only means of survival.

And give the random fruit to one’s partner.

Intelligence can be defined and felt only by being the limitation and intersection of mutual communication or understanding.

The sacred books, nothing more than a few human indications for survival and soul elevation.
But sacred as people gathered for the vital propagation of some moral and introspection. For the naming of communities welfare, for some holiness in the body and the mind that was worth of protection.

There are the results of devotion to words and search for morality being put into an ethics that give some higher aspirations toward and in behalf of a beyond may.

They are also the sign that along time and space, obviously at the cost of lives of worship and battles, they are objects and structures that people managed in their having been kept and cared.

A fundamental other notion to take into account when equality is put into practise aiming at redistribution or social justice is thinking about capability, or disabilities, that is to say specific features of an individual regarding his inner potential to fulfil or not economic or social expectation, needs or demands. If people are not naturally endowed- by nature or social position- with this workable potential that are specially asked from them – disabilities, young, old age- then the society has for duties to help them realizing their other capabilities and attain their needs. And show what other paths takes brain activity. Wiry witty.
Equality of repartition would be understood – when no strict-as like in Tawney stipulates it, not a strictly similar incomes but with difference of ‘minor significance’. This rough proportionality being the only way for preventing people from being in position of undue power and thus breaching other’s natural rights. In parallel to keep outcome up with activities, i.e., that the individual being reward twice if he works twice as much, would maintain the ‘staff motivation’ of which proponents for absence of rules in the economy, illogically state that might be derived only through ‘laissez-faire’.

Now it is of the human thought and effort to build a system where equality would no mean impunity and slavery, and retardation.

As well as the individual to be caught into having to supply the majority of the failure of assimilation.

Friction, eviction. Humanity does not know itself as the sole means of his survival was consensus in abomination. And for the rest to thrive borders and walls while murders and robbery happen meanwhile.

However helping each other towards a more dense and intricate solidarity is the way of finding common sense and honouring gifts and opportunities, anti-egalitarianism with the levelling down objection will spurn the effort at elaborating social interaction saying that everyone would be at worse-would be true if equality was about looting and not constructing, or about standardisation and authoritarianism and not preferences and diversity. This ‘leveling down’ certainly echoes the ‘tricking down effect’ and pursuit of self interest at whatever expenses in pair with ‘laissez-faire’ objectives, forgetting all about what systematic and ‘unrepaid, undeserved’ ‘expensive’ tastes policy will cost for, of, to humanity.

An irresolution though. I would have to accept to be from my almost long-lasting life love a divorcee.

I had never parted from it, even if did not last the story. My lover was gone, but staying the result, the life saving that he managed, the, if-not, unconceivable repairs.

And now that, enhance my life and the everythink i ever did, I cannot right now, cause I will have to say to myself, it helped you as long as now where … where I cannot say, as if you, after my being o.k, meaning that I agreed that I could let you have what is inside- what would you still be the day to give up you will decide.

It is how I remain nearby, simply because when it is you, I could even take you abandon. As to approach once more what would be perfection, tell you about all walk of lifes, the power of the whole adoration.

The sexualisation of behavior and attitudes, the fact that people are enforced to say he or she in engagement situation - is at the origins of sex-desire, actualization, or and what is graver, the positive effect its has on body emotional linkage leading to intellectual solidarity and compassion- vulgarization.

Maybe this vulgarity is part of the propaganda of non involvement, of being faulty if mentally receptive, of the danger of identification- letting the people happy with robot and non too shocked- as numbed by social elimination self-content- by an average social floating between inhumane treatment and praise on the result of extorting other = undue hyper-indulgence.

Bastardisation as society is not invited to explore itself or one another as individualization is about pretending that we own it- on self respect, discovering and invention.

Bait and bleed is a military strategy described by international relations theorist John J. Mearsheimer in his book on offensive realism, The Tragedy of Global Power Politics. The aim is to induce rival states to engage in a protracted war of attrition against each other "so that they bleed each other white", while the baiter who encouraged the conflict remains on the sidelines, maintaining its military strength.[1]

In the morning, time to think of what will be going, a long sight over a paved path. I don’t even feel the desire of knowing what is there. No fear, if it is like my present then better to look into my inner. This path that tell me get ready, as tough as it is, I am your life and the end is what I promise.

And all of a sudden, her voice reanimate, the voice of my mistress, she is not with me, she may well never be, but she is the why my present can blossom, for my future to have a chance to be alive.

Without her, is past boredom. Anything interesting is to drop, it is for seeing her in another existence what I endure to go passed and join, the sense of this be, enough, its sole demand for sacrifice, the why, it is propelled by moral, neatness, logics of when you want to find out what it is in you claim, more profound. The clamour or whisper of her voice being the how everything is charged with interest when I notice them alive, too, or no perhaps searching her like me. No more than responding at who without there is no choice, no object valuable as there would be no actions I could accomplish.

For my disobedience, for ma femme.

To marry someone who saved me. To cherish her for ages, whereas putting apart. Take apart for what she had always told me, but I could not realize how this could be in fact sheer impact.

We believed in reincarnation, till here everything in place. But in a particular style, me being a former part of her family. I thought no problem, it is spiritual, I am the one bringing back her lovest. She felp it as incestiousity.

I am not her lovest any longer, her son she has when we were gathered, her situation now, I don’t know, maybe with someone.

The thing is that for years I absolutely believe that her faithful at her situation would never be in love, never be happy- only with this person of her bygone story.

For year I met other persons I d love but her image, of me abandoning.

Today I may be released, if someone is up to take what I am- but this.

There is nothing for me to judge our relation, but the fact that she is the one that took me and keep me fighting in every round I was. That she was the why I tried to come out and well.
Two questions I am presently asking and the how I may be relieved.

If she was happy with someone else it is all what I d wish.

Csq: I am right to desire the same for myself. It is true love, wanting that people find happiness, whatever be with you or not, cannot be a concern any longer.

The other ones is the how this question have me haunted. If ever one day I think it is ok to love somebody else, what would happen if the day I am with this person I think that I the first one betray- this first person who is bygone or its kind.

I have just answered this one. If I have been faithful to my past, even if this past did not want to go on, it is by believing in something superior, a religion, morals, spirituality that needs to find a link and its rituals and its convictions and gardening everyday.

But now if I realize that I can know love with another individual, then if another day something come to me and say, you betray, I know that I would be time for me to rebel. As love is love and is recognizable among all. If I am permitted to promise one day, the other day no one can tell me to renounce and destroy.

I have been haunted for years by this scenario, living side to side with someone that I could not heal through body and mind- in the example of my wife a illness having, thinking that I was not faithful to my first and that my spirit could not be anywhere but with hers. Thus leaving the person who chose me, without my true soul.

Because thanks to my first I follow what appear to me the most absolute way of love, I trust what people commonly call God. From this logic one certainty, now i know in my heart that I would be able to render myself bearable for someone, that I could without problem, or solving the the gaping wide open going-round suffering or nihilism. That I know that I could finally regard my second like my first and thus like ever I saw someone since I am the product of so much and long, and that the second would agree to taking that.

The fact I feel able to renew the deepness that kept me in relation with an ideal. The fact that thanks to her I could bless and avenge any ordeal, give me right and duty to take the person I vow like the recipient of everything.

Recapitulative history.

Since I am 16, I have been in love with someone who I sought in every place and person since then on.
The story we shared was the most intense I’ve ever had. She literally saved me for one. Secondly my being positive that we would gather again, put in question absolutely any relationships that I came to nearly build.

I cannot say that it is negative in anyway as this woman helped me to live for something, love, namely.

I cannot say it rendered me lovely but whatever happened, some stuff very harsh for an average European, since, hope’s never let me down.

Not even the one of me having her again, but a life of convictions, helped by the possibility of being important for someone else’s strength.

Catherine, in France, I went from town to town to get various jobs, and to get experience and reactions to them that I thought were apt. the convictions and all serve the little courage, insight and perseverance that otherwise you would miss.

I don’t think I can speak about all that and the significance for me to talk about it, as this has shaped pretty much of my beliefs.

I think that you know what that might be, the fact that even when no one is around, the intensity of your life and its mysteries are ruled by the decisions you took about, like loving the moon; certain that she is at the tide’s origins.

She was slightly older, initiated me to other religions, tolerance, and above all spirituality. She taught me to accept myself and contain the dream that would be for myself. She just was the only picture with which I could think of being till the end, aiming at, preparing an after death, happy.

Every time I met someone dear for me, I managed to think that I could forget her, but it never lasted long as the tiers persons could not fit.

Till 3 years ago.

I met someone who came to be very important too. Honestly, we could not suit each other really, but this did not prevent us to find out why. I experimented hell.

For her, you know, I stopped chain-smoking. One day, ten years ago, while trying to stop this addiction, I had a dream. Basically, I could not defend the love of my life, because of my being reduced by the habit, she died. I’ve never had another one.

With this new woman my passion was grand. When I came back from work, everything in my manner of perceiving was so changed, matured, that it felt like hours of imperative meditation; a few times it felt like flying.
I had for the first time to admit that I loved s.o that loved me, and that was not possible-regardless of the fact that it would have been too problematic naturally-just because I was haunted. That was the deal.

I was ready to imagine a life of love with s.o else and when I imagined her very old, needing my flesh, some kind of warmth, I could not. Because my blood had been promised when I was a 16 year old.

I could see myself on the body of the woman with, to, who I own everything, unable to find my soul around, because of my having betrayed the woman now I am still loving.

She had a son the period we wanted and almost made it, after two years of being infertile.

All in all I always thought I belonged to her, I don’t know what to think today, for the first time, I think that perhaps it is a good sign.

I just want to know what s the wiser to do.

Is it to betray or is it to love you?

My answer is that it is not to betray, I was for her a person of her tree, but I took me 16 years to understand fully, rigolo.

I d always had this image of a princess with long hair down to the ground storey, perhaps I had to wait this age to be able to go out of my own tower.

They are doubles, models, passions, spouses, lives, children, leaders, inspirators, muses, prophets, philosophers, priests, bosses, partners, lovers, mates, friends, initiators, trainers, educators, parents, and there are halves.

I try to figure out, but life is not to be belittled, it has to be it that brings to live or sleep or life.
This woman, my mother, who so harsh would nevertheless whatever might happen in one’s situation, brain, conditions, never at least in her heart repudiate my body.

This woman, thrift, weight, exactitude and neat to avoid the talks. A work has to be served 24/7, grand dryness but at war as soon as her birth, she underwent survival.

This woman, who preaches education, independence, distinction and who always alone, severing all routes-, since I don’t think she holds to be respected, or perhaps the past was too severe on esteem turned upon around money, I don’t think she prays,- will stay.

This woman that protects my vulnerability, simply through talking, reading, this one for who I knew the calendar at the second past her say.

This woman, who spurned me but granted with her attractions, friendship or the sweet songs of false but guiding coronations.

This woman, who evidenced that there was life after divorce. My phantasm was to come up to her from a danger, and cry in her arms, in our bed, for several days.

This woman, in this organisation, that let me perfect my plan, this soft woman i always kept in mind as being the files bearer, the austere and smiling and thinking person I would have for spouse.

This woman that taught me and kept me, the older, my friend, my priest, who saw me out of my candiity, harassing me without harming me, the only to have try to face my disability.

This woman, than of all, permitted me.

This woman with who I made plans.

The life of my love, that never quit my mind one day, only now, she is here to confirm that we were ok, but for the first time letting her space to be taken by a voice, that this time is with mine, every time needed, everytime not to be redundant, honey.

Every of them are different characters, and you can be found in any.

Sentimental, but not the one that makes your tear, there is no end, or death by nihilism in spirituality.

I am not gonna kill myself if I cannot re(as)semble this, I ll still believe in God, the birds are here to sing its praise, birds, brooks, winds, and trees.

This woman, I cannot tell you, as inside the deed of seeing for one, every single joy, depth, remembrance are to find.
Nevertheless they all could reignite moments, I really served no one and it is a good as long as I still tilt and fall for any of these predicaments and happinesses, as without it, there is nothing stirring any longer amongst the grey has to go on, the rulers named shadowy.

Shallowly, indeed, but from and towards where you can see yourself sliding and sliding.

I am scared witless of being in the wrong, even if it cannot be, since it could be love. And what if it is not, the umbrella under which people are left refugee.

If i took any steps, it is because what has always guided me, as well in the way of my being loyal to her, today comforts me that I could build a true life somewhere.

The territories are only what you can see. Soilely.

Read literature is very frustrating, as when you try to get an overall approach of what may have been said, it is a laugh thinking about western-centred theory. As even in Human Rights and ethical fields, only Europeans thinkers are cited.

Never only an approach on the texts of other continents- or the struggle for ethics, solidarity, freedom and dignity that did not spare the words as the war waged have all but the spirit destroyed- revisited by these days academics.

A system where you can be sacked for a mere mistake or inadequatness, that you would have to simply redeem. A same system where structural injustice are not tackled by anyone, or nobody in power to question them.

The system is a not working system in the sense of not being able to self reflectiveness. Even when it admits past errors it is to emphasize the horrors of the past in order to playdown the horrors on which we feast along the days.

Its clogged features, where democracy and accountability is not permitted or is permitted in a shame, in a way or one can be overprivileged and accountable, pleading a transparency for legitimating corruption (oxymoron).

Systems justifying their obstructancy to reduce the lockean ‘every one against every one’, as without solid walls we could all end up as being another’s slave.

But solid does not mean prison, and instead of secure we find all positions moribund through the very menace of denunciation- underline a problem and you are put down, be found with one and be casted away.

Where the whole family or groups has only one voice counting politically, for example one person voting for all, it is in place a state to weaken the family themselves.
As it really appears that a family as one voice and not more, and also it reduces the view of the people. It is like saying you are two people with the strength of one. This process is of course very handy when you want to keep the power of money or possessions prevailing.
Also it counts on the lack of love and understanding within the family. Who would like one’s spouses to be stop from expressing and battling for more fulfilment? Apart people living together compulsorily, or compulsorily doing so through the fear that struggling for one’s each other voices will be by other groups sanctioned.

V

In our countries, when where is freedom of expression, where is no means. Who is gonna then it is because there is this room in the system to proof, to reinforce, or smooth, whatever

Victims are not asking for prison, but for counselling.

But is not that bullying?

To say that you are the one that the problem, a problem made-without examining.

On another hand, better it is like that because justice like mental health issues are treated as being punitive and not corrective.

Mind the day they correct people from doing the same than the leaders, when you think that in this society they manage to punish certain thieves, not the ones that serve the legal system, it is called exonerate, or because a man want to be with a man, just like the other half of your being human. The norms of the family, just to justify abandon made societal.

Do like that because if you want a job of a cake, you tell the child separated from granny, the pets, the trees, every single pillar that makes existence and spirit, be oblivious of what laws deserve. The future is’t in any of our –if not dead, sentenced, don’t blame darkness it just seems now fatty- bodies. Just look, applaud and pat.

Not wanting any trials, because when one thinks of love, they think so entirely.

Now my whole feelings and expectancy based on the story leading to the one from, by, about whom every relief comes and displays; what would occur to me if I was proven that I was just a fling, one day?

Rather set the contents millimetres by millimetres, analysing all of it could ease the process of having to take my shell away.

What about if it goes? I would have spend my life taming the universal through your eyes and because of having ask you, what would you like from my destiny, finding myself with the answer of a damned dummy.

I have been writing for decades almost, for one.

This one is g-one, and another I don’t know if in reality but in my flesh replacing the what made me function.

Look, you are the one, or you are the person I ll just be in company for a few times, but I live and everything has to be conduct with an up going intensity.

While training muscularly, enjoying the weight going further from your joint, to stretch before pulling.
To calculate these extensions, flexions, in order to stretch and rebalance the tonicity, stretch and pay yourself with a due rest, and rewarding explosivity. Explosivity in the retain, maintain, detain, as your body is content with the double-sided aims.

On democracy: a efficient, stable, fair system is so complex to begin elaborating that it is the reason why everybody, the majority disagree on the how, as we all know that without one of these three elements, work and life turn out to disaster.

The malignant stay is that the state of doubt might be maintain to beneficiate the gaps even bigger.

Residential home London:

No supervision, staff let doing whatever without tasks check or repartition. As the big management are on the papers, looking after the figures and not after the quality of care.

Effect of privatization. One chief in positon of monarchy, one and alone without being control, supervise, with the staff being left without the possibilities of surveys or enquieries.

One aims at the top, profit.

Example you d rather pay one staff 6 pounds who does not do the job but is here that you do follow criteria of inspection, that a staff 8 pounds that do the job but whatever since no one is gonna assess that: result loss of skills, efficiency, expertise, democracy, corporative enlightenment.

This state of faschism permitting on top to hunt people. For example to pressurize them about standards that if not met might be the cause of condemnation. Problems this standards are easy to manipulate, or to change what is helpful into a burden what hamper real work.

Example having to write every time the same things, spending all the shift in repeted and unnecessary action without the management had to find a solution for their staff spare time on that in order to reinvest time in creative or reinforcing area.

No supervision, no surveys, no team work but only hierarchy permit people to falsify, fake, set up, plot, and finally rule not for the enhancement of everyone but the exploitation of the system and its money.
Other possible problems: in wanting to keep appareances, building renew when they could go older without health issues, look like 4 stars, but you loose your support worker, and have only cleaner or social worker at certain tasks without individual freedom of free speech, challenging relationship, as every thing has to be left calm, no one interacts any longer, no discussion, no issues = no consensus, no exchanges.

Something every one forgot. The rights and duties to work. People having welfare to the minimum of being hidden, as denying them the rights to participate in society building.

For me it is her, her and her.

Apart from that, that’s all.

A taste of it, which recipe.

What’s in?

T

The taboo about telepathy, though universal phenomenon in any individual is maintained taboo because beliefs and experiments actually shape, adapt, deepen, authentify our understanding.

Also because saying it would bring spiritual questions to the fore, and these are so essential in the way societies are building, that combat about their subjects could become catastrophe.
Finally a natural disaster could be that these questions are so central to the origins and directions of existence, that tacking them in a emergency and primordial manner could lead human beings themselves to metamorphosis through reconsideration of their patterns.

The faschism of a regime that condemn the fact that one can remember than cotton is one of the more constraining token for staff and nature exploitation and depletion.

How come we don’t share a moment? Not to talk about my rubbishes, be reassured, what is to say of any intelligence about what keep higher or astray?
Were we only spirit, that the main activity would be to create matter.

On the stopping to regret having to maintain health, and other capability.

That philosophy has to hide itself behind religion- when religion justify cruelty by ‘purity-seekened’ (Nathan widder on Nietzsche, 1998), it is the causes and consequences of religion being said to be everything and the power granted to it to suppress any details not in line with the servilely man-made unfair, unjust, self-interested hierarchy.

In a bid of community.

Why to endure daily concessions and thinking for another?

Because I ll owe you, to be happy.

You are not a beauty for me.

You are my beauty.
To be an half, one life it asks.
One life given or one life built.

To be jealous of other potential, as one does not honor theirs.
Example to be jealous of others’ occupation as one does not enjoy the power owns when he could love being and bludgeoning for one’s family.

Why to have the experience of one’s another half?
To search about the most inner secret craking.
Though the other part of one’s life might be a person as much as a object. What and what for one can at giving and enhancing life be happy.

As for the English canonic sentences, let’s everyone remember that the philosopher or the moral describer a more and more complex frame needs.
They were mostly economists or lawyer, the tradist quak.
Skiver, skivvy way of dictact the repartition. Lin-ear.

But do no one think I am phobic, I d be misinterpretation.
‘Life is a stage’, where officially, nobody can act or do altogether profoundly.
Only snappy, only soliloquely.
In the hope that this will lead to redemption as far as one’s revolution is not rendered disgrace by one’s own insanity or hell by others’ interests in a reality made atrocity.

Who would pay for human rights advocate?

Perhaps the one who don’t want to have to pay for a hit man.

Between having to die first as one cannot spend one day without the other.

And the need for outdoing oneself as one has to care for the other for the better.

For the other and all that encompass, as life, the whole of it will be taken for the other half and this honour. And that this trip will have to succeed, embraces everything.

I had spend years clinging to a life that I d be doing for whom I thought to be willing to develop as the one for whom nothing is impossible nor too big.

The day one encounters the hint of a yes, they admit that they will have to perform for it to thrive and stay.

But it is not of these things you may ever regret as when I touch him. Or watch him sleepy, or at chase, spurring or miamowing., I ll stop the idle calculus to know if giving one’s protection is a strategic succeeding success and him as being the daily sign and mind that what brough if, life. That life gift for improvement of the own trip. Whatever happen or not happen due to him being with me is only the fact that I did have an existence, something for what I d rather life than be gone, the difference. You might do good turn in life but what if your days cannot be at any time recomfort, it is like loosing one’s own matter. I don’t think they have realist expectation about how long people are prepared to be conned. And you know this old techniques of insulting somebody to make themselves believe they are better. In French we call it, pull down to the base.

Anyway, had I have a girlfriend, I wished her to lodge near work, less going around, in case she d like it short, it is not always nice to have to go away from the thoroughfare.

For me no problems. I could be killed by anyone attacking her.

My only feeling like would be to exterminate afterwards, maybe could I survive without sensing anylonger after that, perhaps letting my heart speak to innocence before dying in the hope of avenge, just the hell without her given in damnation would take them to zero.

I think it would kill any desire, maybe not desire, but any intentions of humanity. For the children expected knowing how much abuse they will have to confront and deal away.

Not maybe in the meanness of it, but refuse to do anything more than rescuing at the best of it, praying for that I will be sunk in order to drown the culprit, I think I would go evil, in the sense of praying to make them paid.

To beseech, implore, to be their ripper, only to understand that I am too weak to endure the insanity, and die, die how, disloyal to the one I cannot see. See.
The concept of personality might be seen as western, because since the other countries hosted a population that were mainly at the farthest end of being exploited, what about the freedom of manoeuvre that might enable people to find out about acceptance, tolerance, endurance, when you do not have any choice than doing it or die from being the purpose of systematized elimination- like in the west but perhaps in more economically developed country one to some extent, at opposition, can find a way- not because they are economically more developed but it is somewhere else that their most bloody grip hold.

In the underground lane, an ad read, organ traffic, is the folk for or against?

How come this question asked by a leading paper ‘The Economist’ hasn’t been banned?

Is this tumour the tremour of an annunciation for an apocalypse day? Or if the laws were balanced one would be allowed to kill the one who let my children, my parents, any human being under threat of the torture, the threat of loosing one’s life, just because another one has more money.

To note: free from torture, slavery, and right to live, are the ones that the developed countries were so proud to have legally securised, and in international laws the sole laws you cannot recant. And then one morning you have to read that nothing seemed to be exempted from being consumed and endangered.

When people think they are superior gods, or lesser evils and legiti-mate Cannibalism.

The whole population of being self-enhanced proud meat eaters.

As on top of that the very lacking proteine of the former generations could have been beaten by vegetable proteins, attachement to animals might have been dangerous.

In search of something to eat who could afford to get attached to an animal as the latter would have permanently been in risks of being eaten by another animal or a human.

Attachment to animals would have been emotionally damaging as the risk of loosing a friend was too high.

And therefore this boisterously grim assertion of the human being of no shame at all, and in fact bringing its well bred felling of superiority to justify their cruelty.

Of the result of ‘having to avoid to get attached’.

Q: Would you think that if unemployment were solved and more proportionate salaries laws would be implemented, people from different way of life would behave with more unity, solidarity, understanding?

Were it be proportionality between salaries, people would practise their calling (in their possibility of obtaining a job and enhance a deontology), not any longer hold by corruption and bribery induced by inappropriate salary.
To perfect things. And getting through, opening area, and ending in harmony.

This worker, this achiever. You can see around him, the fruit of his labor. His chances was to have been assisted, to have choose, quite a lot the path of his thoughts and to have been able to store his goods. His work? Colossal.

They were so rough with him, so disgraceful. And though he knew that they gave the love pertaining to perpetuating him.

She loved him, but always has to say that he has to go, in all kindo ways, all cries for a kiddo. She had the fate of a mother that brought up mercenaries, soldiers, nuns, doctors, whoever has to wage a war, first of all knowing he has no family, it will grow him less of a destructor.

Oh i would have refused in any case, firmly-honour holding successful, at list this little bit, any of your asset, so don’t say it is because I am and will be ‘poor’.

But this is so simple, you live intelligently.

You noticed, I believe I can do it.

It is not opportunism, it is just, go on, none matter, just tell me.

Me just one thing count for me when my privacy is at stake, an intelligent mate.

And if you thought of it, you d find a way.

My son, I told you that your mother was my destiny. I knew that day that something was missing but I wanted to express this, what in my life. I knew this day because she was not there, that she would not be there, whatever explanations I could find.
Today, the right sentence is your mother led me to my destiny. Because you know, it does not change what she did your mother, for me, the reason of being born and still carry.

You now like a mother, when each time you doubt your welfare, she is here and saying yes, go on, my heart is happy when love inhabits your body.

The rights sentence is this now because I wish, I have to make that my former life renders to this other time that I need to honour by surrender.

My thrill of writing coming from my thinking for her. Any moment, was dedicate.

The dangerous matter is that since the writing is a milestone of not directly the love- it would be divine, a taste of ideal- but milestone of just what was intellectually managed.

The intensity of collecting this indirect result, phenomenon, of being with the knowledge of your existence, to live with this on the only private and fragile side of my mind, on the only story that was not obligations, circumstances, logics, moral, social, duties, but on the only story that could have covered my whole having been humane. Humanity.

You know it is only for example if you d need to be a super hero to success and you train and you train but whatever you train you die in the process and you training your performance are your body. People stayed several months in tents, no reimbursed by insurance, (what are insurance for, no wonder they are pillars to financial grounding machinery) without any experts coming in emergency and assess the losses.

Marx, very feared by most of the population wanted the extinction of state, that in my opinion, is not possible as people being not aware of every single thing need the sum of our concerns to find the best arbitrator possible.
But in the official state of international and national political anarchy, the state that is supposed to be a referee in political sciences is a conglomeration, congregation of individual and group interest only.

The legends about ‘males need more urging than those of females’ is a distortion of natural balances in order to weight on society the threat of rapes. That is to say if you do not provide what is said to be naturally needed you will be extorted.

The threat is borne upon males in the sense that if they don’t show that they are following this constructed menace, they could be themselves put in danger by any member of the society (males or females), taking now the pretences of them being not manly (here funny enough, manly used as the opposite of mature, poised, and autonomously balanced = adults)

It could be additionally pressure put upon females living their sexuality like the males do dress it officially (with envy), for example a female could be accused of living like a man and then claiming her right to work at the same role and function… threat for the whole community as they bath on secrecy and immunity permitting and perpetrating the whole lot of indecency.

Fear violence, well pay security officers in addition of support workers, they would earn it in special camps.

Results: they are still abused because the main reactions to these policies is leave them undisturbed in their rooms, in front of their telly. Do everything for them it takes a lot less time than teaching and leading how to get out of assistance.
It is not help it is how to exploit the next block in an inabilities at finding work after, or in the abilities at being a future undemocratic worker.

B log.

When the voice of survival is not those of the devil but of the savior.

But what is survival, and how to avoid genocide by perjury- the promise of serving God and its creature as equal or what the same world is it for- certainty.?

There is no devil thoughts only devil acts, when last gesture for survival, real survival might be avoided.

Null and void or non-existent, or the last action on liberty.

Don’t ask the United Nations their information.

‘In the first three years of his ministry, Muhammad gained only 40 followers. And as his teachings threatened the Meccan way of life, both moral and economic, he and his followers experienced heavy persecution. It first took the form of mockery, but soon turned into open violence. Members of the small movement were stoned, covered in dirt as they prayed, beat with sticks, thrown into prison and refused service by merchants.’

Is this charia?

‘The Muslims won their first battle against the Meccans. As the latter had a much larger army, the former took the victory as a sign that God was on their side. However, a subsequent battle was not victorious, and Muhammad himself was wounded. But in 627, the Meccans attacked Medina, and Medina came out on top. The Prophet was not to lose again.

In 630, Muhammad and his forces marched to Mecca and defeated it. The Prophet rededicated the Ka'ba temple to Allah, witnessed the conversion to Islam of nearly the entire Meccan population, then returned to Medina. Muhammad died in 632, having conquered nearly all of Arabia for Islam’.

From Endorois v.kenya document.

‘ The Complainants argue that both international and domestic courts have recognised that indigenous groups have a specific form of land tenure that creates a particular set of problems, which include the lack of “formal” title recognition of their historic territories, the failure of domestic legal systems to acknowledge communal property rights, and the claiming of formal legal title to indigenous land by the colonial authorities. They state that this situation has led to many cases of displacement from a people’s historic territory, both by the colonial authorities and post-colonial states relying on the legal title they inherited from the colonial authorities.’

Here are the only bachelor degrees I found dedicated to human rights studies in the whole ‘western world’ (pity yes a powerful feeling of shame, it has to be said)

The other degrees are often combined with peace resolution, or humanitarian issues (US charity concept of development perhaps?) , democracYYY or are only law (LLM) degree approach.

In a political world that champions itself as a model of civil and political rights protection and advocacy – and thus engendering a ready-made excuse for postponing or belittling the ‘second and third generations’

In a world that d like to be regarded as democratically growing and comprehensively globalizing…

Academic freedom is about research, training, awareness, theories on practices, safe-guard, conservation of formers fights and wisdom, forums, data bases, debates, all (or a good apriori) of that is needed for hatching thoughtful measurements and policies.

Where are the social sciences and human laws being brought onto this stage?

Era, sphere of nowhere.

Here are the US university ones, but god knows how expensive – and thus elitist, and per se anti human rights they intrinsically are.

Like the dubious fees demanded by some human rights lawyers, linking money – and whence economic discrimination - to the propagation of information necessary to the benefit of human societies and peace and security as a whole; these fees are in fact a contemptuous publicity toward the very idea of human rights and obligations. The blatant mise-en-place of a domineering and insulting masquerade of impunity.

A what want to be put with as generalization, compulsory assignment for everyone to accept discrimination as being inescapable- if you don’t subscribe- no entry to we let-you-live-in-the-laissez-faire- area.

These fees and prerequisites – allegiance to the capitalistic- in the sense of relations and human actions based on exploitation and abuses, that same rational enhanced through institutions such as the IMF, world bank… real and sole legislation maker (at the exclusion of the Genuine Nini 8- phonetic ally hate-for this occasion) at the UN supranational level.
These fees and prerequisites – and goals of making business (accumulation of capital and opportunity out of it), even glamorization for the possession of undue power in the sense of ruining Others – and not practices out of it, generating money not attitudes or elaboration of a constitutional (and not circumstantial, 1 odd retribution for the total extensional absence of solidarity) framework to prevent abusive situations to occur (boosting the economy through check and balance and qualitative control, free of pollution, child pornography and animal testing for example??) – are the what of why the very concept of human rights, the modern title to social consensus around shared well-being, advancement, positive progress and mutual respect, are bearing a bad name.

It is about the aim of these courses, there are about human rights, mmh?

Human rights are also about democracy, it is not about the dictator-ship of the majority the subject ici. Ici = here, and then, mind now, no yELD, ICE.

There are human rights and they are their defenders. Who are you?

I mean we risk the department closure, and there is even not a meeting.

I am not talking to the students but their professors.

What is going happen during 'the judgment’, the kangaroo more, between the admin and you? Behind the curtain? Is it clear, cette foie-ci?

Ali, now I am talking to you, you keep on posting political engagement rhetoric but you see here apparently, at least on what we could have, or that could have a counter-power precisely, it is more to do with an administrative matter.

I think it is Weber, who explained that administrative power detain a huge power- and a benevolent one let’s admit, possibly tenfold those of the political power- by inertia, stubbornness, refusal to co-operate, counter-productivity, neglect...j en passe et des meilleurs Ally, there is no wonder why horrors and worse than horrors, occurrences and recurrences to which you cannot give a name, hell forbids-how can one authorize that?, went and went in the past and are here rejoicing in our everyday- tasks.

There is no too much problem understanding why they go on, and it is not all the fault of the guys with the same job as Obama’s.

Let’s talk about admin, now. You know after the full cooperation of the French with Hitler’s views, after the second WW, one started having their go at them. But not too much because with the cold war, there were another race, an economic one, la productivité.

What did Laura say, they boost the economy. Artificially. You think that it is in line with the Human Rights, vraiment, really?
Let’s not be too ambitious, for a beginning, will you?

A simple, simple, basic test on democracy.

Don’t you think that it is dubious, (is it politically correct?) Let’s say procedural, the due process of Law, ca ira.

Let’s keep track of the question:

There is no a single meeting, yes the principal of the southlands college, dropping her line, may no.

Yes, it would be enough for you, me and the others, everyone to loose their job, as long as we question that.

It is on their faces, that we could try to arrange all that. Jurisprudence, keep it in mind, this and the fact that one should give their souls for the vast question as much as the ones treated, put down as being littler. (in fact it is an attempt at killing the fundamental importance on how people clean let’s say- letting people using liters of chemical poisons, just to say, you will do it like dummies, your work is shit anyway. This mean that instead of having the honour of cleansing for the community to meet (like Gandhi) and do it against a valuable, honourable, healthy share, One is obliged to do it in poisoning themselves and the future generations, like bandits, worst than highway daylight rufian.

But did you notice, can you ask these people, what is going to happen precisely?

Because let’s go back to Plato, well before the ‘‘Christianity area’’, what was he adamant about, ce pion la?

He talked about the duties of the civil servants to defend with all their heart, intelligence, and energy, the field and the humanist purpose of the field or function they have been given the honour of being entrusted with.

Cf: Socrates, poison, academy.

But let’s talk about trust, this word, so much cheered by the stake-holders.

Because do we really know the staff, state and civil society around the concept of human rights, and in this case its study. Are they entrepreneurs, stake holders, servants or owners, do you get that?

How come people very seemingly in charge with the department of H.R (‘i made the point that H.R were already treated as a scarcity, don’t I?’ don’t convey you, me, the other profs, the other students, the opinion public, maybe, by a simple invitation)?

Why can’t we discuss this subject? More than a subject, this palpable reality.
Because they are afraid, they don’t want to melt, they don’t want supervision, they don’t want clarity, what they want is simplicity - simplification and awe.

Anyhow i should get on with the matter, for you to be able to deem my action as possibly providing peace and prosper.

For me to be with you in my brain, possibly conceptualizing our bodies and whose of the all earth family, out of want, fear and threats.

I should resume my actions, but without the flavour of you in my mechanism, how to do is aloof of my desire and progress.

I won’t be with you, tough you occupy me.

On foucault being a native french speaker i don't understand why you think he was a dr devil impersonato.

I had noticed though, the defiant attitude of Chomsky, intellectual that i found fascinating on other sides, when Foucault try to talk about class and accumulation of blinding power.

You know a propos, Foucault had an inner and experimented notion of psychiatry, homosexuality and prison.

How come students and profs don't fight side to side?

Could not be this national level problem not the ba at roehampton but the ba in great Britain be treated as a module where people could launch campaign?

if anything i can do, am not an employee, also i still can say what and how i want and is necessary, as if militant are fired from the civil society, who is gonna protect rights, tied salary, and blur policy, and the dictact of company? Perhaps chery blair, that ask for millions to protect things than even if they were rights due to these privileges on our imbecility, render rights, simple allowance of opportunity, void of legitimacy, and advising no less than dishonesty, rewarding the fact that right are not justice of everyday they are just use as notion take aside from time to time for tambola essay, for mocked trials. Tria of money, celebrity, and semblance of charity.

Why don't they fight together, because it would be beyond, maybe, sectional interest only.

And that an aperture to outward dialogue, could be the setting for inwards, insider one. If one day one could been told to do things not against the general good and chance of survival, existence, forget.

They give me authorization to start my own save the human rights ba
To finally use bad word, bad words perhaps but still in the dictionary, I’ll concede to you was of a certain vulgarity.

But relationship are also sciences above all when it comes to power.

Yet again am not saying read anything of my reproduction but as a litmus test it was the confirmation of the theses i was trying to put across.

Karen, believe it or not, the campaign they have been launching, lunching is irrelevant.

Read the petition it is laudatory for roehampton.

It reminds me that roe is called centre of excellence ranked the second in the world and that is actually inside is a few cds and books about international ngos. Am not talking about the library here but about crucible. I would be reading this i would not believe it to be true, but you know like me what the crucible was.

I started being rude, even not i d say tough, fro once, because i addressed this people so many times on the fact that they made people believe that the inexistence of the human rights speciality was only local, whereas it is national and by extension mondial – since the uk is the country debating in English, and we know how important is this langua franca crucial as a global vector.

Am not saying am a writer, as people tried to convince me that this was unintelligible (while trying to drag each other over a coffee bar in eagerness to consolidate other affinities).

Ok i am not the clearest of all and further so when attempting do deal with more than one consequences, subjects, circumstances before an audience that are the will be human rights defenders and that, do you know what they are advocating in socio and hr lessons?

They are advocating mercy killing on individual ‘choice’ ground, without taking at all into account that people might be forced to do so by peer pressure or simply because they will think everyone want productivity or again with this type of care provided (one day the tacit aims of the carers’team could well be incite service users to suicide, like today dependence is more on agenda that any forms of autonomy or self-reliance or empowerment by participating in activities- despite everything one papers promote these attitudes, on spot it is difficult if not extremely dangerous for your own job to try to apply them.)

In parallel to this, it is like the older person, who keep on saying i want to die rapidly, because if not ill be use of nothing. It is not so much strange that the elder, the wiser, speak about life thus, they just are talking about the abandon, the neglect, and loose of liberty that they know will be cast upon them if they decide to prolong the breath inside them.

You know what the presentations on campaign for euthanasia finished with?

It finishes by we advocate mercy killing or assisted suicide only for (suicide is not illegal, but does not mean that it is legal, deregulation and common law, merci) terminally ill patient (let’s remind that the terminally ill in other precincts of the planet are flu or sanitisation, or malnutrition only). Only for terminally ill do you know why, or what she said? It is because the organisation is still not big enough.

I started becoming colloquial in this site for one and only one reason.

I signed up in this facebook pleasantry, because it is presented as being a working group, I hail them so many time saying that the petition- the only campaign work they have been doing for weeks- was not reflection of the reality, could not inform about the gravity of the topic they simulate to talk about.

I wrote so many messages, no one, not a single person answered.

So after 2 weeks of proofs that it was not a working group i took it as it were, like in the village place where everyone talks without deeds, and i took the liberty of relaxing a bit in that was not else than popular forum, and from the working group perspective that we were enforced to take my essays as vulgaris as they would come.

And there the horrors of this play.

They blocked me without not talking about the issues, without talking directly to me, in saying that it was their supporters that were asking for this, that i was the origins of resignation, that i was unintelligible, that means that they did not restrain themselves to read but say that i am not intelligente enough to retain participatory rights, they gave me for reason that they did not understand-asking me nothing precisely to clarify, and because of their no understanding chase me off the site.

I managed incidentally, to assist a last meeting, where it is clear that they don’t want me back.

So it is a democratic group involving person in a fair manner, above all when this person is directly touched by the topic they talk about.

I said ok i’ll stop the profanity- just saying that their little comedy only trying to get at numbers and show some of their targets that they trained to be insolvently ready to campaign with so much hypocrisy, segregation and idleness and in the way that are human rights abuses, not human rights, sorry.

Now the purpose of the next note, the e-democracy
It is not often, but today my body would have expressed the necessity to cry.

Have a look at this site, from the beginning its very first pages to have a succinct idea on how your students work.

Mind we should be working together, students, profs, staffs, anyone, but is it still allowed?

What about crimes at the human rights bureau?

This link being valid as long as they did not remove correspondances.

They already practiced censorship, and I cannot check for you if they erase trace of it, as they decide not to accept my comments any longer. Viva the e-democracy, one thing is now sure it won’t be as free as the little one (of democracy, accountability, right to trial, transparency) they inherited.

On what has ever unfolded and para-political flirtation.

Is it clear or is the case arguable that without external adversary elements, uncertainty about the nature and scopes of the debates, the assignment to their compulsorily and designated function, the rules of democracy-diplomacy that forces into an attitude of adoption or prise-en-compte, the protagonist could have preferred or at least favorized the ‘leaving the room’ option?

But this one where you name the one who you know would breath out the casualty.

Nothing directly relevant with yesterday’s comments but from the moment i realized that pour my heart to my bestfriend, ok buddy, about my bygone (beg one) days of love, would not be a catch for otherwise than me staying alone for years on end, waiting for the coming back of someone whose want was in my being far despite what I dreamt, or suppose to be true, but not so.
Those days instead of going out of her, the only fucking time where i met nice girls, i was working in immense spaces, and we were promiscuous at 20, i manage spending hours speaking of the loss that could not be repaired (mind one was in for the service, the other to cuckooify one more).
And after that, just that, when i understood that it was becoming a pathology, the only thing, this remembrance-besides the idea of going and work in Africa to send her letter from there, just to say, you uttered it, voice fait- that had an effect on me, i was working only thinking of that and when not working spending my time smoking sheet, with me dog and mates, drinking on top occasionally. Without a diploma, i run out of the familial home, i was so rubbish at school, than in 5 years in german klass the only work i retained is gefallen, da?
Gay fallen déjá.
The all lot was like that but the French and some humanities and social sciences, and eco and socio of course she was at her first year of teaching when she saved that would have probably be finished by myself, a raison d etre, un castel, a princess, a dragon, a quest quo-it.
A good point in life i learn that there is a sole luxury that holds and be worth of them all, that is beyond dropping for a better conception, someone with intended love to share the place you living in.
La princess quoi pardon.
She was from the heart of the emptiest countryside in France and had been brought in the territoire d'ôtre mer, Taiti, la Réunion, elle m'avait apporté cette fraîche odeur de liberté et depuis l'ors je mettais dis si on ne peut être ensemble un jour saint j'apprendrais qu'elle est heureuse - comme ma maman qui se dit et tue a me repeater-malgré toute cette merde a ses alentours que je suis la mieux place pour comprendre, mais vous savez les meres meme s'il on sais tout d'elles, leur mots, leur phrases, leur attitudes, regulieres, not flinching maybe sometimes the odd millimetres to maintain your head in the reality, just to confirm, no, no don’t jump from a bridge there is this daily pain you saw even if i deny it while i have to protect my face chiding away and go.

I never understood how someone could endure physical or mental violences, never.

Till i ask myself the dum question. If only she did not dump me, if she had stayed, would have i taken from this person, from this entity i adore, a dire, some ‘painful moments’, and blame me, but my answer after 32 years of certitude of this people are just weak bonkers, went the other way, i would of course, i d have taken every blow she would have played.

My experiences is very limited (they don’t stand me more than an evening and me socialization bores me to the recurrent image coming into my brain of my appending coffin, then in the middle of brunch is not easy, and it is why once i met someone, a pro, in a church, i was working. It took me days to fully realized that no other way round she was here to be paid, me and my finesse, only find it out when she started going to customers and coming back to mine, but i mean as discreet as in tomorrow i’ll attach a red light.

Eh bien i still respect her so much for that, because she was special, whimsy, capricious, hysterical, violent but respectable, only me that was only happy for not having to do something else than keep reading, the books not the sous entendre, it is why she was respectable, eh bien since her i know one thing is that this deals, even if i used to think that, normal, i care a little for the adult baby, never again i’d accept even one uptieme of the penny or nature of this category, even from the what i have been thinking for ages could have been the one, never i would let anybody steal taking for pretense take care and likeness story. You see thank you to the puta. A lesson like that, no one had succeeded.

Manage to give me boundaries on my way and give way up to the dearest of my wishes- in front of this finding they would move on toward the needy, anyhow, love is this, fight and give that has, should, ought to be-even if only to think about your goddess will enable you to give the strength to the other wounded you might shelter when the weather spares yourself from rough unstay.

Since her i d always knew( or not-from the habits of more or less reliable forecastings) that i d be with a black man. A man it is when like for years i am convinced that no one will come after her, and that i will have to associate myself with a son perhaps, or the alike. Or a man could say that like i thing logical my wife would be as diverse and all that one,thus, may say.

Black, well the skin, or the darkness, or the blood that in the vessels slay.

You know. Even sometimes i think that one might have caused damage enough for being surprised to be there the day after, and one time the torpor that maybe it is a postponement a simple overdue protraction of existence, and at that times where and who is my con-science?
At the beginning i just wanting to say, it has been so many years that i tried to bar myself to reveal anything i do, and did, anything personal, the only part of my life personal i wanted to build after a while without Africa, my being a carer, my grotesque, enforced, unreasoned, tortured –but finally i learnt a little academic ways ok- consequential resuming of study from A. From i breathe it was animal rights and after human rights but i wanted to be a champ of going to place stricken by misery and give back to these person a ground where you can grow where you can pray, play, think and embrace, (embrasse in Franc), the sheer simplicity of making love to a soil and its respect. I did not know people could love poverty for others’ derision.

I have been spending year, hiding my activity, because my writing is enough for me to display and dissect. Also when i need to raise awareness issue about what happen to me, i won’t use the ‘i’ i’ll tell the story like if it had happened to someone i heard off.

I work in health and care and i heard of so many stories. Not mostly the ones that people have told me but the ones that are in the files to which i had access. And in all history, and in all family more than problems, dysfunctionment, sadnesses, but complete tragedy.

It is why today i started giving up more info that i am used to. Not comfy, not on this page, just like that to someone i work with or i share the room with, not because i felt like doing it, but just because a little voice incited me and that i say o.k let’s see, she was whispering, do it, open your stone. I opened it, and i reckoned why, because now i am writing to you these facts that are of no interests. Should i stay totally quiet if one day i ever enter a share relation in all promiscuity?

For you it is done, and the little voice that asks me to open it, will be reassure that if want to pronounce from now one it’d be to one that would feel or else keep it as she d me.

My mission won’t be never near being a success anyway. I spend my time reading, writing, never able to reread again, under the water each time one tries to do something a little properly and ensure its continuity. I ll die unfinished and nonetheless crying upon the wide open scar bladed torn that will leave my final sentiment being there enough to still tremble for the women that succour horrendous nihility, still there till the last moment when my body will take the movement of shaking its last memories of it, and knowledge that without life would have been a destroyed devil despair. My body revealing, confirming for the last tie to my conscience that it rather shackle from its wounds while it is only thinking to the reasons of its combat.

The day i caressed her and the moment 3 months after she told me she was pregnant after being unfertilized for years. The baby who i hardy saw, but to which for these scores of decades and i guess more so, i felt being its da.

Feeling so sorry.
Who is gonna pray for our souls.
On a last note, with encouragement.
sounds even more posted, mature.
Ok i ll try them thanks.

They are simple essays at poetry though, surely linked with well-being in some legistligature.
I was giving, submitting to you my extra work, that is right but why would the ‘not endowed with all her faculties’ would be lurking for that?
By the way, I could have argued that was not private matters, but just an art snapshot. With the potential of become private, the day you would have queried, but should I have looked for your immediate involvement that I would not have so begun.
Enfin ok, tout est bien qui finira, bien.

Relations most of the time is with love and excitation but we said yes with the potential to nick on or the other life, so no.
And without love then the excitation is to the fresh meat, that you realize that is not fresh after all, ideal to vomiting as token.
Merci mon dieu que de joie ici.

You know why i was corresponding every day to such a degree, is that every word i d put somewhere for reporting to you it’d like to be.

10 days ago, there has been a rather serious row at the public library in the central library of walthamstow near the market place. After these people throwing violently a chair and punching one man in the face up to make him bleed, i try and report it directly to the library staff. after a good few minutes, i found amazing that no one came to take any comment and witness details on it. there were at least 5 people who were on the side with the possibility of seeing what happened and whereas the all library could have heard the noise of this row, whereas someone was bleeding, whereas my calling for help and assistance, no one came to take more detail on that.

I will tell you know what is shocking, is that despite the cctv camera, despite the eyes witness- the library responsible said that he had not taken the witness details because you would treat that as insignificant- i though he was kidding me, but in fact it is the whole stuff that is not given a damn about, despite my calling the police to report that, it has been more than one week now, and no policeman has ever called me. what do you suggest?

We like that nicking children, don’t we? Driving the cars, water trigger, polluting everything with chemicals, letting the lights go on everywhere and without any fines. The lists of the poison we are delivering to the next generations, let’s not start to cry. We like that nicking a child.

This love that my wife bears and that belonged to my patry.
The lands that permit us out of the death that deserve those who make perish. Or let it to be evilly touched.

My fear, the utmost horrid Esperance or expectaction. To give my life to my writing and grow old taking heed of that I ‘ll be good for the false note, the purgatory, without a doubt, but perched on the thickness of my words and phrases, tilt to the Hades, why not?

She did not want. After all that, she did not.
Taking her by force, not for nothing but show that not that I was physically stronger, but what can one do when someone turn up to dress up as a fighter?
To stop before everything, everything but the violence, the betray, the weakness of this attempt tempted having.
To stop.
To have so many cares, to be such aching.
For being more empty that a bottle vide.

To find my counterparts.
As melting means that they will have me repair-ed.

Short and head.
And that in their readings, I ill look for providing their aches with my cover.

I for so long believe in marriage.
That even after years of it to be gone and wells. After having spent years and years, second after seconds howling, begging, crying to the moon for it to last its spell.
After an after-life, considering life as being void without him.
I see the benefit and freedom of divorcing. At last. Being in an able state to stand before another and stipulates, “I am alive, before I lived, my anterior? One, many failures, but one entirety, the love, ability, courage and perseverance that it has taught to me and my bribe.

Love you, but if you write my name.

Maim.
Millions and millions of times. No times by times by person, my inner told me it may, it is the life of your love nad versa.
You are here, in front of my mind, the morning, the evening, each breath I truly deem.
And you know what I am waiting from the next ploy?
I wait that it finally kill all hopes for joy. As life tamed, I see you as I love you, as much as if you were and are the foundations for my sight-see-in. And this same voice that cannot be pondered, that whispered it’s her, the end. b
Since again she gon(e)na disappear, vanish with all the good that could keep me warm. Of course they all are still, but myself turn cold on my couch. If one day she’d touch, my resurrection would be up to the day she would say ‘come in’. And in. Side by side, I’ll turn and placate as virg-in as one new, but no so new, as my mum was my exegete.

The teachers:
It is not one case in their carers that they will have daily blatant signs of their students and pupils to be beat up or worse at home.
It is tens cases a year.
And what do these bastards. Because we are in right to think they are here to educate the people.
No worries am not saying judge and punish (as anyway the neglect in the other institution else that the family), I am saying help.
Oh yes but you see, it is not our fault we are not linked with the social services. They are paid to convey to the population a false feeling of security, thinking if the teachers stay shush is that they are alright our baby.
Bonds and securities.

We could even not make love.
As we were as halves.
I was waiting like one waits the last day to be delivered from the last jugement and be conducted where I was to go on finding. It was that, pray.
As when I'll de-serve only see her as my half then it will announce the end of a journey. Ready to go beyond all sources, and all the strength and forces peered before, returned in her p(A)lace.

Professor and will be goodess. What shall I do to know it? Wait in aperture. Await that no doubt could stole that I endure. I wish you d be my last. Even if my virginity meant that this solitude would perjure. Be ti the last tie I adjure. The last I conjure and implore, please leave me sole and sane, as if I condole once again my console of hoping the next to be you, then my live, all of it would have been abandoned too.

And if he reanimates, as she is he, whatever may. For you, for me, homo, hetero, love is unique, a unit that without all be massacre in one second and nothing the second split later. If I teach ya, it is because I have got only that. And without you, she would be killed, my wife, the way I saw, awe, the lord, a it, it but this time meaning all.

I have to stop, I still dictate, what is in my head, because without it, her for my case, him if you want, my soul, my half, the organ of all and every happiness. But if you derogate my right to love, I will with my heart, brain, with all that can be taken, I will, I swear will kill you. Homo.
I am homo as much as you dumped my sister, my brother to be unlike you. To be inferior as I d like to snap buriying you. It is the end, and this hetero family have proven one thing, they kill their own projet. I am in love with someone who could not introduce me to its mother. With all the strength that the ideal of a perfect family I d like annihilate you, mon frère. It s finished, my inferiority built in my non alliance will explode while your engagement are going to smell tombs, snakes affames.
If I had a family, I d do everything for my neigbourgh to be as happy as a man well married. And my wife me the lesbian, has to count on me to be worse than draculi, just in order to protect our nest, a nest where our babies is as human as the rest, the lot, who fear him alike to be. Mercy on me, on her, on him, on that, if not what will drive, I ll drive you up to folly. Mercy on your children that you compel to love the manners that will bring money. Whores in a word, nuts in a sentence, but beware that betray love, is the death penalty not light sentence. It will suffice, no thousands pages to understand that one don’t sell one’s soul twice and an half, na. People sadly, dangerously, lethally, unhappy for a religion, take ‘their desire for orders’. That is their perverted preferences for the duplications of human obligatorily enforceable and coercitive folly.

They want people be like them, in order to disturb the true equal opportunities stories, if you don’t meet these criteria, you’re out of the pattern. They protect their preferences as in order to be served, as their way, feeding is another man’s poison, and to oblige people doing, liking = adopting the same zeal, is the most secure means to alienate them.

On muslims and together all of your sects that pretend to be religion but are networks of thieves, Christians have adopted the charia for centuries and centuries, it was already a winner, it is why cowardice has taken it as a leader.

Anyhow I am not gonna work not on religion, that are texts classics and have to be celebrated for their majesty even if they are also the results of so marvellous arts and sciences, morals and attempts at humanitization just being burned through movements similar to the inquisition; I will stop wording, working, but on your well cladded, cladode, callous.

In fact I find amusing that people say it is the last text, it is the sacred, as what is sacred is all creature of god, and pretending one is last is to prevent people’s research, devotion, artisticliness, everything that permit people to work for universe and not to be exploited by everybody, included by heel of doing bad, by the hell impersonated by the society that everyone hatred transform into bordello.

Bordello, from having to marry someone you love, as love is natural, but for you there is no elaboration on what is marital love, your choice, your nest, your self, yourself looking for god.

You see am a believer, am not saying that for you to stop your anger, as anger if rom god, is not self hatred, or hatred for others, it is the strength needed by justice, and poverty, palaces are there to well remember that religion exists but in hearts not in your place of abusive devotee to theire ommmunities, that is the local, and widespread a little bit, the globalizing chain, nia, niach, bach for the gnawl but what bait are we? I always know that I had to take by the horn this voyage without the warm of the most remote love, a bet, I always known that my love and life had to cross each other, r.i.p, but now, a bait?!

Ba- it. I know this is hell, but just at its entrance, cos what am gonna do when I wont’ see you, on which contumace, accoutumance is not the problem, you are my tremens. It is not the problem, one does choose one’s mat(c)h, I pray, I pray, but what, to look into you, to implore espair, the way in the cosmos to lodge in my memory. Memoyr. Grimmer, in French language, grimoir, means. One d do whatever to record to his life, you are my mama, you are all that I lost, lost soil, st o i or is are only the inflexion of my knee, et toi pour mon vrai palais, the plazas, where we could go hand in hand not discreet this time but distrait. I spend all my life regretting my illusions, and now my concret is abherration.

I found a dream, so complete, that this odd exactitude cannot be guessed, or supsonnate, before being met. (them)theme, tem, aime) aime (love) is the highest point contrarily to what think my fiancée. Spare me, spear me. What do you want, enhance?

I have to thank the ex of my love who conducts me to peace. To you, infinity emblem. It would be fun at home, but it is just that for the first time, the same intrigued unfolding, I would do every, any thing, and you the same I think just more discreetly. I do everything, even what I swear, I never gave to no one, even the former one, not a little one, the one who has been led me to you for more than half of my whole time. For you everything, as everywhere else is prison. But not the prisons inside which you travel, the prison sliding, sleeping inside, not the threat of being destroyed but its actual flame.

Act-u-all.

And not the flame that punish, but the one you have to stay with, as without it, no more hope for knowing something brighter, even in theories, the theories that changes my live, in a winning torpor. Demand a press enquiry, of a so beautiful story there is not, it is why love it at its highest, and as far as it is not, the hatred is its mouroir depth, dept on death row. Row.wor.

Liberate me, who could else, certainly not the one ticking all the boxes, my coffin has his seal. I cannot look at you properly, what image proper do my brain could keep of ya? I cannot adore you and start touching you will all the love that wants to do that, and even if I could am I cunning enough to convey it the proper way, the adequate endroit (substancification of you, the part of your body that would agree with me too. )

I d like to say sorry when I behave ways that could put you in danger, it is never planned, and this time in the sheer oven would be accompanied, show the door by you if I had only in head the remotest of this hate. Hate, etc (state). State in haste.
Hell she does not want, but what can offer, the only survivor of the vendetta that ensue, ensure, that my previous deaths, genocidal condemnation, that my living honour, won’t be fattening the clerk.

There is soothing else, I cannot believe that, the only to who I could say, I could have a baby, and in not adding but you are in charge if you want it. It is you. Because at least for good matters, we would be wondering, what with this and that, we are supposed to do? Right. Also, here is hell, not that we did not know it, but this time it is return, so what is the way, who is the one that are not allowed to watch back, nor won’t aloof, allow to stay? It is hell, so imagine won’t go far, image here are mortem mirror. I start understanding that I am in big trouble, proving myself, my love, but when then it madekes realize that I am a defunct, in search of its life, but would you give me to you, were I a dign messenger?

I am an open tomb, without luna. Here it is she is gone, the luna cannot sparks no more, for all my life that she has in every moment the light emission. You are my moon, who is in the sky this one? She is to others, you are not to be seen, you cannot come closer, I would rather the backgrounds darker.

They take all of me, I am not saying that for the complain, for me words, writing more precisely, is the freedom of my ideas, revolts, the children that through sentences I could perhaps tend.

But if we are in hell, they are also, how can we stop the instinct for destruction without which I fill musk mask myself zero.

And when the gee get gem whereas benefit of the doubt is in fact your lasting dream. Drama gel. Don’t know in witch order is it drama first or gel in second, to finish where white the drama of nice transform into mummey. Because mummery it is what I was pretending to attain, without the right masks, but now, a slip of my though toward reality, the fact that you are true, and here I am perfumed, shrouded, emptied, and Seth spectre inhibit inhabited me, but I still lib, is still live for the sake of the dates. When the time is gonna stop? Am I supposed to engage in the army that want me not for defense but for assault. You know which army, or the fiends ir my enemies give me more than missions, give me impossible fight, gibed me torture at last. That I don’t stay so long, this spell that destroyed every second. I don’t talk of now, I am talking when I would not meet you, or meet you in knowing that you aim a t the last of rendez-vous’. I am not talking of now, do not condemn me therefore, a m talking when what and who I could look up to or from down, which is less pleasant scene.

Note, when I love I can find or skinny, scanty or fat person ablosutely sexy, due to the way they think, approach and tackle...the wyo they are, or the way I perceive they are, and the weay their body is moving and how the light, the warmness and density of their movement will touch me.

On love, due to the basic fact that one don’t want be a widower, or look for its partenaire to have the same intensity and rythm with activities (possibly)weight body is a criteria taken into account.

As for the lkinny I think that it is sexy potential comes from the fact that when someone is skinny they might be ‘unodor’ as the body processes less, they are lighter, so with a credential for mor suppleness, something you get more easy grip and round, a lightness is a promise of [(a)miability]=

For years I thought that my last thougth would be the one of a woman who did not give me love back.

and now I love that my last though would be the same, thinking that the lat but one would be of the same tenor. And theat I would quiet here with tears of pity and desolation.

But no, as for today would I be thinking of you, I would, I still (c(y)an cygn=swan) theo Eritically give you my soul without concession.

I am like if I had most my mother, I am like if I had most my father, I am like if I had most my country, not the one with the passport, the one with my fiends and some of the academic support in it.

Aca-endemic for a poorest world, give you an idea why some all the same mistaken war and genocidal campaign lead their terminology on them.

And as for people that think that they obtain a jobless new terminology for ‘ professional position’ less stupid than people working in tesco, they forget that the means we ‘work’ produce ‘end of the world’. What else stupidity more than this oblivion?

It ist th problem with self respect, one knows oneself very well through the permanent content content enquiries operated on his body, but the ones of you, others, and in fact more on you, alter, the one I have chose for being my professor. I know my desire, I know it so well, ti leads the dance each inutes of this ballet, but yours, theerotically, (feerotically) I can be sure there is one, it is your concession, but what does it bring to a dike’s life? Have you sip of a crowded water? People are all inside my bay to check if I don’t, I won’t touch the fruit. And the knowledge this time would be the pardise, refound paradise, refound in each and every place of the bodies, all the bodies I cite earlier. Cite earl. When love will be kindom.
Love because we were alive was not to take for granted, as we were organic and thus changing. And what about letting one consider you a very tinny bit as your object that he adores though, but from which they could separate, disunite, even in this life, let alone the project of finding back one’s construction the day after we go.

Did you have the series called ‘the fourth dimension’ in the royaumes-uní?

And spend time, on your lips, trying to open them or carress your gums and teeths through the arder part, the skin. The beauty with the flesh is that it can relax as much to let me go until you collapse, not from exhaustion but because when libearate, the fles h creates, explodes, in flower, jouissance bounty.

I think I’ve just find why the populare revolution are punned with flowers names, whose are not insulting for whom made love instead. But you well know me it is not all about love, as if won’t do nothing against others’ equal rights, like they are not if different, generating an unbalance that will conduct one of us into haveing to kill to defend the flower that I can on you, my reader, a one who needs for sky their lovesr’ appetite and to let know the body of its infirmities as long as in the air their seeds in prison were.

If I was with you, in this grek island, only us, looking after our children, and reporting on how libeliness is. What I think that would count is to avoid at terms possible matricide, and to do that they should lobe each other.

But what if we’d perceive an external danger? What kind of pot would be at the resort? b

On your habit to kick your fingers or your hand violently, brutally on the tables or on your thighs or other part of your body. Is there more fragile and industrious that the veins, capillary, knuckes, microspiques filament that action our tools. You won’t have a secretary to dict the perfect though, we find in a perfect moment, of our knowledge of what the perfect mind are it’s task, tusk might be.

We are alone, and it is why we can indulge so much in these ceremonies. Cemeteries? On, no, on yes, but the true place we ill go in rest is the one where to gether to think, together to be, together to share all these sermons, will be like being alone, as without you I am not, I am the errance pursuing its compagne. [companion]

I use to be reactive to people who I know what I do, about what I think. But I ll have to drop, as me I am or so I would have to join, in the cosmos to reach each of you messy. My miss. The woman the pure, that I don’t know if she is my promised, life so plentiful, so graceful, can’t be. But in my brain there is no more place for any other else than your vicinity.

The only one that should be feared is god, in fact oneself for disobeying, disobeying, the path of the all considering. Not god as god is the graceful almighty but before finding the light in us and all, the shadows is taking me. In there it is beauty but they have found their aims or they are not at it. When I understand that your love is mine, I have to look at you with feeling beyond describe.

Amateur, I look like an amateur, that could be sacked by you by all his shortcoming but the true one of that his love was not showing. If you could experiment the state of my soul, when alone in my cell, your fact, you face, appears so cool, as this time I ve got all time at my disposition to enter in the transe that permit my on your entry. Could you please for a second considering the fact and figure, that if I had the choice, all my time, all my time, and the one after her, her, your body and charms. Don’t jump at me, don’t jump at me, a charm it is the ondulation under which I cannot move. If I have the choice I could die at once, only to prove that I loved some one monk once {monk, knom, know, kome, come (alike)}.

Speaking about holograms, it is very easy I will convene, but I just imprint that should have been but has not by fault of paper, ink, and leisure time.

Leisure time in which lay the treasure of each one departure, for its promise land. You. Small specification I am not writing to santa claus not to its hierarchy.a muse I don’t want, all my need and help and dean are in the term you, my wife et my lullaby, as a married couple without the right to live in peace with the other part of the society, is the tic-tic-tac-tac of future monstruosity.

as I can bear your no. Accomplish towards what, if it is without you? Without you or with you, in my head, in my dream, and more and more in my refolds, prefunds, tritons, the soute, the calles of my body. I am the deamon.

I know my writing is like fucking shit painture, it is only once onc one coulor, or play on letter the level of a baby, but even if it is not divine it is when I am nearer from my almighty, I cannot convene, I cannot convene since I am not god, but I write as you are the one who sends me, and for that there is no word but you parade is. Parade dei.

People want from other people as a society to including assuming them well, to make believe that sentiment and feeling will have to be the cause of my misery, I love you, in put you into danger of being outcasted or more discreetly discarded, as the card in occident is the ascast for ori ent, hori end, occident, accident of habling become empire of not men but worms ready to obey order for the final remedy erupting guillotine. Speak about history is to let the contemporay know who they are, but who they aer, they hate id so, or should be ashamed, that the whole secret does not offer retrieved signification. Sign, what about signing? my poor citizens.

Signing is gor for the churches or any party garden as long as its burial, rail for the bigger crash with other civilisation, as civilisation is no more than civil that are cooperative for the next keepguard or the next looting. Poor us, jamming now, under the hammer, of what twere no justice but travestite vested with power to keep empty for the abusers hovering over the l()aw, wal, that there supposed common sanity safe from being invaded by tort-hour on end, game is over children.

Civil is these networks of primitive society forgotten that modernity does not provide peace, and without god harmony, the tools of all time will be a bomb portable but not for disposal.

Communism, liberalism, is like islam or Christianity, it does not mean nothing to ‘I am one’ be said.

b

I am crying, I am crying, as much as you gave me life and the rage to save my soul without selling my skin.

You are my wife, reminding everyday, each time you cult walk away, that life is good again and again, suddenly could be the most appalling reversion which could, would be jealous greatly appealing by the dead.
You are my wife, my mummy. The center of what would be call nerves, hooves, hives, cloves and energy. Shamrock the one I hold for if your shadow won’t descend once again survey, oversee, I would be a suppot of satan, could I come to this hell and save, aeve, without who I am wormy.

Anhd when I say my other part it is for other that can see towed to two body, but if I am damned it is from being broken from my own shadow, chat (=cat, pushy) ouidow. Shadom, widom.

The others companion to whom I use to give the affection I could give to nobody, now I met the one that soul (should) my part.

At least ti could hope for countenance, without you this life a time to complete a new plan with it, I ll design the how of our complain to reach the next exit of this nest burning from love unadmited.

N

Eih, window is gone, I have always wbeen watching LOVE through the forbidden of fa woman that idid not return it, and now you are in front of me, not returning either, but I know that mind could try to build upon some bridge, bringing truth for what trough is a live without it.

B

She hated me not for what I was, but for the fact that whe could have been me, I am not so different, but our culutrures are in economic wars, just a little bit more emphasize than the every family are waged in.

B

The paradise you don’t want to see, let’s they disappear, what would I have to do to retrieve, would be any options for you, or just for me the experiment of a decay dying for long as for you it kept itlef, healthy.

Nb

Lyou, lyon. On whom (womb) I cannot think actively as you in my place won’t be. And nor would I prepaere my time nesting us to rest for th better of this life, the ex-istence. Not only substance but pure state of mind. Not kenning mind of dim, but for all problems if one exists redeem every where (hells) else one day pure and theo will inn.
The problem with trying to improving planning, scrutinizing, is that of course it is a process of intellectual proceedings and appurtenance. And well when you start doing that for the sake of your professional or citizenships’ ethics wou you will see you showed the door from these bastions of whores and there will finish inbestigation, inbestbeastification.

And hthere the means of analysing the exact problems of functioning and misfunctioning.

But there is even worse, is that people deride the ones using words, they are just words, what they don’t know is that liberty is nicked just because it is a trunk we are not allowed to use them.

We can speak about big inspiration but when I said big it is what these solders have called utopia, that is something so far, so blurred, so attainable, ble, bl, bl, bl.

But here the truth, dummy, it is if that one want to do something relevant and logic on how to achieve, they won’t be allow and if they persist their work would be demolish if their career won’t be the same as the legionary, the good legionary that gives life to fight good war, and when he said look chief this one is whore, he will be treated more than every one believed thwhat was real enemy.

What I am saying don’t think a second that we are allowed to use words, as soon as they start saying how beatiful to the core, each entity it would be, for us, fort you, in-tell-ect-u-al, it is simply the cord.

Intellect.tu (you kill inf rench)al.

Mte, mute an.

Imagine a world where we could not inventing word, that any essay at outing the syntaxe, sin-axe, tax, would be in microsoft automatic, indelible, debile, defile corrections.
when problems within the society, in an office, at a desk, I remember as much as this sanely working that they are not the place where I organize myself but the place for the most people, all for in the view of liberating all people, and that this universalism might would cause some rules, infinitely workable, but some rules in case we would have all of sudden every file to fit in.

On rules a debilitating.

The problem is as sonly as it is sane, because when one work in emergency, but we are all doing like if it was the liberalisation, as cool as the dead, so then there should be time to refine something smoothly, smithy, since we do that for advancement, all pros and cons of modernity as everyone’s claim. It is ok for me I can do that on my own time. But do that and it will be getting highly personal, we will kill your role.

On the kittens’ contest context, about this big societies. I don’t think, strangely enough. They choose for barracking, braguing, bargaining, the image of a man threatening to kill kittens.

But where are we? Who is suppose to laugh or buy their feigned insouciance, in soucis (= fright, agony, cares)?

You know that nina, that all that has a prize, the prize of this cardboard, guardboard, comprised, that all that surrenderise, bid, is propaganda, paid by further advert.
Where are we, I have the sensation of, if I would signal (animal ‘f.cabrel’) that they’ve got dementia, they would throw my blood, brood, book, saying I’ve been lacking with several chapters.

Nina, why do we have to step stopping the argument and say but look go at the rspca, they will explain to you how many are gazed, and how many are bought, and how many are left in the shit that they cannot spread, bred spray. They spray this way, a market place where you do joke about little baby that every day die by the millions, thousands, hundreds, dozens, one, in fact are you veggie, leggies?

Doc, you know the cod of this joke, is that since they mock, debase a traits that are their own every day treat and trait. They are overtly traitor, you’ve seen the singular, a pack, a mash brainwash lashed.

A propos Wollstonecraft, who said that she is threatened like if someone could trample on her as if she was an insect, it is trope, for the story above.

Because in this society, people kills people, kittens, the same rate as this. Exactly like if you were not doing it on purpose, or that you were not supposed to avoid the tramp o line, on tramp, creating poverty, and do it even on purpose when you can claim I’m saving insanity on vault (vulture).

By the way, if ‘she’ was my kitten. Quit. Quit the boat, it is this way they do the punky, in a ponk, in a pond, in a bag, together, sin-k and charm the frame farmed.

Far from med, frame, fare, farm me.

I wanted to tell you that I love you so strong, ok strong you, I love you so bawdy, barky, badly, that your thinking for me is singsong, all day if I want it all day, sometimes it is just that I have to work at our dream, the external this time, for you so it is not a drame. A drama for me is it is when I know that it is you the one that is thinking this miles far from my ears, that your voice is in my bedroom as resounding as seas’ waves against, rolling on oceans. I don’t deserve it, I am too coward.

Oh, malheur, qu’est ce que tues belle. Belle belle c est pour 9999, cest pour nina. C.et pour. C’est pour elle, elle.. c’est pour toi. Elle, every panto, every name, name it, name at, name at it, c est pour ninia.

Une guerre au mots, homo

I calm I claim the opposite but I don’t know what is to have a wife, nor a girl friend, not even a fling, the sex little sex I had empty of any feeling, and if nicety the lower sense of it.

We are under the dictacture of the majority, and in fact no, but we won’t argue, what’s the point, we were raw, rare, medium, I guess we like them poached.

The special manners emblematic of a gender comes from the moves their activities, clothes, position they had to take and hold, the way and degree their body were exposed, and to what, additionaly ot the propaganda, familial and etatic, that could have been in some regards, similar to those famous psychological tests and experiments, were the researchers are qualifying and quantifying human reactions, behaviour, organisation, conditionment, slavery potential excluding solidarity and successful or at least successfully emblematic, very, very dangerous, revolts.

It is so many years that I don’t get the feeling of being human anylonger, that my heart and brain had been taken away but the jobs we do...

But, you are the but, what since I find you as having finded my self.

Finded, would be lest of you thinking that you are my object or simply my found. Ok there is still the consonant fine, but please don’t send me there, I would not be utile, not at my utmost of my capacities.

And maybe it is what is missing in the utilitarian theory it is what about the objects, the nature of action, the aim of regroupement and commune good, think thank (praise god for in each step each of us keep the autonomy, and the absolute right to arrange for herself) that they did forget FOR GET (forget-not) the maxime of maximisation, what about the greatest result, the greatest achievement and its compass for everybody.
For everybody?? To get, to get, yes, yes, said apology...

To come to you, already dead by the force of love, after having tested every single part of my life, the way it transforms my days, philosophy, concepts, shadow from the windows, appetite, dynamism, the hours I sleep, the night I appeal, the need to be entirely alone to contemplate my, our, your soul and my relation to them.
Already dead of having had to repossessed my demon, and violently throwing my self ant into exchanging what we could weel think about. You on the other end, knowing that I am bound to go and come oto this execution, it is end of the game, or do we play, because of this game over, beyond and above, even if not so well, mon Coeur. I firstly thought epistemologically naive to believe in a unit of matter that could not be peer into and disunited, or like playing with their connections or junctions if the play d stay pacific. Because everything comes from something, at least what is humanely peerable. What is humanely peerable is coming from the same environment will be naturally equal to the average ability that possess human beings at analysing, intervening, wishing, conceptualizing, experimenting.
But suddenly the thought of you, what if we d be divisible, what if the believe that holds the every love for existence, the existence concept itself, what if we could be simply cutted. Magnetism, could save the bet. Immaterialism, the deal. Ideal.

So ok, every thing we see is coming from our average reason, but what about from melting, what about what, the product, beyond the scrutiny of our life, we know well that honesty, courage, fairness...might altogether being repaid-reap aid currency in society or not. But what about the exercise of those virtues, higher (ailleurs, elsewhere) virtue. The simple fact that they are indeed recognisable, is the sign of a reconciliation, the possibility, the duty of human, and dynamic of universe towards concord.

This is the dynamic, but what about when, the moment of creation, when you manage with a token?, whatever is called what you did, when you manage to revive in me a void immense. Jj. between umbrella and j sabre.
The problem with the relationship to children is to respect their sexuality, their need for personal and intimate development, without imposing one’s view. Like it is ordinarily done because parents are of afraid of society’s view (my one could be the next to be victimised, exploited, neglected) or because the cannot just count on people simply because children activities are left to the parents entirely. (certainly as a way of birth control, as if the society attended children need what would prevent couples from reproducing over the rate of shared viable numbers by head.

Children are fundamental in the population, even simpler, spiritualister way of being a ‘blanker’ organism free of the heaviness of past experience and are there to reinject nature, not in the form of our ancestors more than the parents (are they are the fruit of this long history) but more more simply the one, the part of the fluctuant that may drift from generation to generation, the culture, the short-term culture maybe.

Thanks’ life in al part of the world religion exists. As human as an in interaction phenomenon needs rules for this relations not to finish in wars, cruelty, endemic disease. And plus we in some cases, need very stringent and strictly widespreadly applied rules. But pretend that we need the ones (am not even speaking about the core of the idea, the essence, as like every text, you will give an abstract followed by an example, and the example will be taken from the daily life of people) given years or centuries ago.

The religion was trying to educate people, to protect people from suffering and dying. And most important from hurting each other. To say that we are into the same degree of advancement now is to insult one’s forebearer past, because it it simply saying that their work were senseless and inutile.

It is also a way of controlling children for the cheapest investment of love and raison in a societal way produced. It is a way of imprisoning every one into lies that no one believes but just reproduces as a way of cruel, pervading, endemic threat for unfair persecution and coercion.

Also, it is insulting this classic texts and the human intelligence to which they address, not to notice that from an example you will have to draw and interrogate the essence, the premises, the quality morale and metaphysics of what little people have found, when they found, and what for the truth to be loved and shared and ... be at last truly the master. What truth will be needed of us to any creature devotion and application of universal religious principles?

To pretend this has been done for us, before, is an act of spiteful Profiteering.

I won’t even start asking for you not calling religion what is spiteful, what is domeenering, in the sense of imposing to other to disrespect their siblings because who knows a little “communities based on the concept of being followers of religious concepts”, talking about the no-charitable, lucrative ones, or making money for the chiefs, you know what I mean, I ll suppose it so, praying that you are not held in victims of violence or of the rape that consist entertained ignorance. This very same communities are the first to know and so that they are not following religions but a vengeance dynamic created by the fact that doing good is far more difficult and dangerous (these empty camps in the uk pretending being tough although they would not give a finger to the one of their same confession but who are them suffering inhumane, atrocious story) than doing badly. We all need violence as we need to acknowledge violence and use it in order to create new orders and push oneself towards the implemented meanings. The only hic hiatus, is the possibilities, opportunities and often invectives that people have to abuse others (people, animal, goods, environment in general).

It is “amusing” to see parents warning and warning, abusing in fact their children via the topic of homosexuality. Because through these kind of manipulations, lies, hatred, conditioning, black-mails, love restrictionism... relationships parents/children become the black hole of disequilibrium. Hopefully, pray for our offsprings to realize the most possible of what have been conceived their upanddown bringing (rolercoast, role’ncost), for them to reestablish solidity and prevent intrusions that steal them everyday.

J,

I should have given you more of my affection, more for my intelligence, more of my humility, more of my time, more of my attention, more of my thoughts, more of my love. I wanted it but as you are under the spell of being called autistic by these maddy, I could not do this, and because of my shortcomings and selfishness added into those horrid, horrible plays and litany.

I were not that much younger, and as a man charming, the most unctuous cake of discretion and chivalry.

They did not want you to eat pork, but kilos of other murders were rather compulsory, they abuse you with food, to render us, and our complain, our critical voice, fatty.

They anysem , amuse, avuse you this dtime, speaking all the day, how much autist you were in living you one option to stay with the darkness, physically, they dare it, not to react at leaving your in this cupboard dark room, from which from time to time only you bursted from being left a dummy. To step. I notice that you could not defend yourself physically, though you are of ones the biggest and sturdiest I ve ever known. Why daddy, beated mummy, this reason would it be?

No blame on family, the social services, on charge the all day, would not have stroke better.
I would like to say to you, that I miss you really, I have to write because I was the one to remind everyone that autism has been proven to be without intellectual limitation (that is to say the same than any mental particularity) but this time they manage, with I don’t know which outburst of honesty, to prove it. But the social services that let people treating you like an accommodating furniture. I have been one of them, in matter of communication, I think I do better, I guess I was too loud when I was reading you story, you ear likes whispers, ofor hall insanity.

In (inside)-san (without), and you, my child, keeps well, incredibly, infinitely better, your secrets and see crest.

You know I always knew to be willing to stay alone to do one’s feeling.

I long knew what is to be distrubred by other than the others are perceiving.

But now I know what is to want to stay speaking with ‘the dame of the lack’ the day long, every day, as much as keeping death at a distance I can honestly pray.

Honestly? Hposted? Nest. Maybe than like you, and like you for me, as I have to remind that your protection served me divine- it is your fees that paid most of my study.

They postpone, they postpone your education, till the day they could scrapped it entirely. I d like you to calm down, my bro, my bureau, boro(ugh), borrow in French bourreau . I love a woman now, she is like you in fact, someone who loves me for what I am exactly. I want you to know that was not so common the spread of our folly, the one of shared feeling, to be able to share the same home without constrain each other, the same activity, thinking and little walk.

She certainly not want to do only this, but me yes, you see we could have spend all our life together and wait for our companion, I d look for you to hide and seek up till your heart has its content. If mine got his? You know it’s a woman, the tyranny itself. Like your mother, sometimes I forgot this, it is just that no one teach you to fight and for me was more than pain.

I write also for her, I am so much a dick than after all these days you allow me to stay, for who you are writ=ing, wit, vie=ing, is none of the story, finally what have I understood? It, it is what I am, as neurotic, necrotic as them.

I reckon J why you don’t want to ear anyone else as it is a vampire story.

If you dare inviting other females, whatever flings, hope, weakness, other vague or precise interest, if you dare inviting, only invinting vintage (vin, wine) temptation, whereas you rpromise you to someone else, your angel is gone and what is left, the losing of the blood of live, cope-in, cop-in, (copine, betray love is poison poise, son) .

I transform my words succession in latin sentence s, her in canonical vouchery butchery, but originally I think that the core resembles itself summat, somat, estrangely.
The image or parable of the sacrifice.

Is to have to ensure that one’s love (children or the one that are despairely in love with you) knows for sure that she is free. You will even have to ask: “are you sure, you know, that you are free? As if they were prisoner of your ugliness or jhorrid, arid, arrogant, addictive, disgusting weaknesses, this nightmare would be the last”

Once you made sure of that they know. You bow, you beg, you cry to at your turn know what would make them free, happy.
And for you self, “if us, if so”, it is that you were already.

I was waiting for you on a beach.
And all of sudden, immobilized, I tried to move. I thought I could be attacked as I could not shift.
But not at all, even if I did question, could that being a dream?
No, I was bearing the fact to be completely immobilized, completely at the mercy of I don’t know what.
The only I would not dare put into question “I was waiting”

There is something significant during these moments were you wake up from a scene, that is able to live on a little bit, develops a bit too, when you always ask yourself is it a dream, but you find that you are totally petrified, like if every inch of you was nailed, statufied, and you try and you try, asking for the plot unfolding.
This moment of this state of the brain thinking and the body moving the second is well and away the dream.

Don’t think you will be support by the community, even if it is yours and that you serve her faithfully, as like mostly when it comes to go under danger, under danger, under fire, the support is holey, in the sense of defectuous, of trappy.
Don’t think that the feminists will support you as a woman who are taking risk as a whole and not for and according to theri specific groupings, your faithful, yes, shall we call them yours, but how many, me on the count up to the hell, even inside, your guilt I would not buy.
But if humans promised you hell, for loving (o.k, estimating-one?)
I have met the peer and pure for me. If the perception of this perfection goes far, so far that I would not be allowed or able to join up, at least would be left upon me an arm of all necessity, the end of cессity.

I would not be any longer for me to woo women that would not accomplish (not accommodate) the half of this degree. None. Freed. Free. And as for you the day you abandon me don’t forget your own necessity, the one of carry on dummy. Because no one spoil and thwart one’s destiny for arriving onto a better land. I would have warned you, I am not threatening you, I just simply know how difficult to choose this perfection, perfectable (improvable is from the practise to the theo) is above all for you that still think that people are like you in love with the cause. I, am like that, but let me put that straight, I would not follow any of those people, my compromise only for you, as there none investigation that I would not do for you, my cause. As long as I don’t serve no one but poverty in the sense of exploited, and what it is great is that from billions choice, focusing on it reduce the mission to one. But this one without you for me a gain, would be the story of my planned death and agony. And with you, exactly the same as I would die from imagining (age you see) you poorly because of this same cause or because of the cause ill-treated by my inexperience (in but not out, and how to exercice in this globally jailed country) and inability.

I am so sad, but not really sad in fact, you are in me.

I am so sad because I know that the only way I could ‘fall you down’ is poetry through, but here it is, that’s not job done.

But per you perhaps my words are not the reflect of stupidity more the one of being lonely and to have to certify at one’s further half that it is for her that bitched life. Bleach trees and birds I would like in my company, peering the sky and thinking of love invading it, would suffice to render to God its notion of paradise wanted and wanted till no more orgasms. Or gasps when I see you, but why see you I have to pretend being serious and if I am serious at all it is because the all week but this one hour, my breathing was taunted with you tender. For me you are a rose, for me not only but I d rather think that I share this feeling with but your mother, a white and blue rose, your complexion cerned, sterned, that would give us your brain. All these bastards around smiling like you were theirs, I think I d rather playing it autistic before taking one in my hands and smatching it cruel.

Ok, this one is for the side I am appealing, I know I have to stop this comedy and steep my sternness towards more good work, but the only stuff my brain commands and recommends is to finish the letters that I will take off difficulty with speaking to you directly and use this grand theory to prove to you that dgod is truth in only you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,
We did a third page, we could have done the fourth, a question of time, give me a fiver and I come and paint you. It is not for the compliment it is because I am so sick of not reanimate my feeling in front of ya, that I could do the worst foolishness but mute is the sole answer to mutiny plotted by scelerat. Of course, I could advice you every five minutes in other circumstances to have your celery and whatever else that could vary at the upmost of the possibility diet and way of cookery. Being in London you can have as many as bread, vegetables, nuts, spices, fruits, dry fruits, Indian, African, all over the places cereals, everything I want you to eat of every single thing but blood and milk they are the causes of mass murders, please read a little on veganism, take the complement in pills, it is a matter of duty and the strongest one, nina, we are a completely mad species and I know that they others are spending their time in captivity or in the hidden or the poisoning to pray for us finish line to cry with joy of liberty. Don’t participate, I so much love you but I could do nothing if their souls were gonna take their flesh back to hell. Please also don’t take me for a violent person, unfortunately writing is for responses my sole music, because I used to comment on the streets, at my jobs, just like that up to ten times a day. I dropped this habit they think I am too heavy or possessed or thick or vague and they prove it in their incessant dismiss. I feel myself like in an old story of the bible itself, when people laugh while witnessing their death, but here there s no boat, only for me there is a, only for me there is a you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you, you,you,you you,
This song is from Arabic countries and around when they are celebrating. Celebration what? Marriage or virginity violation. As far as my virginity I would rather for us to preserve it.
Woman, who are woo by man, including lesbi, it was the woo that was (compel) compulsory.

Nb

I accepted your conditions of ‘embeterment’ (bête=beast, terreau = compost) not by pure intelligence but by desire for you.

Also I d need you to remind me how I have to whell, behave.

But far from being light as you don’t quit my aim, and scene, and slip in any of my questions and reasons. But how to? Are wondering that last all day and taken by all sparks and lights, as usual.

I would not do that for me, for the, for you, but for your protection. It should be ok though you are in my flesh and duty the only who made impression. Should I be impolite to your counterpart, then I would take exclusion.

Anyhow without you being there, I would not go to hear these lies, but for you to listen to carefully and report their trahison.
