Despising utopia as being unrealistic.

But, one- there is nowhere where one cannot go.

Two- it is the suggestion that utopias are going to pose problems that is childish as everything being under close scrutiny, analysis and having for a goal to be refined or simply worked on, ‘is’ (=has to be) bathed by the necessary and vital perspective of improvement, self-evolution, in one word being endowed with propriety of the alive.

Third- it is the nature of every project to have to wait some of its implementation to find out more than its natural limitations but also that it will uncover of other parameters, jointed fields, and approached alcoves. The third point is the raison d'être of all concepts. And the first and second point, the trial of life.

Denounce utopia like denouncing strive for higher moral and societal conditions is the illnesses of a dead lock projection.

The reality of free will, is to comprehend that though I tried to listen to and obey higher instances and understanding than me or at least than me alone; my peers, strangers, neighbours, experts, wise, experienced as well as my deepest meanings, hopes, dreams, and instincts, or thought that were instinctual, I now know that even though I am not aware of all of the implications of my acts, I know by heart and head that I followed such says or advices as I would have devices or instructions, and that it was definitely for the worse because my soul still cry of anger, refusal, frustration and confusion. But first, fist, and fierce, and foremost she is lamented not by feeling by the crimes that do not allow redemption.

To look for signs in nature, mind we are nowhere but in nature, so good luck to us, since we killed and belittled her a lot.

To look for look in nature, means in the first place that nature is supposed to create shape intended to us, or intended to our understanding. Why nature would not communicate forms we do not know, and then cannot recognise just like this, why is it supposed to give us a reading that is easy, without having deserved it, by serving her, and know her enough that she can entrust us with some of her living? Why, because on top we pretend not to understand or give a damn about others’ of her creation languages and all of the sudden she would make one for us to be in the light of her love and care.

When the victim is a child, they cannot really comprehend the damages, the horrors, the subsequent disability or instability, suffering, violations will cause.

It might take them to grow adults and witness other lifes, or to live a whole life as adults before realising how much, and how profoundly their being have been altered. Often by the simple fact an individual will put all their energy into readjusting, and sometimes readjusting to situations their initial carers made sure they would not fully understand or in fact know at all.

Typical, to make someone illiterate with the aim of having to read, will take off 10 years of an adult life down the path, because this has not been done when the victim was a child.

Also illiteracy for example might be used as a way the kids are not in sync with other kids anylonger, and spend too much time learning what they did not in childhood, while it is not anylonger what their peers are about, to forget, to dismiss what has kept them behind – illiteracy yes but what about other violations?

‘The association of human rights with universal and foundational claims about humanity means they can appear to exist independent of social foundations, and indeed beyond the realm of social reality’ (Hynes et al., 2010).

C.ET: premises that human is superior and not a part of something, that would be functionalist by the way.

Refuting that society is the fruit of humanity but anyhow humans the fruit of the universe. Would it b too cosmic, or would it lay fundations for more than communal care but also for rights and duty much at the center of controversies such as environmental rights. If humans would be recognised as being a part of the universe, then resources could then stop being considered as being at the society’s entire disposition, and this consensus on resources being at the right of human consumption, itself at the center of human peace though lined with human race = racing to resources and sovereignty.

Or the seeking for universality would bring us to research up to the atomic to be brought to its simple diversity.

The only way for nature to have permitted humans to destroy hers, is that human will ultimately invent either their own extermination or their own way of becoming hybrids again, that will the reinsertion of wild animal genes, or animals but just having to destroy the sheer stupidity and dishonesty that animates human to consider itself otherwise, not unique but morons.

I think a good doc on possible other environmental problem. We had man centric, anthropomorphism, anthropomorphous... and this entirely man-made. But who will be able to unmade, no redemption has not this function. Or perhaps, let’s hope and pray. But not for the sinner. Let’s hope we did not actually killed what we have killed and that repentance, might revive them, here is the deal. As for the killer, salvation is to embellish hell. And perhaps the cycle of life will not encircle us for eternity. For humanity.

God all-powerful, a possible reality, within their world. The all-powerful idea of being able to tend, to reach out to this goal: the one of perfection and love.

And also the daily defeat of not being able to stop indulging, to redeem say of oneself that we are nothing, and stop trying to do something purer than the day beginning by the end is no more than death by living.

All powerful in something.
Where, everywhere, in us including.
In every being.

The dom, demonization also coming from being fed up, with being human. In a sense of their restrictions or in the sense that their organisation is simply or aiming at our true skills and seeking or to those of others, animal, environment, spirituals. Or altogether ogre. Org.

The ‘sacralisation of human rights’ could in practise result in the one of the private person, leaving the staff or other person not here mentioned, doing what sacralisation implied: adoration. The very old complaint since human rights as a notion appears, is that rights are becoming obnoxious if only one person is helped or protected by them, or if only a part of them is observed, and respected. Over-growth, under-growth.

Universal rights are repelled because they are the clear proof that one cannot even once build a society on the robbed or robbing privileges that the same defends so dearly.

The key to eternity is to stop killing. The moment you touch to environment is it the equivalent of the paradise crumbling.

For our soul, or the sake of it all. Maybe it is that hell, knowing that you killed yourself into a damned. In the abyssal of the old age.

In philosophy, naturalism is the "idea or belief that only natural (as opposed to supernatural or spiritual) laws and forces operate in the world."[1] Adherents of naturalism (i.e., naturalists) assert that natural laws are the rules that govern the structure and behavior of the natural universe, that the changing universe at every stage is a product of these laws.[2]

C.ET: perhaps interesting to know here that naturalism, or maybe natural laws for some, might be the opposite or rather the opponent of supernatural, or spiritual.

Some philosophers equate naturalism with materialism.

I was wondering why they insist on natural law so much. It is not about the laws of nature, or the bow and respect due to environment or cosmic consideration. It is down, put down to materialistic intendment, the survival of the fittest and its social sciences application mockery.

And of course the exploitation of all what is not talking back at you in a what you will be able to hear and willing to acknowledge English, Arabic, French, Greek, Chinese or Hebrew.

There are no sites enough, there are no waters and hygiene conditions kept.

And London though a place where there are jobs is just unaffordable.

As for reducing immigration, let’s talk about laws or work, whoever you will have in a country, if the work, type of work permitted, and though behaviour in general= work inefficiently, work while causing harm, work while letting people down....work to damper security, work to unfairness and segregation, work to deepen inequality.

I have been working almost a decade in your town, you can give me a call anytime, if you want a version of what you say about hard working tax payers, but you know don’t call them all this way, a lot of more, because like usual the gypsies will pay. And when I say gypsies it is whoever they can find for their work to be done, or to be finished rather, and then fired them because you know it does not take a decade to know or you work well and with honesty towards every human being and community (but when I mean you, I mean that work should be practised this way, not the opposite) or you know that you are on your way...to be slaved again, generally of people profiteering from bad, lax, permissive, biased, just for one side law, or the ones pumping the state money, be it travellers, commoners or managers of any kind and nationality.

Bien a vous.

As for travellers, they are from a country and belong to earth anyhow. Me I do not wonder why people wants to get away from a society that impose so much of aristocratic rules. To have a good suit and work for kids that could afford better universities. And change clothes and pollute with pouring cleaning products as the way to succeed with maintenance and cleaning jobs because people like new clothes made by children of other countries and cotton that will deplete the soil- because no one else than them does not respect or cannot afford, since sick imprisoned by jobs and functions, of a society that does not have to be repugnant – this is only an adjective, a state would convey its current being, as it will banish itself with extinction.

Gypsies are alternatives. And alter ego. A let. But of course in a society where people abide because they can lie, exploit, or die if saying that something won’t let go.

Not super to live in a caravan when one is stranded in one place, but letting otherwise is to let oneself collaborate with a state mock their own laws- the one of decency, and care, and integration of values that are humane.

Thesis: need for a reversal now, of economic system, this endorsed by more and more people but beyond of our views on other lives, this denies by the very UN and other texts, including ‘green politics’ texts. A denial of equity, equality, the slashing of universality. The common term for morality, as in comprehension that is global, extensive, curious, researching’…

and protective of its sole certainty, to be. Cannot quite approach how then would people prevent too much undergoing a philosophy, or a society, or their lack of boundaries, internal or external. Finite or eternal.
Conclusion, if spirit of human law does not reinstate nature as not only the provider of more than human life but of all life, if in practise relationship to something about which people ceased to regard as bigger, and as being a part of, if people continue to life in a parasitical manner instead of putting every single effort towards living in a symbiotic manner then just like in an unrequited couple, as still human beings with their theorisation of being the only one to have a complex language, a political life, and so on, central to the false deontological of the otherness- elaborating submission over the presumption of a nature tame-stick with level of worth, be it a ridiculous punishing diplych picturing the human reign in their virtue of inelegance, the human producing, pricing and consuming and the rest of the universe, pending pendant. A one (unit, harmony, meaning, sensing) that is diminished as their incapability or their being assessed that way to communicate is equated with inferiority, and to behave otherwise, that is to treat another species as its equal, an insubordination. A nature that is seen barren, as not coupling. An unrequited feeling, of providence, providing, provenance, nature will leave us just like our manner and life unmatching equality will erode any possibility of future conciliation, as members of the whole picture, the family just simply cannot wish a killer continuation.

Representation and power.

Globally, in terms of research then media and academics might also play a distortive effect. If the BBC world is one of the most potent, accessible and documented media in the world, their news will tend to address the UK in particular. As well who is going to report that greens or environmentalists doctors within universities for example behind a dialogue focused on greenery are in fact more interested in selling bio vegetables than the fact that their woods are being trimmed to the core, leaving no living spaces for the animals that used to shelter there. For an environmentalist to end up advertising to change a woods into a park as an ecologic victory is a bit hard core, but though it is the actual trend everywhere, to pass ornamental gardens as nature while they cannot host wild life, leaving hundreds of animals for each allotment homeless. To go on promenade in china’s ‘natural reserves’ in a city to see birds that cannot even lodge anywhere since trees are just a band where people can pick-nick neatly but where birds could never nest or even rest as trees and bushes are so stunt, they are no more than a Hyde Park in London, still claiming some kind of conservationism that is in fact conversion of the nature into .no life can shelter anywhere To translate globally concern onto local occurings would also be daunting, as for the translation work, and beyond the translation, the actual representation, communication, and appropriate actions that have to be taken. Such concerns are real since globalisation is also necessary in view of harmonisation and in this case to make sure that one place is not left without protection, or bear the destructive activities of human because of not having appropriate laws or enforcement mechanisms. Finally, global solutions are the only solutions to avoid looming mass catastrophe simply because of disloyal competition. Since GDP countabilise what costs pollution as element improving gross, as one is allowed to sell product made unethically, putting at risks people and nature for less than the competitors practising more honestly or in line with requirement of their own country, to stop destruction would not be possible if it goes on meaning more money.

And what then would be validated out of the state of being aware, if it was to stay as it is, vulgar, sadistic killers. Nowadays even killing for fur, cosmetic, useless experimentation. But even to have access the technology to eat healthily and though killing animals to satisfy taste and a reluctance to change, even if we take comfort increase more than happily, now amongst our taken for granted lists of rights, and liberties.

, 54 countries will be short of water by 2050 infinite growth is not an option, and that therefore technologies will not secure nor answer social problems (Professor Henrietta Moore) such as redistribution, and as far as nature not environment is concerned, the way people are able, trained and ready to transform their relationship to a symbiotic one. That would take not a taking for granted position, hoping to be nurture by the simple act of signing in, symbiotic relationship with nature to succeed as to become an end, and surely not a means such as being paid for a NGOS protecting a bit of nature while eating and frying animals. What do we fear, would we fear other species to progress and become technological species like us? As what differentiate us from animal is not politics, they are politic and organisational as well, even not technological, I bet they improve their radar like sharpening razors through their lives and all the decades.

As for the questions on origins, fare from being able to address them, who would give access to people unable to respect their own species, other species, their own planet, well not theirs, but you know what I mean.

The key is what we can do, is to pray. To pray for a flower, a bird, for them, the world to stay and be beautiful…and living.

Egality.

One can suggest that while one concentrates on protected areas, they ignore the issue of over consumption (Black, 2011). Consumption here could be reinterpreted as the one of nature, the human eating away more and more of the wildness while branding protected areas just like agribusiness would keep a pet amongst thousands of animals they have slaughtered.

54 countries will be short of water by 2050, and that therefore technologies will not secure or answer social problems (Moore, 2015)

The End of Development 09 March 2015
Mon, 9 Mar 15
Duration: 29 mins

In a lecture at the Blavatnik School of Government at Oxford University, anthropologist Professor Henrietta Moore argues that development is an outmoded concept.

Such as redistribution, and as far as nature not environment is concerned, the way people are able, trained and ready to transform their relationship to a symbiotic one. That would take not a taking for granted position, hoping to be nurture by the simple act of signing in, symbiotic relationship with nature to succeed as to become an end, and surely not a means such as being paid for a NGOS protecting a bit of nature while eating and frying animals.

What do we fear, would we fear other species to progress and become technological species like us? As what differentiate us from animal is not politics, they are politic and organisational as well, even not technological, I bet they improve their radar like sharpening razors through their lives and all the decades.

Ban the preaching of child marriage by Islamic preachers - and all others.

MOHAMMED, THE PROPHET OF THE RELIGION ISLAM, ‘MARRIED’ HIS FOURTH WIFE, SHE WAS A 6 YEARS OLD, HE WAS OVER 50 YEAR OLD.

This petition aims at letting people know about a simple fact: MOHAMMED, PROPHET OF THE ISLAMIC RELIGION, ‘MARRIED’ HIS FOURTH ‘WIFE’. HE WAS OVER 50 YEARS OLD WHEN THE POLIGAMOUS ‘MARRIAGE’ TOOK PLACE, THE ‘SPOUSE’ WAS A LITTLE GIRL CALLED AISHA, SHE WAS 6 YEARS OLD.

Khadija died three years before the Prophet departed to Medina. He stayed there for two years or so and then he married ‘Aisha when she was a girl of six years of age, and he consumed that marriage when she was nine years old. Sahih Bukhari 5:58:236
'A'isha (Allah be pleased with her) reported: Allah's Apostle (may peace be upon him) married me when I was six years old, and I was admitted to his house when I was nine years old. Sahih Muslim 8:3310

“These texts are direct translation of the Hadith, Arabic Hadith (“News” or “Story”), also spelled Hadit, record of the traditions or sayings of the Prophet Muhammad, revered and received as a major source of religious law and moral guidance, second only to the authority of the Qur'an, the holy book of Islam.

http://www.britannica.com/EBchecked/topic/251132/Hadith

Hadith has become a synonym for the term Sunnah.”

However, the plight is not more about what the scriptures say but about the thousands of documents produced by Muslim preachers, believers or followers entirely condoning, honoring and recommending this marriage of an old man with a young child. This information is accurate. Please, be aware that ‘these teachings’ legitimised as fundamental to the Islamic religion can be found by the thousands on the internet via a very simple word search.

Preaching that the marriage of Mohammed to a little girl is appropriate or can be taken as a, or the model has grave and beyond horrid and vile consequences. From child marriage in countries like Saudi Arabia, to the many stories of Imams being caught on camera in Britain agreeing to marry children and presenting it as a suitable practice under Islam.

The campaign and petition have two purposes: One, to ensure that people know what happens. The ‘marriages’ in themselves but also the fact that marriages of children with adults are in fact professed via the teaching of Islam. Two, it would then ask the government to sanction direct or indirect incentives and incitement to paedophilia and child marriage (paedophile marriages). Pragmatically, it means that Islamic teachers should be condemning child marriage systematically, and be severely sanctioned when advocating it. To praise Mohammed’s life without expressively condemning child marriage is in fact support to paedophilia.

The prophet Mohammed is highly praised and constantly cited as being the prophet and only prophet of Islam. His name is introduction to almost any communication and verbal or written exchange in culture Islam.

No one needs to enter madrasas, Islamic schools, to figure out that Mohammed’s life is given as example and model.

I'll be honest with you. I am against any abuses whatsoever. Having said that the reality is the social services and school do not care enough about their kids to prompt them towards activities, such as sport and any of it. There is a culture allowing a child to waste their potential. There is no dumb in the world. And there is no jobs. Also society creates a state of uncivilities and passivity. it is disheartening to see young people not doing half as much as they could do with tranquility. I said that to a volunteer organization while desperately looking to volunteer for people that need the most. No questions that with millions of refugees or people suffering from poverty or disease or from poor education one could have found a niche.
I was looking for it also attempting for the cost of volunteering be minimum as well as for the opportunities to give while there the maximum of my skills. Be slightly trained why not, since in Europe it is not any longer done. Dorks 'jobs. However in a post-dictatorship context, and democracy building or democracy transition business might provide for the need of institutions.

Incidentally one could ask oneself why auto proclaimed democracy rely on business almost exactly the same. Are we forgetting colonisation, WW, and the censorship and the predation evidenced by and on the WWW.

Democratic states are in this actual same condition of being in transition.

People write about how the creator, of what it made, or make us.

But there is no creator that would make through dolor, and terror. The pain, gratuitous, avoidable, experimental, on these animals. Are not, cannot be justified in curing illnesses. The ones who would like to cure diseases would attack the disease when it occurs by accident. In fact not attack but try to cure. These are not diseases but pain brought to a living beings. These are pain creation and other diseases formation.

That someone who create anything this way will perish, and what would we have to imagine as redemption? A knowledge of greater pain. Is it why human trafficking is high fashion, top of the bill, for all to remember how human is unconditional.

I think that I could be not so cultural as people say it is. torture, exploitation, slavery, maiming are the physical danger that human being faces, and that in any culture. it is simply different forms that has to be fought but the violence is the same. and at the end of the day while we have to conserve cultural diversity and knowledge, and inventivity, etc... The wealthier, the more secure. In fact security should and had to aim at that, at being secure if long term of it. This made and makes perfect sense. My question was more about: are the wealthier getting more security at the expenses of the ones getting less wealthy, less protected. is this less in protection what permits wealthier to exploit more, be it individuals or situations? also it could be interesting to jauge security vs liberty here. you know sort of secure in global golden jails, or the liberty to talk for wealth and growth, but banned from tackling their shortcomings or side effects.

And maybe the wealthier, the bar against justice could stand higher.

I managed it because i was in honk kong to obtain a visa. i think it is a problem for me because i work in mainland china. Censorship sensitivity. Perhaps. Thanks for asking i might have had problems if not. Still i found amusing that censorship in china would correspond with a reading list a bit remote from the core of the course, but i cannot find a reason why the reading list would be in itself a sensible subject, unless it is in phase with the almost faint and evasive fashion of all universities when it comes to describe their curriculum??

C.ET: Within that types of discourses, where health might become a way of advancing political agenda, enriching certain people and institutions to the detriment of others, as develop goes hand in hand with vandalism on older object or unfashionable ways and the lethally threatening pollution. Somewhat a person attends for what she will bring of health to her community, economic potential, to a community that would and have used her life for the same effect as a prostitute. In this framework of ideas the individual still belongs to the community who is asked to bring her health in order to be able to have better recondution, or production rate. Of course it is certainly a way to explain why prostitution is bad and counter effective, ultimately damaging individuals and society, but to explain it only and to justifying only as a worse investment on return is bordering infantilisation of the people one is addressing, as well as being completely oblivious of how other ways of life- risks taking, politisation, pionnerism, invention, exploration, resurgence, insurgence, polyvalence, beyond data. Yet again the stigmatisation of prostitution serving the mainstream society into they are above questioning, because they are more healthy?

C.ET: A means to an end theorisation all over the literature and put forward by the unicef itself, that is of utmost concern. Following the cosmopolitan view that we might not reach an agreement because we agree on the causes but on the outcomes. Here the socially raped and imprisoned in socio economic role and prostitution is still the object of instrumentalisation, view as a data, a way of basic health not overall stances of the how exploitation and sexual exploitation is done, not mention of the level of atrocities taken place. A taboo on the state of our society, displacement of the subject on how come this type of violations co-occurs with wealth and a more modernised, efficient, elaborated world, that allow have and have-nots and could start counting prostitution as work, children as robotisation via foetus modification, organs trade a stock exchange activities

Just like explained in the first chapter of this essay, though holistic approaches are necessary to prevent abuses the fact that donors and actions deal with all ranges of child exploitation covering labor, physical violences etc, diminish clear and sustained program specifically on sexual exploitation or sexual abuses to take place. We also have seen that added to the confusion on how to define and target precisely those abuse, the sense of its being particularly horrendous, and the sense of its gravity, and with it the appropriateness of sanctions and the emergency of such situations, all of them have been affected and people are left in inaction or without the necessary tools.

To look for signs in nature, mind we are nowhere but in nature, so good luck to us, since we killed and belittled her a lot.

To look for look in nature, means in the first place that nature is supposed to create shape intended to us, or intended to our understanding. Why nature would not communicate forms we do not know, and then cannot recognise just like this, why is it supposed to give us a reading that is easy, without having deserved it, by serving her, and know her enough that she can entrust us with some of her living? Why, because on top we pretend not to understand or give a damn about others’ of her creation languages and all of the sudden she would make one for us to be in the light of her love and care.

When the victim is a child, they cannot really comprehend the damages, the horrors, the subsequent disability or instability, suffering, violations will cause.

It might take them to grow adults and witness other lifes, or to live a whole life as adults before realising how much, and how profoundly their being have been altered. Often by the simple fact an individual will put all their energy into readjusting, and sometimes readjusting to situations their initial carers made sure they would not fully understand or in fact know at all.

Typical, to make someone illiterate with the aim of having to read, will take off 10 years of an adult life down the path, because this has not been done when the victim was a child.

Also illiteracy for example might be used as a way the kids are not in sync with other kids anylonger, and spend too much time learning what they did not in childhood, while it is not anylonger what their peers are about, to forget, to dismiss what has kept them behind – illiteracy yes but what about other violations?

'The association of human rights with universal and foundational claims about humanity means they can appear to exist independent of social foundations, and indeed beyond the realm of social reality' (Hynes et al, 2010).
premises that human is superior and not a part of something, that would be functionalist by the way.

Refuting that society is the fruit of humanity but anyhow humans the fruit of the universe. Would it be too cosmic, or would it lay fundations for more than communal care but also for rights and duty much at the center of controversies such as environmental rights. If humans would be recognised as being a part of the universe, then resources could then stop being considered as being at the society’s entire disposition, and this consensus on resources being at the right of human consumption, itself at the center of human peace though lined with human race = racing to resources and sovereignty.

Or the seeking for universality would bring us to research up to the atomic to be brought to its simple diversity.

Because becoming like the mainstream story is too dangerous, they keep on proving it.

To cut the chase cultures say that they respect each other because they want to eat each other. Stay where you are there will be war, we are disrespectful of everything, kiddos and all, and who will be able to nourish population in a while anyway, but for the moment they are just all to busy doing and redoing their homes every 6 years to look like if they were developed, the mafia will price the market and who and how you will be able to stay put in your quarter, the mafia will also say.

For the hope to go through, pass, and passed world, to go on strong enough to be heard by some, one must find and honor love.

I think a good doc on possible other environmental problem. We had man centric, anthropomorphism, anthropomorphous... and this entirely man-made. But who will be able to unmade, no redemption has not this function. Or perhaps, let's hope and pray. But not for the sinner. Let's hope we did not actually killed what we have killed and that repentance, might revive them, here is the deal. As for the killer, salvation is to embellish hell.
And perhaps the cycle of life will not encircle us for eternity. For humanity.

God all-powerful, a possible reality, within their world. The all-powerful idea of being able to tend, to reach out to this goal: the one of perfection and love.
And also the daily defeat of not being able to stop indulging, to redeem say of oneself that we are nothing, and stop trying to do something purer than the day beginning by the end is no more than death by living.
All powerful in something.
Where, everywhere, in us including.

In every being.

The dom, demonization also coming from being fed up, with being human. In a sense of their restrictions or in the sense that their organisation is simply or aiming at our true skills and seeking or to those of others, animal, environment, spirituals. Or altogether ogre.

The ‘sacralisation of human rights’ could in practise result in the one of the private person, leaving the staff or other person not here mentioned, doing what sacralisation implied: adoration. The very old complaint since human rights as a notion appears, is that rights are becoming obnoxious if only one person is helped or protected by them, or if only a part of them is observed, and respected. Over-growth, under-growth.

Universal rights are repelled because they are the clear proof that one cannot even once build a society on the robbed or robbing privileges that the same defends so dearly.

The key to eternity is to stop killing. The moment you touch to environment is it the equivalent of the paradise crumbling.

For our soul, or the sake of it all. Maybe it is that hell, knowing that you killed yourself into a damned. In the abyssal of the old age.

I would suggest that people for prostitution, then prostitute themselves in guise of a ‘solution’.
Empowerment of expression stops when threats to disclosure approach.

What about it? What has really been done. One constatation, even in school which are the only massive serious tool against it provided universal education is actually provided, which is not always the case even in countries that pledged it or in countries where denominational or private schools would like by magic being not concerned or could try to wriggle out of it, there are no traces of tools against scourge of incests, sexual exploitation or even the notion of any sorts of abuses.

At least he did not delete your posts, yours is super writing, maybe go elsewhere, people the side of justice do not read those kind of posts where you have to hear false and flax bigotry all other again, it is so tangent that people this way just try to disaggregate what is left of common sense allied with honesty. And that’s too obvious, we go on.

You know Ashley gays get hanged in some countries without mentioning how one could rather be lifeless than live without one's mutually chosen companion’s love and attention. But I guess this could shock some of people’s pretension or personification. So, as far as I am concerned so forth so much for the inflammatory. I guess you are bending (posh, liberal, or retarded way: they say: reacting) to some complaints.

It is not inflammation or inflation but put someone on fire kind of debatory.

So much for the inflammatory.

Why people don’t debate it, or rather don’t protect it? Example human rights at the international level?

Maybe because every country are some to sell.

Maybe because every country has got some to sell.

But I know this could shock some of people’s pretension: sound a too good bargain to some more ‘comedie humaine’. The lying shit. Lie is the subject. like the red quarters they’d like to create and promise to their slaves.

Still I have a second answer for you. When I checked last year the subject for this module, the essay number 8 or whatever it was, there was one, was a subject on LGBT issues. Maybe it is right here, on these sites. That the most vulnerable populations has been evicted, not easy for the country that castrated a WWII war hero for being homosexual, talking about the UK. Just as an anecdote in the face of the grandor of the abuses of the everyday people, not rich enough to pay themselves a shelter that won’t ruin them or what is left of their sparing in the Londonian guethos, but still a good one. You see I wanted to sign out because it would have been the first essay I could do on LGBT after 4 years of human rights study, gender I did this already, kinda.

The UK is notorious to be one of the worst countries in Europe regarding the rate of the children they leave under the poverty line (meaning poor nutrition, education, prospects, care despite millions spent on case-by-case individuals) really? Really. I don’t know I never manage to resolve this charade psychologically, or it is the state and the private sphere altogether puncturing all that they can get, to produce misery? That’s politically.

But if feminist can decide global sex trade is good, then they should give it a go themselves. As long as someone as a paying job, benevolent for the rest of the individuals in their own rights then I would think prostitution would become obsolete, as long as you leave people choosing their relation and marriage type, not in banning homos to live normally that is to say.

Don’t worry for people like me, I would rather the death penalty than living without trying for a life, a wife, a girl-friend if no life-long affinities.

And for those who said that gays could live like heteros, and that you nod, one you nod in knowing? Yes I think you know how society might be cru, curbing. Personally I mean, on these issues?

But as well, we nod at it envisaging a life without books, without passion, without a voice, in a constant state of fear, and relativism, constant breach of personal freedom, silence, a war-like psycho poshy scene. With only the eternal.

And then? Just some like soldiers, just like some Jihadies, we would go with in head, in thought, the wife, we fight for.

Fight for? But of course not when one assert themselves to be the moral stamp of this modernity.

Cf above.

Debating with thousands in the pocket, and with these results (your poverty line and housing market, your NHS going bankrupt, or not rupture but bank route, your sharia law replacing the common one that dismissed even its public places) for underestimate.

You know people will need laws, they will need communities, it is the grooming like that. Some people would give everything to be part of a group of people, and some people at term, at length and at will, will have only this. To give the body for what they have been produced, and kept. To be raped from their own life. From and out of existence itself. Be their souls have their redeem, a revenge that it is like god, no one will be able to describe in full of its tiniest fractions. Like in India, and like everywhere prostitution has been controlled by religious organisations or else, to finish like designated by birth or by divination: a caste, as in castration, a breed.

New breed, the one of the feminist then?

Working with Microsoft, from times to times my all screen become blue in the middle of an operation, the only procedure I found to find my normal screen back is to click onto the button ‘undo’. I done that again and again for months on end, and since I write a lot, my way of doing so is to concentrate on the moment of writing without reading it again. I had to introduce my work this way, if not to explain them all, to tell you why in certain place it will be missing words...as I thought settling the problem with the undo button coming back to the screen, but while it was coming back to it, it erased, eliminate my last operation too, when the poison did not remove my whole text to cry in front of you.

The siren Melusina

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Melusine

Melusine is one of the pre-Christian water-faeries who were sometimes responsible for changelings. The "Lady of the Lake", who spirited away the infant Lancelot and raised the child, was such a water nymph.

The three girls — Melusine, Melior, and Palatyne — grew up in Avalon.

Their harmony was uninterrupted until the prying husband broke the conditions of their union, by concealing himself to behold his wife make use of her enchanted bath. Hardly had Melusina discovered the indiscreet intruder, than, transforming herself into a dragon, she departed with a loud yell of lamentation, and was never again visible to mortal eyes.

In fact, as for peacekeeping, if peacekeepers get involved in prostitution, etc, it is certainly better for a nation to pretend their soldiers are not better than outlaws or some armed groups, in keeping them all men, than to draw females into the game. Then we, the army would resemble more what it is originally, a representation, an armed representation of a country on a foreign land. That is if one army was perceived as being that: the armed wing of a nation, and that they were going on perpetrating rapes, prostitutions, etc., then what would become of the retaliations??

If one could afford to pay for their own prostitution, what the world would become? Ready to be taken away.

Here I would think that the oldest profession is the one of politician. It is, it was, easy to go on protecting the things that makes people weaker, because they will benefit from the people that exploit these very same person.

For people who think that it is a profession, and the ones that use their services, then they should go on applying. But usually positions changes when it comes to what Rawls made us think about: what if it was me?

Feminists talked about a glamorisation of prostitution, to make it appear worth or romanticised.

I won’t say one think because the web is full of intellectuals having done their jobs and explaining the horrors of what prostitution really mean.

I also think that it is still valid within a heterosexist system where males for example are exorted having sex, but not between themselves, and women are told that if they want a job it will be a reproductive one. It is often that women will tell you I would rather this than to be into a bad relationship. But more often what can I do. Is it these same feminists that say that we need prostitution? Then they could take the job, even on a voluntary basis if it is so welcome to the improvement.

It is just the way we see work and consumption, a claim on calamity. And a world where no one has to work or has to claim results, because nothing will be changed, not an atrocity.

We are having this kind of pretended discussion on the society just because, out of forgetting that we are not civilised. And that this kind of discussions is maintained on a regular basis by paid academics makes it highly dubious, otherwise violent and worrying.
As the oldest profession as pseudo journalism/reporting, could that be? The one of facilitators and false witnesses sell bodies.

the only think that a feminist would say, with much caution, is that in many cases, in almost all cases, women whose earning depend on being paid to give their consent to have sex, might be when one discount people under the dependence of drugs, with mental diseases and social and mental difficulties because no one can be undamaged when one has been tortured into this. and will on top of it has to face, good old workers that will, once more often less openly that people being paid to write on it, will say that red quarters are of primordial necessity and somewhat unique: that is that the poor woman in it can well stay there, but moreover can well go back. That is never be employed as a staff, whatever in the legal or not sector. In the industrial or home-house-work sector. with having to face university teachers or social workers reaffirming that you know it is how things goes, and that sometimes it is well deserved or the nature of the woman caught in it. With certainly women having to say that it is their choice to avoid retribution, as they cannot even go to tribunals or even to the police safely. because of false allegations? Because red quarters are opened without no one intervening in it. And of people being for their legalisation because there is nothing one can do against nothing. As a comment it is better that you believe you \textit{ve got specific mental illness when you end up into prostitution and the one reaction you \textit{ve got} is the one from another person, educated, with a well-paid job, well paid we don't know for what, or nothing to do with what it brings to the larger community and that will answer, it is just like that, just as an euphemism of their thought or political assumptions for themselves to be able, or allowed to go on without .... having to fight, having to pay??

the only think that a feminist would say, IS THAT we don’t know how to get out of this, and that on top of being mentally, intellectually, exploited to one cannot more to the core, that one will slip beyond life and it's sanity, the crows will attest on it one day. While they are being killed and, only tolerated maybe because they are enlisted to be tortured under the forms of simplistic and working sexual harassments, then the forced migrants like some would please themselves to say and others are put into what has been called ‘bondage’. That whatever is paid for them being tricked and detained, is not going towards their being richer, and able to go, but towards their ‘wardens’, the mafia and the police and other tolerating this. It is what, where the boundaries between a serf and a slave are. Though it cannot apply to prostitution because prostitution is about degradation. For a family, for a child, for studies, for a house: don’t think you can pay. Don't think you can ever say.

Including the one of having to pay or being paid to engage into sexual, intimate or loving relationship.

It is the instrumentalisation of work, to have stolen people of what is dear in life, and make them pay for the horrors, hopelessness and destructed, destroying sadness it operates.
It is prostitution.

Trafficking, already we do it with merchandises, killing willingly the planet, and calling for growth, and logically here the politics on human individuals, people and populations.

Ever changing methods, and cultured voice.

I would think that here what is called decriminalisation of prostitution the aim is here is not to instate ‘retributed sex’ as an institution but combat depersonalisation. When you are criminalised then whatever happens to you is hidden. The violence, coercion, poverty, abuses, however atrocious and organised they are, are de facto completely ignored. It is the same problem when you are stateless or paperless you cease to be a citizens, the laws does not apply to you any longer, no longer protects you. So basically you will be the prey of Mafiosi’s organisations.

In all organisations that are not in fact, a cover to mafias that want their activities to be recognised as formal, and legitimated. That is to say, to sell something that is in people freedom. When are we going to pay to breathe, or to pay to walk, or to pay not to starve, sexual activities like pairing, intimate relationship are amongst what is most necessary not to have necessarily but not to be deprived with. As well as who would demand their rights to have a servant doing what they can do it for themselves, cooking, cleaning. The vertical organisations provided what one cannot do for themselves because of its being specialised, not to create positions that are in fact servile. No more a partnership.

Prostitution is to say that sex is on command that women are here to provide it. It is yet again a product of heteronormativity. The violence it implies then goes on back onto the relation males-females, or any other, intragender, be them domestic, public or just any relational.

It sees women as resources having to comply with demands, instead of seeing it as non-gendered.

Not to see that is highly dangerous for the victims, and for the society as a whole, for the future, and people that will be covered to conduct work propelling that degree of horrors.

Fuck you.

That degree of horrors.
Also it has to be remembered that any organisations yet again not a cover for mafias and human trafficking. Also it has to be remembered that any organisations yet again not a cover for mafias and human trafficking, help women in prostitution with always as aim an exit strategy always, or supposed to be as efficient and absolute as it can be. I mean intervening without to make sure there is an exit strategy is no more than ‘procuring’, and should be sanctioned by imprisonment.

To deny history to former people is a way of treating the invaders or the heirs just like if they were gods. Like to lend them the all results of what has been done. At the image of how humans treat itself, just like he has created the universe, killing at will, treating it as a cake, though the cake is living.
So what will become sweets?

To deny that what is here to see is the products of struggle but also, alas (or rather fortunately, fortitude, fate, if not happily) of destruction, and it can only talk to the one who ignores it, or disrespect it, that is to say does not work towards not destroying again, with the same spirit.

WHY ECONOMY IS AT THE HEART OF THE THEME.
Not cultural, biologic, just an opportunity designate a group bearing extra-duties, and for this help or religions or uncompetitive economic and political system where people are maintained within communities more and more impoverish, such as for example the Victorian. With diminishing cultural riches, a mono cultural stances, the censorship in arts, campaign groups lying and paying scientists to do the same, a mono-syllabic language where simplify English will soon all found, legislate, and never verify.

Weakness of physicality in men, may lose all their blood by section of their sex, as the core present in the women, their machinery is absent there, and would let the whole blood stream emptied.

Core-sceptre.

This weakness will be found in how the brain operates, a flow that cannot be staunched, cannot be stopped, as they lack of direct descendency.

Local, national and transnational level.
People forget not a values or worth rank, local as important as transnational and vice/versa. Idem for grassroots works and other types. A man can be cut into an half while the female possesses another core.

Hard core.

Maybe resisting equality and diversification, by allowing not a debate on gender that is in fact a term describing gender identity, such as sexual orientation, one that should be up to the feeling of each individual not up to its sex, by allowing sex, gender as in biological sex to have no prefabricated conditions, and job description. But that is possible in a society that do not envisage resources racing because of its lack of care given to the land and its management or to give all the burden to human care to women, as no one impoverish as such, could, while will have the strength to defend the dying.

Division between production and reproduction maybe in order to avoid the new generation to get it too quickly or this generation to become bribery??

Or is it working?

‘Traditionally’ in capitalist societies women are the ones more in charge of family and care. However economic retributions counts only material capital, not human capital in the form of care, sociabilisation and education. If parenthood should be a choice assumed by the parents, society should also organised a way of living and working compatible with its needs for its population at large to reproduce without impairing social stability and cohesion or what it takes for a society to be fair, having offspring left with the impression one has to fight one’s neighbour to make it, or their own ability at earning a living.

PAY INCREDIBLE FINES FOR BACKER REFUSING TO MAKE A CAKE PROMOTING GAY MARRIAGE.

I think I am with you on this Peter. I have done and said stupid things in my life, I thank God for not having been martyrized –too much that I could not go on- financially for this. I have been scandalised by the ransom following this story (they have to pay an incredible fine, don’t they? - I wanted to react to this in fact), you don’t kill people financially for a cake inscription.

You do a great thing to water this issue down. They are not civil servants.

As long as they don’t cook cake against equality we should do ok with this.

Bakers Who Refused to Make Wedding Cake for Gay Couple Pay $135,000 Fine for Their Bigotry - Towleroad
Aaron and Melissa Klein, the owners of Sweet Cakes by Melissa, have paid a fine of more than $135,000 for refusing to bake a cake for a l...

IT IS A TOO LONG TEXT BUT IN A NUTSHEL I STILL FIND THE ISSUE FRIGTHNING.
AND THIS FINE IS SO CREEPLING, WHEN I THINK OF IT I WOULD MAKE ME CRY.

On a 500 pound fine, here my reaction. It would not be so much of an issue if any success, normal success gay people have, (as in they are the other people= the ones to race since there is no love for god like say the bigot, there is no respect for earth, so human compete against each other for its rape), was not the subject of so much jealousy. Without having to have faced that to claim equality, gays were part of the holocaust. Both side? Certainly, we are all gays but that is not the topic of the story.
Also I think that these guys the backers, it is not the refusal to do politics because they made sure they made politics out of their appearance before court. It is homophobia it is what it is. Now what to do about it? - am not too sure.

So I'd say let judges do their jobs, but it is never enough to handle things this way. ....

Yes, it is very thorny indeed. because of course it could start like that, and downhill and viral.

That gays, and gay couples are refused the cake would not be too far from the tree. Also there maybe something about it, is that it is after all politics in the sense that even though equality or gay rights equality, which is not the same that 'promoting gay rights' is benign and a simple demand for justice at first sight, but not necessarily in all minds and mouths. what I want to say it is that people could say they promote gay rights and in fact try to be heterophobic or not doing that for the gay community and just for funds, I don't know for example, the time we take for each new baby, the allowances we would like to get. I feel it is not intelligently said what I said. Or changing other dimensions that would not be a matter of equity but 'political' choice in term of those who have and those who don't'. Religion has also this crusaders side of it, war until winning, not for god, but for a side, at any cost, and any lies. Just like companies maybe would do to grab the markets but here helping themselves with transforming and transgressing morals, faith, and goodness. To recapitulate what is done in the name of religions is horrendous. Not all of course, they have had very useful, ‘we cannot do without that' foundations, but it belongs to universal goodness not to any particular religion. And what is good about them does not suit for murders and hate legitimacy.

Without marriage and jobs like everyone, the right and duty to work for the better, and to live out of it, we are right back to enduring slavery. In fact while I am writing that I feel less and less 'compassionate' to the Ashers backers. But lets' say they choose backery not being at the background of activism. Not what would have they said if the inscription had been 'Sheila and Elizabeth marriage'?.It is true that at this rate, we would have to order cakes from Soho, or what is left of it, and they would not come very fresh because the problem with gay lodgings in London is that I would have had a triple salary to hope affording any of what I saw advertised. We have got the differential between males and females wages and opportunities coming into play. Lesbian activities are so few and every time expensive, even in London, I mean only the transportation cost, for Christ sake. As a carer, not identifying myself with a servant, but a worker facilitating autonomy, I lost hope in London.

What I thought was revolting without having to think about it, is the fines they are supposed to pay for it, but in fact I just read it again and I thought it was very high prices in my memory but it is just something like 500 pounds. I am sorry I am in the middle of my thesis I did not check the information. That transforms altogether the issue for me. ok so would they print 'promote heterosexual rights', and him saying it that what he did was out of love for god, I find it very pernicious.

Well for 500 pounds, it could remind him that it was not Before God he was doing it. Like he liked repeating ‘Before God, it was something we could not do’ and them holding hands, playing the perfect married couple, it is a bit like torture.

Problem, yes it is clearly homophile, so what kind of barriers to fight homophobia?

Will they be ask again to do a cake to promote gay rights? where i join you or what other promotions? problem is nobody is against jew marriage, inter-race marriage, or were they? me when i talk about marriage i tremble with all my soul, i know i would have to rename myself meat without being able to pretend to a woman. i d rather be elsewhere kind of thing, and not in a peaceful way.

I am lost on this one. i ll think of it.

I just see myself could not obtain a cake from anywhere, before i am told i have no job either.

I want to say, is that i think that homophobia, is in fact hidden heterosexual enforcement, it is rape every day. it is why them playing all clean n cocky, took the mickey.

I don't know what to think now.

The question would they have done it for others, and I think it is yes.

My problem, what should be our anti-discriminatory reactions? If any? No one won was the verdict. The verity ‘i am too afraid of ghetto. And even more of ghettoization’.

Gueux = in french more or less not conscient to be serfs, maybe use to slaughter cattle, as do not require a soul.

Outing the ghoul.

Regardless, LET'S NOT force people to do things that do not attack us directly, may seem to be fair politic too.

It reminds me on how many times, shoppers asked me more than I took, or landlords taking my money through deposit, rising the rent, no so many times but enough to hit me. and you don’t want to be hit, when it is hard already. And on the other hand the ones that do push sales, I had never been told that kind of practises by my mummy.

Begin, benign, being.

It could be interpreted to be something like 'not in my garden kind of things' the problem here is that these people attack a right reserved to them or what they claim they are. it is not like i don't want people kissing in my bakery, it is like i don't want gay people kissing.
I am at sixes and sevens.

At the same time even not gay people could start challenging these backers to just pocket the fines?? Or to find another way to do it.

Or maybe as long as they do not turn this into a political matter?? to refuse a service. Though they did refuse it. or as long they don't lace it with arsenic.

The conclusive comment is how little is done, and contrarily how serious the propagation or at least the consolidation of the problems is, through technical means and more and more complex networks and associations, of a finally one cannot be more egregious crimes. A consensus on ‘that should never happen again’ has been issued on crimes such as genocides. Remembrances days and regular campaigns have endeavoured bringing to awareness these horrors of the past in order to actualise and warn against still present ones. However, how has been make possible that daily rapes and molestations, the sexual exploitations of children- without forgetting the adults- be regarded and sanctioned just as type of genocide- or as its legal equivalent, punished and dealt with just like any gross crimes against humanity should be treated?

Like genocide, that is called the G word, people, researchers cannot comprehend the suffering it has occasioned and still goes on, as to be betrayed by people but by the society as a whole cannot really heal. Not in a psychological, mental, even rational sense as victims are beyond aware of a society having left them to offenders as sexual preys.

Reason why, society itself allow it to perdure. i.e. remission not possible

There is no doubt about this, harming a part is harming the whole, but while harm to children is averred (and not averted) if someone too much insist upon ‘their health for our health’, they may also ensure a continuity towards a self-servicing, self-aware, self-centred viewpoint and justification of others’ lives. These people alive in order to facilitate mine, or more precisely like the one registered and approved by a system. Could be if taken as the main equilibrium point, a barter against used by one towards used by all.
Seclusion and networks as well as possibility therefore politics allowing such violations to such a scale to happen. Of course if one individual was victims of pedophilia it would not be a lesser violations, but numbers legitimised and render less and less impossible hope for interventions, changes, preventions, even educations??

Could the disreparencies between what is done and talked about be explained by the very gravity and the overwhelming numbers of people living out of sexual exploitation and paedophiles themselves? Could the disparities between the horrors of this situation and the pauperism of actions come from a tacit societal agreement or laissez faire. Could, what a Marxist writer called the prostitution of work, work for what the body can produce blindly on order (and not what we can produce out of physical, intellectual, moral efforts will attain), have brought the fight against the most terrible scourge in a state of inertness? Or in a state of terrors for those, not the ones who read or don’t about it, but for those who are hopeless victims for being left without help while their abusers are thriving with money.

Should be almost considered not the substantial intervention matter but a one off alongside ‘a never again spirit’ that would see no a better rescue device only but the need to rescue be lessen not by inaction or fatalism but because of the criminals given up what is considered in most of the literature as lucrative, easy to purvey trafficking, ‘sold’ to people less and less mentally competent, or too insane to see and act on their own action, and therefore increasingly unable to stop the circle of sheer horrors, but rather determined to bring it to completion (i.e., organised, rationalised sexual abuses on children. Within a postmodern area where black poverty, increasing riches gaps, ‘epidemic prostitution’ in general, unfair, here on purpose unemployment, and bad economic and political practises add to any pornographisation legitimation.). Actions focused and develop in the stopping before any violations happens = more severe sentences, and systematic tracking.

If research has risen, it is only normal, and goes with a general research duty taking effects in the social sciences in general. The poor quality of the research though is shown through reiterated telling examples of aggregated data, amongst many others, is that instead the data being about children they are about adults.

Very serious question about definition or wording are present through core texts. Lexical severe malapropism such as disserting about the prostitution of children rather than sexual atrocities, or about the industry of sex rather than designating it as gross crimes, crimes that with not doubt belong to crimes against humanity.
However, one will have to interrogate themselves on whether this is a language problem.

The jobs of academics and anyhow of professionals in many papers and lectures or interviews, and in fact purely academic ones, that have for responsibilities to establish communication, public relations, and a common vocabulary cannot misuse words by mistake on a regular basis because the work of scholar is to understand and use words in an appropriate manner as they convey directly or indirectly the frame of meaning in which the more official side of society will be able to communicate.

The whole gap identified when needs and necessities are compared to actions undertaken, and in the case of SAAC the one cannot be more dolorous preponderant failure on their termination can be explained by this implicit but certainly convincing unconvicting formulas.

Through abuse of trust.

People’s and above all academic’ inadequate language could be but a statement about still slightly hidden political position about their approval or not entire disapproval on prostitution violated children entire life. If children are said to be easy to manipulate, then how should we qualify or interpret these words, the keys of understandings, premises, their influence and the reflection they have on people?

Between people pushing for their predations to be accepted and the reprobation of victims, one could draw a parallel with what happens with prostitution, and how it could be used for SAAC. The criminalisation of prostitution urged the movement for the legalisation of prostitution, provoked by how officials do not help people victims of prostitution but in fact further harmed them.

If a certain set of genetics has been found to be common to mental health problems; could then the mental health problems be triggered by certain type of situations? Also it is the certain ways that society go wrong that will reach certain types of people. Society would cope differently or were having different types of problems then other types of people would suffer primary, visible, documented, categorized, recognized, regarded as deviant symptoms or reactions to how society would manage well or badly?

And then could suborn ways of reactions, even when reactions are in fact bad or mad but not made to be thought to be this way, could persist two-fold because of the fear that change would cause the other groups of genetically susceptible to react negatively, strongly n create unbalances or severe maladaptation to the same people that are ruling through commanding mad rules but considered as ‘natural consequences’ or occasioning bad things but things with which these people live comfortably. Dear Professor, I am one of e-followers. I am bilingual and really appreciate your work. Here attached my MA thesis. I send it to you in case you'd be interested in the vocabulary used to designated what has been repeatedly called by mafia, and social services professionals ‘child prostitution’. a horror added to this crime against humanity.

i also need to include in my thesis about how American TV creates sting operation in soliciting adult males to meet what is pretended teens. while i admit these guys should be given a warming. anyone doing dating on the internet will tend to say how much people on there are hiding their true identity. etc.

they are in fact stinging people instead of catching the real criminals, networked, doing that again and again .....

Hindrances to data collection and the quality of data, as well as data aggregation (Lalor, 2003) (Whitaker et al., 2008) (Willis, 2002) (Fong and Berger, 2010) (Broughton, 2009) constitute the first part of the literature review. Then questioning arises on the way professionals themselves use terms chronically misused, fuelling misunderstanding and amalgams or helping the hiding of crimes by defining them via wordings such as ‘sex industry’, ‘prostitution’ or the ‘commercialisation’ of sexual abuses on children.

The dissertation puts forward the way paedophilia, one cannot do more taboos and ‘naturally’ ‘at home matters’, are maintained in the realm of the untold, of the unnoticed, of the unreported, or un-investigated even though when known of everyone. Could statistic results be part of the explanations for such unwilling or absence altogether of serious steps against it? Would it be because of its pervasiveness (UNICEF Pacific, 2006) (Lalor, 2003) that paedophilia is in fact ‘under protection’ or at least protected by people’ passiveness not daring even for it to be addressed? One cannot say ‘unseen’, as in broad daylight, child marriage included in the US, sex tourism regions on every continent or whole quarters in India (Whitaker et al., 2008), of children and under-age individuals exploited in such atrocious ways, remains juridically untouched, standing as the epitomes of sexual abuses on children international realm. Even though muffled, reporting appear on popular, high-circulated papers, without anyone managing to take serious actions against it. If the spotlight stays discreet, legal decisions result in letting paedophiles predators advocating, pressurizing for paedophilic crimes as activists and directors of organisations in the Netherlands.

a) Misappropriation of the language

by professionals

All the way, reports mention such things as ‘labour and smuggling’ instead of ‘trafficking’, ‘child prostitution’, ‘sex industry’ and so forth. To talk about prostitution instead of horrific crimes and the punishment that are linked to them, will with certainty impact on how these issues are considered, tackled or ignored. Prostitution should have been reworded to phrases conveying how children have been traded and sexually raped, neutralised, harmed and tortured against money. The same applies with children called prostitutes but not trafficked, enslaved children by the sex trades. Alongside it people tend to use vocabulary from a milieu that endorses sexual abuse against children. It is not even about the percentage of professionals using these terms instead of words reflecting the crimes they attempt to designate. It is no longer the question, this paper uses these erroneous terms similarly since a lack of reformulation rules over the impossibility of naming those abuses otherwise. Professionals use the ‘new wave’ name depicting what have been defended as being ‘sex work’ for adults, and from there, one will define victims as being within (or rather belonging to) the ‘sex industry’ (Broughton, 2009, p.2). The ‘sex industry’, as it is erroneously called, using children as victims, is expending. Left indefinitely like this and the by default classifications, academic quotes and phrases would then legitimate it as being a business rather than a crime industry of the most horrendous (if not so vilified) and punishable type of abuses.

The number of children involved in national and international sex industry (Broughton, 2009, p.2)

as it is inappropriately and shamelessly called

b) Rehabilitation, resocialization

”13 Article 9.3 of the Optional Protocol requires States Parties to “take all feasible measures” to ensure all appropriate assistance to children who are victims of offences mentioned in the Protocol, “including their full social reintegration and their full physical and psychological recovery” (Broughton, 2009, p.12).

It is true that aiming at full inclusion, and full protection is essential and has by any means to be reminded and observed. Though this kind of formulation also infers that these same professionals do not know what they specialise in. They are the signs of a too easy, permissive, self-uncritical, satisfied jargon typifying once again that the burden is put on the child (Purvis and Ward, 2006) to fully recovered from what may be nearly impossible to. In that case pathologies could be treated as not normal and be punished as particularities, and symptoms or signs (type of resilience or healing processes that will be discounted, ignored or unexamined) could then be perceived as backwards or as inner deficiencies. It is also forgetting or erasing the ongoing realities of people having been or being harassed, and victimised. It pronounces the abuses as mendable, just a blip in the course of one’s life- it is trivialising it. Even though people jargon about sexual exploitation on children, they routinely used economic terms just like ‘rehabilitating’ them into general trading, and where even there, growth is ‘attained’. ‘Full reintegration’ resounds as the pride of a social system that simultaneously ‘allows’ that to remains well-known and left aside perpetrations, promulgating or providing at last, the perspective of being integrated to the system: as a reward, a final and late join-in.

It is in the human nature, if you have nothing to do (studies, libraries, communities achievements, entertainment, give them or watch them), people will find something to do, and each time it will be around resources as you will need to compete for them or just decide to destroy the word that cannot regulate in fairness and harmony.

Auto-destruction marching order could be as simple as that.

Just to reassure the americans, when devillepin, foregin minister of france, come to tell the americans that they should follow france because it is a old country having known barbarry, without remembering its collaboration per se, then it is only worth the still hysterically funny good mockery we can see us, on French tv at 8 pm, caricaturing the politicians and other celebrities, the problem ream remains I am not too sure it is allowed to depict one’s nation given to this level of dirtiness, vileness and in fact inhumanity. Or any other low and coward, or treacherous, or lying, propagandist, stealing behaviour nor measures. We still have to mock other people, other a nation. Becore before slipping into further blasphemy. Ballast blast.
Males are said to be competitive to permit the entire family to steal inside and outside their reach - just far more beyond that could sustain insanity.

They steal their mothers, sisters, fathers, as a service for the patry.

We divide cultural and politics, denying how culture is politics and the absence of culture in politics just pillage and raillery.

A tome.
One destroys what people had of history by destroying the incentives the others have to study it. Their arts and technology, biology, or at least their arts, their stories.

Or the civilisations destroy themselves killing it.

Arts, justice and salvage, discovery. Leave nature teaching what is unseeded, unseen, esa, escaping poor humanity blinded, usurping category.

Story.

Domination is used to ‘naturalise’ societies that submit people into poverty, poor individuals building poor society will have to fight poorly. And here goes the species.

Just like these universities peering pretending debates. But not about more knowledge or in-tell-line, e intel, ingenious inter-exchanges, but to profess how none is relevant just how to get (a jet set) job, speaking rubbish and abuses hidden in fees and fizz. A freeze of corrupted training and conscripts.

Effect, ephes.

Sue, science. Scur, rescue.

Unconscienced has been coined by Freud. A last century concept.

So what.

What is then all that is around matter, illusion and what we sense of it.

Our ways of saying, seeing that animals are inferior. While we manage to know nothing about the strength that are around. Maybe excg exca extract, exchange some ideas and account, numerisation and coloration, but after what. The neant.

Human, a fraud.
Let’s conceptualise a world where mythologies are in fact the ones who are right. Logically, as they were the people listening to mature, mother nature. Or even when not listening as not virtuous and virtuoso, hearing.

Minus the aim of destruction, slavery, utility. Mythology reserves, reveals agnotism and the need for a circulating and doming, dominant energy.

The horror, and the gross vulgarity of talking about phallus, while not noticing that it is vaginal, or a tunnel that only the individual can own and slay.

Satan, the fallen agneau, angel, said I cannot bow in front of human beings because I have been created first and I am older, and therefore superior. So would devil be defined this way??

A chronologic, logical justification identified, personified as wrong.

Chronic.

In some catholic interpretation, Satan is the devil as it is an angel that do not want to serve humanity.

As their main reference? As the man at the image of a god.

As pretentious as the real thing.

How Christianity is the peluptieme (empty mode) of epitome of chr, liberalism and capitalism. The forced adulation.

Christianism like many other religions seek faith not in god, but in that they are the image of it.
The devil is said to be able to change its forms, and therefore the snake is just one that has influenced, biased the human judgments.

Maybe the goat has been taken so often, as people with the lambs, were to move in the mountains. Were free and alone.

Just like horrid plagues could have come to make humans realise they are not on their earth, to stop the plundering.

To think one has yield, even oneself could be yielding to a devil’s pact, when there is none coming.

The desire or the necessity to bring back animal strength, intelligence, capacity, to fight against the cold or any human or other adversities.

A captivity.

There is as many definitions as there are people. So definitions are what we commonly agreed. But common is not shared and what we generalised, industrialised, our growth, our loss and despair. Communally, what will, has to, must? Grow is the industrialisation of fencing. Greed.

I admit that the vatican 'has to be' the target of terrorism, just a bomb like for 9/11. bringing wars. le vatican en feu. une guerre qui ne pourrait être évitée plus longtemps si le coeur de l'Europe et ses vestiges historiques cessent d'être protégés, car si on ne sait intervenir pour les canons alors que deviendront nos chairs.
Maybe what differentiate Jesus from other human beings after resurrection, is the fact that he has been judged. i.e that he had seen this error and errs.

Understood.

I think that the church has too much sinned, regarded to women, poverty, spirituality...to go on with power any longer.

As for the other it has been never anything such as a religion despite its campaign successes.

A religion is what bring every creation to an equal foot, not food to the creator. Not the opposite, or not unlike it.

Though I don’t think Freud can be interpreted as every child depends mostly upon their parents for future sexuality, freud installed a switched against invasion, mould, manipulation that can work at least in some measures, perhaps for the main.

It is an Eros, Thanatos situation where the body if it loves (and in the child circumstances in all vulnerability, in all dependence) can also destroy, utterly separate, stop and annihilate. Annulated.

You think vegetarianism would be bad. so for the moment what is it overstocked with. overstock is your belief that nature is your kitchen. in hell. what if life's aim would be to balance, that is to stop the need for killing or invading, without pretending they are going so weak that they will have to die, to their believe we are in a predators prey situation, that suit their weakness enabling them to prey on people searching peace, creativity, etc, by stealing with no morals or stronger attitude concerning existence. i know that there are carnivores and scientists should study the way they could live without having to kill. or eat flesh, eat one's own flesh. fell like flea. humans are not carnivores they are or starving or for what is here just stupid.

And you can check there are no striving imbeciles that are lasting anylonger in evolution theories or drama.

Theory, hero, terror.

Scientist, horrific.
Often religions and sciences are opposed. If what if religions instead of hiding only sciences or sciences hiding spiritual have both hidden reality?

As for the referendum splitting Europe with the UK, I am sure that after 2 lamentable term run by a pm such as D. Cameroon it is the sole trick this twat, in charge with how a manager knowing nothing from oxford district could do quite well considerately.

You know why the referendum after so two pitiful term, just at the end of his mandate, when I caught myself begging for him to stop taling talking about Scotland, fearing the Scots will have to leave, treating everybody like its boys, like if everyone’s life had been so simpleton but easy?

Because it will be remembered. A referendum is what makes and unmake history, it is what the General De Gaulle did after violent mass demonstrations against him. It is something that will stay in history, something that will come up so often in quizzes.

Cameroon him trow that question about years and years of his week and week after weak, deomo demonstration on how pathetic the English people had to be to let his political head interfere in state matters like if it was another company, ready to go, to downsell, to outsource, and above all transpiring with dishonesty, with so flimsy worries and themes that if we were to broadcast of this PM talked to his people it would be in fact dangerous for the UK. Without any serious, with so little important matter and deeper discussion in hand that the best he (not could have done) but deign doing was a discourse on the emergency on some floods happening in the country. We don’t need a head to that, there are hundreds of should well-serving MP.

Pathetic, pathologic, and servile, because when one accepts.

And if secrete agencies, sects, religions, or political, leadership organisations had that of terrorizing not so much what they hide, but what they managed to spy in. and the result of a conglomerate of accumulate information others kept unexchanged, at least as long as it is for taking control with air of superiority. Could religions holy sites be within desert or walking distance of it, as they then through climatic conditions, allowed the preservation of the scriptures.
Could chaos be a force that is younger or past the time of reason, the reason of time, end its beacon.

In terms of psychopathy, there is a manipulate plural, an announced manipulative control that may mean that we could unaware dissimulate our psychopathic traits. Because one stopped caring in groups. To certify oneself as not being one, and killed animals just out of the ‘eternal vomiting pleasure’ to eat them.

Con control.

Controlee, counter lea. Lies, pies, spies and pis.

I would agree that common therapies cannot work on certain people, but also because common therapies are, have nothing to do with care, security, empathy and integrity, and that not only towards their patients, the source of income, but wards, towards the whole society

Entity,

Psychology market, receipt, recited.

Rosette.

Psychology now, as a reverse of its most classical annoyed habit, stopped put the responsibility on the mother, family, but in fact by more modern extension themselves, the therapies, the society, to put it on innate characteristics.

Of course changing anything is a danger as it is the combination of the two that has to have effectiveness, exclusivity.

To assert a behaviour recognised by all as destructive is biological is one more steps, not stops, at manipulation of genes, DNA...

Manipulation assent.
When you are 20 you don't know the difference. Presumably the boys may have flirted with her, and ask her here and there out. I dated an older woman when I was 17, 20 years later I am still consumed with love. 14 is too young, it is punishable and it is good this way, but every story does not depict intended crime.

The trick in psychology is the treatment from normal to what is observed or qualified as being deviant. So it is the analyse of someone who say ok the horrors of today are a fact of life versus what they categorised as being pathologic. Super schema.

Shhhhhhhhhhhhh.

So, shotgun, short of hun, or none the better for that.

Shogun.

People not talking about what is going on in (maybe towards even) their mind, there, the energy, thoughts and believes reigning of and on the matter they see, are inclined to and towards and prosperate.

Or people do not say anything, because what is considered mental illness is at the intersection of taboos paranormal, supernatural being so because people do not want recognise either the power and the restrictions of the mind. that it is something else, that something we don't have any clue about, on or over.

Of course, the problem is that if you tell them they are the best, then they will have to adjust all their lives, and since best does not exist, that woould persist is to destroy the land.

Oooouuuuuuuuuu, sniff, sniff.

Humanity keeps on demarking, comparing itself with the animal reign in order to compare themselves to god then. Main, man, mean, meaning that they thing they are more divine. Which give them a system in which they do not have to prevent animals’ death, the in fact only thing that could make them a distinct species, to be able to summon justice and sciences in order to stop killings. Any.

Meanders.

In Nostradamus prophecies, the name of hister announcing hitler as a second anti-christ is even more surprising when reading Nostradamus writing in old French, XVI French, whose “S” read like a German umlaut.

Hysteria. iso, esotery hysteria.

Mutation is not only due to the necessity of eating (or moving, hunting, thinking) differently but also the conscience, the awareness of having to operate this: the metamorphosis.

From there two others:

- Animals fighting cold and thirst all hours and days long thus encounter otherwise and more profound in many times and ways that the philosophy of the mind whose body is heated or surroundings do not have to face weathers and intemperate temporality.
- To evolve humans will have to access veganism, the only way to reduce the amount of pain and injustice, false sacrifice = done out of being sinful and unwilling to thanks the gods for every life, life = hope for liberty, happiness, creation, discovery...
Some people say the difference btw people and (other) animals is that humans know they will be dying. Humans know nothing about death, like they know nothing about creation as they know nothing about animals and therefore nothing about beliefs, thoughts, matrices and Agamemnon.

The racism like everywhere it is and has been consists also in saying to people that they don’t look like the guys that are in their country. I am almost sure that an Indian, that all aborigines suffer from racism this way. You don’t look American while they have been decimated for being it.

This comes from possession: they want to own a country, they want to own a land, the laws, and what is in it, and through this position also own other nations.

Demise and the only premise.

We keep on talking about magic thoughts and magic call and search as not an illumination but as a pardon and paradise lost.

We kill nature and therefore the rest of what we have still to see, touch, contact won’t or very little show what it has or demonstrate their own and sheer company.

Demonstrate

Cee, celebrities are respected generally due to the fact that they are the products of society, that is and their outcomes, what they did, and their glory belonging to everybody. The same for all creation, that is the orchestral music belonging and having been made by the whole of its assembly. Namely the lords and the slaves. There is no such thing as a culture of such and such, no more that there is one society.

Gong, belong.

The thing, the gauge of life creation, that even if not animated, is nonetheless living.
Common reading also is illusory because render possible in that kind of flash news, recurrently coming, alone in mass media communication, to even make sure that their followers get dizzy on one eternal aspect of the message they send: there will be never anything in depth, anything that will solve the story. Cons everywhere, abuses without end, problem describes years after years without being stopped, just like in laboratories inflict on animals and just observed. ob served, obvious perversity. common reading in context that is.

Atomic as grotesque is pervading everywhere as long as however knowledgeable, however commited and however acting in fairness, our actions will not take place and be rewarded by societal activities, not a job not even a volunteer one. as power of action is si regulated, by the only let-motive that is eventually permitted, interested, the most vested. vest = robe, the habit = in French the cloak, the garment of a profession. the justice as via all other pressure groups biased as the human rights organisations selectively sponsored and retributed = PR, consultancy, recruitment and ceo, but nowhere teaching by extension (courses are so expensive that not intelligence will trinkle up or down the ladder of hermeticity) the rest are serfs and royalty = loyalty to growth and consumption eating up nature, culture, evolution.

As for Hermes, voyageur and messenger, the nature gods have nothing more to say but warring the ones that seek egoistic eternity = death to everybody + have to be cover(ed of) and with falsity. Messange, ange, massaging not the truth but last intrepidity. Be planet earth our last judgment before we destroy more of it.

The other sex, that is not essentially heterocentric but the other, as partner, as desire, as object (matter, imaginary, reality).

Toward completion maybe or division, recession, or the birth of another organism, but that cannot survive without a parent, or in a situation of pluralism a society, tolerant of communality and particularity. The same, the other, the oddity.

The stranger, the outer, the inner and descent. The uniqueness asked by the work of nature able to feed a tree with water, roots, the sun and the dust of what constitutes this unicity, unity.

‘Hister’ in Nostradamus, could mean not Danube but Easter.

Damus?

What about MABUS.
At least we know that MA could be the diminutive of Madam, just like Notre Dame.

Just like a woman on the cross.

Desertification in china.

C: I have lived in China almost 2 years and what I saw of the desertification process is the systematic bombing of the hills. When people want to make space, they just bomb the hills for the soil to become flat. The jungle is gone and instead a red ground is all what is left.

MABUS.

Master of abus, of M standing for Mr, Mrs, or Ms.

Let’s see in Mrs or a sign, a relics of possession Mr’s or of polygamy, one of those@ both aberrati0ns.

Les langues, les sons, les bruits de la nature, ne meurent jamais.

Tels sont les vibrations échangées, et le langage entre les espèces et les années.

Dialects, sounds, echoes of nature never cease, forever live.

The mutual vibrations, inter-species exchanges btw space, time and the flesh who incarnated it. But what of what has been made suffering, extinct, derelict. What words they will, must say.

Have to. Have ebb but not be.

Deliquesce, that is melt away, from matter to solution. Could then solutions here embody the way denouement are expected to arrange, the philosophical affair? Purees, purse, putrescene.
Didactic: surprisingly enough not reviled academics but reviled by academics: info essential sources to informed critics or contradictions. But then it would mean more danger, more work and also more exposition to the duty to the truth or wisdom, though lying shits even intellectuals aren’t, it seems to oblige to provide any of this love (hovel) and passion.

The universe, mineral, waters and fire, turning with a pool of life lurking.
And if the light not traveling on a plane trip, was curving, and its information recurring.
Like the dust we will be becoming.

If you say one loves their lovers divinely because we are now society without defined rituals towards a ‘loveable’ god, then I could be answered that when people love god it is done not for these people to love god but in fact the society that enact them. It is why people may end up doing everything, and endure any way of life or rather make other people endure them—because mainly love for the eternal is not directed into the open but dedicated to societies that ultimately dock, mob, mock and tomb it.

To re-read years after, since reading just after or only after is horrid, impossible, all too acid. Not possible, lack of decency. And what I spent hours writing, thinking, yielding, yearning, just a foolish shadow fabric in density. No one word that characterised my neuter neutral nature and what is called s destiny. Sole sadness masked, alleviated, to only uncovered the little luk luck my companion have had to praise, to prey on me. Prey here because it is no good to leave the dead decay. Deck hay-ing.
In the sky, the cloud race, all white, grey, and the moon does not startle, does not start, just watch, me and them. Them, me and vain. In vein. Strata state strait, not, not to the Hindus caste that one tries, trial, trip pyrrhic or journey for the land. And end.

How many persons would choose to enact the horrors presided by people like hitler, just to have its celebrity, wealth or power?

From the plants, this ‘abc bacteria, just like a snake wanted to go out. Going out, only a few biological steps from sitting the bac a l’aureat’.

There are no safety nets, there are no jobs, no responsibilities, in a world that looms its feed back to our monstrosity, there are no jobs while crumbling, we should have thousands to make it the paradise it strives and prove, trove to be. Being.

Also people putting on the family, not because they can believe in the notion, but like a dog tortured that one won’t report, knowing that the rescuers will put her down. So people say, insist, even though they can feel it is just a feeling, to motion one has learned is suitable, positive to see. Go back to your loving family, not knowing if smiles aren’t but irony features commenting laughingly, not learning from the count of the pain, just make it irremediability.

People say that Cameroon stopped being a MP after its demissioning, resigning gin his PM’s seat, in order to be paid thousands for speech. I cannot say I studied Cameroon speech, but each time I have had an echo of it, I was full with shame, just half wanting, half wanting not that these be listened to by foreign. Foe reign. Cause what one would have fathomed is that there was nobody at the head of this country. Cameroon’s were the quality of a member of parliament talking about trifle affairs but never those of someone elected to be serious about the size of a nation. I always knew it, but little did I guessed what will have brought this heretic. To become a footprint in history books, it triggered a national and continental historic event. The Brexit of Britain from Europe. A few months after the scots agreed to stay with England. A double betrays. A double betrayal.

Cameroon reign should have been saluted for its brevity, just you know we have no one so we seed a said, send you this half manager, liar, easy going with everything that matters, the unseriousness of the financial and lucrative market thus embodied if not idolatred (hatred). Of course these people come from oxford, and the parliament’s style of debate, tell you why you do not need a café philo in London, as politicians are as dishonest as philosophers or publicans will be.

We seed a said, send you this half manager, liar, easy going with everything that matters- no trace of competence, value, and for its speciality, the absence of relevance- the Vlad lad of pettiness managing rendering it pretty? For the one that already renounce having a country.

A pale plebiscite that make puny poor responsible for what the rich we own wanted, rich not the working people at the top, u but the ones that ripped off everybody. To fleece this country, to make it a battleground and this time beyond beaches and valleys.

To go out of its own continent, not in fighting, saying we need this and that to be better done or doing. No, not revealing but its insularity that used to save her, but now. The uk champion of trafficking and polluted sea will have partner such as Putin bringing for its touchstone to reflect, reject and defect an alit and bright effigy.

Hatred, atre in French, the fire place.

To me, the figure of a blind-folded person attacking an innocent, unarmed woman, is the symbol of justice. Blind-folded not because it does not discriminate, but in a context of end of world, as it is said ‘a point at which one needs to choose between god and evil- as the boards are now clearer-blind-folded is the way we are now. The cinema, the play the media and the rest pretend they don’t know how unequal, filthy and dangerous has been led humanity.

To confide in you, in fact i was looking with you, but my being a vegetarian- I do not want to kill animals- prevent me from fostering animals as organisations do not want vegetarian diet for dogs, even though it is perfectly healthy.
I am ok for a dog, but my budget is limited. I found good cheap vegetarian food though...

Black magic, some, used not alive animal in ceremony. They in fact kill, they also use dead animals when it is long ago since humans have them as potential deadly hazard. That even if they have now, humans had to find a solution respecting creation. That of course a hen stays the worst enemy since they have so many to avenge against humans’ stupidity. To use dead animals or as sacrifices, that never will be, or as imagery is nothing like black magic. It is merely the sing of signs licking statu-quo and monarchy. The people swearing their allegiance to the devil of all, the way humans exploited, profiteer and murder nature. Not the call of supernature, of course we still can laugh since it will torture back these people having made her life a mockery, Taciturnity. Though before we have to support these super idiot pretending they differ, they offer another religion, they are but the statu-quo demoni, praying to have the power of the replete, the re-plot, the tanguy. Fowl, folks we won’t commit suicide anymore one day, it is murder and if they push for it to be realised then like my game magic the spelled will boomerang without handle, no, hang.

They made me a recluse, for simple acts for live cannot be played, then just like death in waiting it will from nascent to lay.

Black magic, sum.

They made me a recluse, for simple acts for live cannot be played, then just like death in waiting it will from nascent to lay.

Crypt, church. A crypt while churches had been built on water source in order for the druidic followers to have to come were nature had it summoned.

This love for the texts, to gauge, judge my life- existence – dance - against what I did not manage to write or even start- though when I realise that I could not express this for you when your image makes me cry and my soul want but the afterlives agar, again ether when I could see you or be burnt to the stake of adoration that could not break – through the ashes, through the smoke, not any air, any more terre –earth- without you. Your statues. You, statue.

Age, ago.

I am homo, but when I think of love, the purest, then all sexes, I understand.
beauty in all genders; sublime sublimation.
The love for a woman, the love I had just like the one burning in every breath of that. Divinity.
Dive-in.
Bird of all skies, bird of peace, heaven te trouvera. Trinity, re-trouver. Lose you, and be refound-

Astronomy, religion, sciences and believes. To learn about the logics and the chains creating, recreating, flowing, regeneration, timing.
I think that the history of the galaxies or of the universe depict, how well, the complete ridicule (not riddle) of inflicting God resumed by one book. In fact, it is an insult to God and the human intelligence or intelligence in itself. I don’t even talk about the absence of cosmology as even cosmology could not satisfy a dust or a grain of fathoming more than for the time it took to read- and this immensity that is not assimilated. The wonders of the world itself, alone, could create life, as it produces such an explosion (no exploitation), even when it is in us, very smaller scale, able to, just like a star producing a new sun, as the clouds sparkle and glimmer.

Human beings think of themselves to be as big as important as planets. It is why they destroy earth with a competitive edge.

As far as what we know about astronomy is not conspiracy, like the political ones, or the media covering one aspect of what is known or claiming stating truth when there has been no real investigation. Why would humans find lives on other planets? While they are destroying ‘their own’.
For diabolical attend, intent? In-tent.
The fact that one’s work will last more than one’s life could be the material proof of it not being created by the artist or the maker just revealing one aspect of its originality.

of course, event like Brexit, or the anti-globalisation, could be put into place to make people believe that the only valid system of redistribution, and security, and stability, a one that has to transit through bigger entities, would essentially, has to be tyrannical. For that they render the people tyrannical in allowing them to choose laws that will opt by the exploitation, the rendition, the depletion, the death and annihilation in whole or in part of the others. Pretending that it is better because if fittest then fit means socially able to kill to fuel infamy.

People plebiscitary.

Myth: the volume and weight of a brain does not impact of the intelligence fuelled by it. Mind I would also say that the intelligence gather and gauge off others is not the intelligence that has been generated.

People tragically, just like a mannerism, or manoeuverism, say that they don’t belong to animals as animals are wild. The way humans kill, instead of studying in order to avoid killing, is just as they say Hitler did, with holocaust quality: systematic, societal, and industrialised. And now clinically, sanitised.

Mannequin.

People go on and on about how homosexuality is not natural, how they could coerce, and its thousand manners towards abstinence or heterosexuality. These plies of coercion or the strategies utilised to lead towards an orientation or untoward it, is why people cannot become the most logical of being: bisexuality.

Why people go on and on is that they exploit so much the homosexuals that they still pretend they did not understand the only mechanism they have in mind: slavery, enslavement.
Hit, this pouch or bouquet of hair just where the spine stops or recedes, the one touching the skin and nerve between neck and skull, super sensitive, (under the ones overgrowing) much like a tail.

People look for UFO, fair enough, and what did they find on our psyche? Not a little bother by the ebb and flow of our feelings and thoughts.

Maybe then the ergo cogitum is not Cartesian enough, I think but what does it mean? Or do I think alone, by myself, on my own, or is it listening realm of radiations, variations, brimming vibration just as in the air and as floating and as unceasing and regular as breathing. What about my case? A box and a cortex.

The snake in ancient Egypt, symbol of fertility.

The fibre, fire, fierce trend towards extremist, is egotic rah rather than god, as the ones in the cult chosen are then deemed to be at the top of the hierarchy, of all believers and no-believers, no less.

The, one of the sassiest sad is the squirrel. The one that is called tree rat. Not because of what it is called, as the most it could do is equate to the realisation of a child, no more child, that discover that (is) his parents to the lowest of their world wanted them. Not of the other worlds, as they did not know them.

Birds can go from trees to trees even though in whooping town the view is blead, bleak. For a squirrel, they have to jump to almost unnatural strength from tree to tree. Just like the ninja or the monk of shaolin, whose addicted admonishing audience would say of them that they have these powers of the extra natural because of genetic, or the opportunities that the proficient privileged inferred to them. Even so just like bleeding.

Bleeding, blending.

The red, him ended, endangered.

Vampires receive so much attention, as their myth is the one of the devil itself, inflicting the most discreet, strident, and inner, almost warming pain. The type of intimacy that would shroud the fact that this life is so far from super or supra natural. The almighty nature is gone from our vicinity and is therefore forbidden to speak to us, also our own misdeeds make the satan so ready, as the work is half done, and the battle reduce to none, and invest, invisibility.
To always remember this woman who, when I was very young, tried to tell me she could have thought of me, and to remember the very moment where I went, genuinely almost candid, grossly. But stop thinking it was bad luck, there is so much that one can take. And realise she could have without doing it, restoring a soul that did not know itself, may have been lay fall, lethal, bound to be. Bounty.

To pretend sincerely to an emotion, sweeping, swaging, in order for my pain, my own, not to be known. Is this a good strategy? Certainly not, but a mechanism that enable to call it life instead of survival. But also stopping me to further know the black hole.

A good horror movies, or the one of a well-tortured, manipulated, situation, is when the protagonists, actors or just characters live there during the day, many days, facing, tumbling across, analysing, investigating the place of butchery, the executions territory, the whole world, a one from which, which one cannot escape, even more of which, to which the future victims had contributed, he or they participate.

As far as what we know about astronomy is not conspiracy, like the political ones, or the media covering one aspect of what is known or claiming stating truth when there has been no real investigation. Why would humans find lives on other planets? While they are destroying ‘their own’. For diabolical attend, intent? In-tent.

The religious ceremonies are very important in order to remind or to certify, acknowledge the spiritual dimensions. That humans are not sole, dejected bodies, lane of loneliness and rejection or subject to interminable corruption, but in symbioses, in relation, in path, in phase with the world of spirits.

Continuity and pharaoh.

Far and on.

In mythologies and religions, we are looking for explanations, but forgetting that they are not perfections.

To reflect into others’ existences (knowledge) and to forget our own (lost and age)

In cold, species are so numb and thinking of longevity and energy saving that they will bur rub shoulders together, as no one wants any longer showing off, up or flee, as sapping discreeting, secrecy or modesty. As at least the one that are not related.

Related here, wanting to mean the ones of a same ‘chain foods’: relations.

Shaping, on cold weather as in death. And the demons that would eat our satiety.

Only I guess the poets are in music now to live off what they do. It makes sense too. In fact, it is two forms of art in communion, it is not so often, writers and musicians together is magical. the senses are brought into ebullition. The results of several artists or arts forms; when gather.

Or you do like the classics and write entire books that will rhyme.
Impossible to edit, educate, probe, measure the supernatural, as we did not know what machiens to build and that also the phenomenon could render them impassable, unmoveable, undisturbed at least for the humans’ instincts or observations.

On internet, people that have not had a proper edict, education or have one but with the prospects of the poorer, make the dance happening. Earing, earnings.

Ah ah ah. good? or god?

For those who sees a free mason symbol, obvious as a pyramid on dollar bills flies as rather odd ancient. Pyramids have been found in Egypt, i.e. Africa, and central America too. Pyramids, and less romantically so represent the triangle that renders the American continent a ruler in its own ‘right’.

We will pay for an absence of real quality, cos here the virtual will be in fact the vacuum. it disappears into thin air. I’ ll try to mend it.

What if sincere religious people, In that case who does it to protect the species, were in fact doing it in order to counter the practising nasty? That is not because of the religious believes that serve setting a shield or an edge? Interacting up to internationally not because they are religious but trying to outright what threat to kill everybody, and starting by the possible, one by one, person like minority.
C.E.T: Yes enfouir, is literally burying. and also here a pun with fuir, maybe, flee. you know for cry i feel it is not tears only, but maybe also despair, calling for her love, for safety or horror. it is this week, in fact viewing your videos, I felt something new a propos these songs, just like disenchanted, I felt renouncement, disabused. it is very new for me this reading, maybe just my own life echoing. but you know when I sing nowadays I manage it to be in phase when I think of a love that took me so far, beyond that I could endure, follow, honour, stand or simply hope for. but now when I need my singing or telling to be right it is an ode to say, it was, it is gone, and I live, nonetheless whole, not amputated like I so long felt, because in my psyche I may have become no more a being depending on this other, or at least depending on catching, catching up, or chanting. for chanting. yes, Pete take all your time, but definitely I request the song.

She perfectly knew she loved her till death and beyond. And though this feeling was still lightly return, we will have to die or go pass it, also this is not enough to close the deal. It is where lie a destiny, as or it is thus I translate my glance upon it, a person to love another must live their own need for achievement, to their own fashion, and this that it pleases the one you encounter successfully is not bound to fit easily, if any at the fringes, and the fringe is marginal, devoid of facilities.

The thing is I don't think this absence that she describes is gone. the person is absence, the company is lonely, but nothing went away, or maybe decades after decades surreptitiously.

Maybe if you can at all, try a sound more powerful. i think i would not say a filament, filament you forgot the it in I did not choose to be it look 2:42 I did not choose to be it not I did not choose to be with it, in it, or to be. I respect your choice to play on this aspect for me she did not chose to be it not I did not choose to be with it, because our love defines our being, and it has given us the why of all what we are, and say about it. :) no, you could say that I must stop, but I like cease here, you could use both. but for me it is just like you translated. she is telling her that she cannot build on towards the moon since she might have come to the realisation that her destiny is what a thread is to a trip in outer space, and since she thought, sorry thinks of the immensity. but without it who, would we go out the maze? but with it and without Adriane, or Ariadne thread, are we willing to this Minotaur co-existing as our sole reflection.

I love your translation with vanquish. if you want to use more than one word, ‘meurtrir’ resembles ‘meurtre’, murder. So wounded, hurt, could also be alright. this sensation of having crushed, this reason, or at least suggestion why one stopped, doing, hoping, persevering...

Non, keep vanquish, it is noble. Also, this part of the text could contains 'wounded', 'crushed', because you know what happened when you love this way, this song is a garden but in which there is also desolation. perhaps it is what allows the tragic, will it be predominantly desolation. it is what is love, even if it was you know it is meta and will take you beyond the golly state of disappearing. however, vanquish add or give us another reading, it could be the one that says that in fact you have chosen to stop, that you are still, but you won't go and persist towards its realisation or in fact maybe more likely, seemingly more obviously, the continuum of its absence says it: to persist toward what would bring you closer to the figure, the emblem, the person incarnating eternal love. You then with living in flesh your own renunciation the ephemeral side of what you know did not leave you, or went just to leave a subject of incompleteness: you.

But vanquish set you free of what you will be able to opt for, stop damning you, like you did not have a body.

Corp, corporal, encore.

Poor cor.
To finish, for this murdering connotation, I could be the primary and tertiary reasons. The result of a lost paradise, and the consequence of your death, assassination, be it spiritual, carnal, or amorous, an empty vessel deprived of its heart, robbed perhaps but in fact its brain does not have the gut to reclaim its debt. So, the souls are waiting for what?

A revenge though this one not against anybody, but to your understanding of fate, even if it is while answering what we deem to be what we decipher the best of physics that ain’t designed for the invasion of space: you did not make it cos you followed the voices, echoing the ones that enable migration, or some other feats, nonetheless conventional, or may be.

I would take out in and with for this song because it is a call for love, you want drowning if it is the way to where it is hidden. but one thing is clear it is not my translation, and they are tricks I would use too, to play while singing, reading...

Vanquish, the final neutralisation. I am man. For the star to transpire, to transgress not able. I am a man, not a pure soul. Maybe religions made me think I was near god. Maybe they tromp. It is like that I could have lost my identity, being killed to finish in me this idol.

Or character assassination? It is what is morose, but out of the morbid, when not implying waiting for death as a finitude, eternal is, and will be following.

I looked for Ariadne’s thread, some represent it like the tree of life, maybe a romantic picture of someone longing for the moon. You know Farmer and the space, the cosmos.

You are right the songs are not violent, and are not meant to be. Though there is a thing with love is that it is the ultimate reason for rebellion, I mean it is the only reason you don’t need another one to put yourself into action, and it will not mean anything else than victory, you know it is not the things nor their consequences you will do or think doing for money. And, it is when you stopped doing this thing, these deeds you do for it, for love, that you are vanquished, it is also the story of death.

But then you cannot live without, so it will transform, even accommodate, metamorphose and incarnate.

I was born at 200 miles from where I spend most of my childhood. The town and the areas surrounding that saw my growing up until I was an old teen, was to my delight a region known to be woody and green. as for the encroaching villages, not that many miles from the centre, they were like archipelagos. In fact, with retrospective, they might be for the adults very hurting. My region is isolated, though the main town is still an attraction. However, if you do not have transportation it is very difficult to go down the countryside that suffers itself from intensive deforestation, where publics paths had been removed, though illegally, but still dictating where one can go. What my regions taught me is nonetheless nature that can be seen though a little bit, and the lessons are still with me. I began a vegan, because I know animals have a soul, have a body. People also suffer from staying in the countryside as many animals are in fact kept to be culled, slaughtered, assassinated.

Existence influences space-time, as presence of mass, energy, and movement enabling transfer and transformation.

To say, torture someone not for what they are but what they could be- or could have been.
So, it is the old moral justification, to fight something for not what it is, but what it is thought it would or could become. but never with the same supleness, that is one will say it could become bad and fire at it, instead of curing the reasons why destruction would be enabled to prevail and this on anything, moreover the ones that people to have under observation. as morality is sometimes the way people stopped, avoid a duty of construction, or and therefore anything could overtake any motion.

This information is accurate. As a reminder, there are contentions between Muslim believer over the real age of that polygamist marriage, but the real urge is not on the many times rehearsed row over age but about the millions of people professing that their prophet married an underage and even a preteen female making child marriage therefore ‘recommendable’ as one of the commodities a ‘religious’ man or families must claim or reclaim. Please don’t read this text if you are not interested in it in itself but please do make sure you check and realised how Islam has become under international law on the freedom of religion and believe, a refuge for paedophile pest and plight changed into a practise of what is not respected for noting but the torture it would allow. Please, be aware that ‘these teachings’ legitimised as fundamental to the Islamic religion can be found by the thousands on the internet via a very simple word search.

You should not threat species, saying it is good they have been killed.

Threat, treat, who is next, distaste.
Why veganism, why the way one eats is ethic.

I don’t understand why you compare eating, and killing animal with going to the loo. maybe you have a point in that it may be considered as cultural the way it is done, and not ‘natural’, instinctive. in fact eating, and the satisfaction of needs are a big part of psychology, and are called visceral, the way society allows sexual, hunger and even the urge to defecate not everywhere a good point would be needs etc to be got is paramount. just like cannibalism or slavery would be. you see your need to defecate and the needs for others it is not on their laps, then this starts what will be ethics correlated.

But then I don’t know how it is possible to speak about ethics with someone that has only ‘I’ and defecate, or defect for sole preoccupation. Cos if we say to you, for your unhealthy meal (or even if healthy, replaceable you will have to kill and you say ok what the fuck? then it is because you haven’t been that enough, it would seem.

Replicable, explicable, expire.

Expier = French for atone one’s mistake.

It is not visceral needs, but visceral psychology, that is visceral behaviour. you are assuming that killing animals is alright. I am sorry but when you say that like animals, people kill other animals, you are absolutely not in the same conditions, that is it is not a good example because it is simply not comparable. In some conditions animals have to hunt in order to survive, it is not any longer the case of the human society, at least the one that is not starving while a part of the humanity is under any line of poverty that one can imagine here in the ’north or in the west‘ (well not north of Russia, I have been told). Humans’ culture, not culture no, but what as far as we are able to tell, differentiate human society, their technology, though humans have been technologically able to be vegetarian as soon as their society could staunch hunger, now they have the power to do it for everyone, and to the healthiest point – of course one still can always say that they have the power because in the first place they knew how to kill people and place them in submission and slavery, that these societies exist because they are profiteering from animals and other humans, (that is from all animals, so from all humans as it might been asked from you to lose your morals, equity, fairness, your own sense of security, whence the urge to kill everything that is permitted). But you see there is these logics in life because of course logics are at the foundations of all things, if you have a brain capable (or is our brain just capable to acknowledge the achievements of its species? And like that (like that, take that) denigrate all what the others build and the energy propel towards progress) of not killing and instead live in harmony, if you don’t use for this, or if you used it against this, then the punishment is not far it is just its length and depth that are not possible to grasp.

In fact, we are in that limbo where we might have this possibility, stop hurting nature without knowing how. I am not talking about stopping eating other animal species, but what would we do to stop killing everything we are aware of, without being overwhelmed, without a species to take over, just like during an invasion of alien. Of course, dummy me, because this question is a horror since humans are horrid enough not to do a simple thing, tend for nature and love.

The bugs thing is interesting, are you caring about bugs, are you caring about fish? Ultimately it is forgetting that everything is the bug or the food of something else, and philosophically, not caring about that or else, thinking like ’things’ and say it is like that, is nothing more than satanism. that is look at me i bring you food, i am your food, hoping being slayed more nicely, or gaining for a little while through destruction and parasitism, in pretending that they are dominant. Being subservient.
Being it to applaud it, to get into that warp of eating another, being soulless, or without saying as much, destroying its, the very one, one's own flesh.

Humans hunt and hated without ceasing wolves, bears and other wild species, or species that had not been domesticated because of just that. Humans are jealous of the freedom, humans have to make themselves pass as being superior, and god like, because they have lost, being robbed, and unworit, unworthe of their liberty. The lack of responsible acts, their relentless destroying the plantes and planet, soon planets, on account that the cosmos says yes, accompanied by his methodology, its superchery, its grandiloquy of them having a right, having the right supremacy. Them claiming they owe the mother of all, humans should not stay for long. Who would survive killing its creator? Or better what for? One sure thing, they as such won’t be, and preying that the cosmos if this charade gear along won’t allow what our brothers plants and other animals, by the sake of thinking else than technology, or at least technology visible to the eyes of humans, the one that himself slave would call themselves theology, for they would not give to their equal any credit.

Salt, is a bit like the salt of earth and also salt, sel, salir = soil, sell. But with that story everybody has been made oblivious of the fact that the escape Loth will commit incest after this story. degeneracies, and not of the story only but of the ones that tale it, again and again, with their false sense of sainty (sanity), real one, absurdity. and stupidity.

In fact, it is these peer pervading pervert teaching that incest is better homosexuality.

The same old rituals, pervert, under belief of believing, soiling even texts that are enough corrupted as they wee, were, but just added.
Please consider vegan, vegetarian food for dogs it is like humans, it is above any serious controversy that they will be healthy dogs. I don’t know you but I had hens pets. Unfortunately, not had kids, lambs, sheep or cows, as adorable as any others.

Unfortunately, if you ask me and not only me, but the ones we slaughter, there is absolutely no studies towards food nutrition that would allow our and other species, studies and factories, production, to live without being murders.

Humans are becoming so sick and fearful by the layers of reality, facts that they have uncovered or simply experienced that they quit searching for more. It is what might have been called ‘desenchante’. A conspicuous not quite absence but avoidance of spirituality.

The horrors in this rich countries. This? The same, blue or red.

take this as an admission of the state of the states. You won’t be able to see it in china videos as they are under censorship. Well they banned the entire west web to enter, and information, true one is always a flow, an ebb.

Ammunition, admonition, administration.

Now like councils in the U.K industries will self-regulate instead of being cross-examined. Of course, not anything worse than a biased examiner. But the self-regulation story will just make them endemy.
End, this is the end, let’s hope for this stale legislation to stop being the blue print of other countries.

In the country that think it is normal to install ‘zero contract hour’. When I try to explain to an outsider what it was, they initially told me yes it is ok your boss does not have to provide you with 35 hours work a week, before they actually understood that this contract is the embodiment of initiation to servitude as serfs carved, scared, hungry. That you are in fact not allow to work for anybody else even if 'your boss' does not provide you with any hours work.

Censorship is evil. it is only stopped what is detrimental to universal rights of people when they are under attack, but that is not censoring, it is sensoring.
Since all careers is based on it, on self and other censorship, then one will have to re-read all people their breaths under, words and insinuations. To know what they forebode were coming.

Re-hear.

Hearse.

People have (has) thundered through the ages that humanity was finished. But this statement is not paradoxical. Now, we are finished is in motion and lived in repetition. To think that a devilish proportion of the big mammals may disappear due to human activities just took now no wonders for humans to know, for logos to say, what horrific thing would happen to the creature of doom that would stay.

But then some would retorque ‘humans might have killed them all out of leisured pursuit, faked ignorance, bone fide indifference, blind faiths, blunt dimness but the fact is that it is the species that are here to remain and pursue, evolve’.

After the destruction of its planets, or humans will have to survive another place without having taken strength from the first, in a growing circle of vainness and a vacuum the size of its pointless vanity.

Or what they will have become will not have nothing to do with humans, but will be just like the cell from which another species went from.

Yes, that is it, evolution. You know in a world where matter perishes, the other natures, animals, realms and domains that man eradicated will have evolved, elsewhere, after death, in ALL BUT NAME.

Ream, remain for humans are moribund rests. Remains for the world, they not know nor care for, are an unhinged and unedged existence for the ones they massacred. Not evolved but to purity apparat.

A mass where or instead of a resuscitation will slay.

People like educated Darwinian wants to evolve when revenge of their lust and lost will come thru and beyond the land.

For those who have for with wit to say that eating other animals is a sign of evolution, them then the vampires that would go on and under at the prey of the blood they have in share. Is just another sign that humans need to stare?

The vampire myth, one that feed for eternal life within the same body and the other that hopes to stay with the same anchor for the most they can come round. One that does it for a longer span in itself on the same, themselves, their vessels. And their partners that do it in order to trace them, and possess, what is or maybe, for doom, was, the envelop of what bring them the sense and senses of perpetual love. That very same that would entice you to any other move, to maybe any things, if they would entice not but entitle you to re-approach them- as them being your love = in the sense of property, in the sense that nobody, that I know of this scheme or then shame, could partake with any.

Those who think they are superior because of being carnivore, or it being prerogatives, will die dry of the juice, no, on pain.

And not wanting, but succeeding in being a vampire to follow the traces of whom had you transcend and see hell.

And then I love you, inasmuch that I take me to cry, showing my body that its water will its own soul drown.

Sold, shroud, should, shoulder sawn.

Academics don’t stop em-phasing discourse and discourse analysis, mocking again and again the simple statement of informative paragraphs, because they don’t have any information, they play being independent and critical but are all completely tied outer, inner, by organisations of all denominations, to find out, investigate and name the source of concerns.

On the bewilderment on how many teachers in university are not specialists in the subjects they are in charge of. How many guys, showing with how little serious and for all their glibness one can make a living off subjects they have no interests in rather than taking people dedicated to knowledge and lectures (bizarre in a system where fees are not accessible to the people in the street as and because (or thanks for the legislature to hold on to the legs of the gest politician partiture portraiture perjure pourriture) the building budget goes out the roof, being handled by 6 salary figures.

Cutting the bush were animals can live, eat and hide and to have planted like 29 year old birch tree at the price and attendance that this operation might (might he) hint and hit, instead of go rowing little ones in a spirit of nursery. They cut everything and after that replant big trees, that it looks good.

To say that they look environmentalist just near the door of the buildings while the green space are shrinking, and salvaged, slaved behind the (seances sciences) scenes, just 19-38 yards behind, (at the doors they replant while at the back they empty, say) but enough to dress the eyes and sense astray.

There was a gay society in Roe, though none (nonsense nominee) of the students beneficiating from it, advertising it to others. It was a closed, almost secret one. Though doing fundraising not towards visibility but their little personal trip to gay pride outside the borders of UK.

I actively seek for the gay organisation there for 2 years, every semester. None appeared whatsoever. It took me to bump into somebody who knew their backdoor to finally assist to one of their meetings. They benefit from donations, and kept more secret in a public place free from other societal pressures and whose duties is to welcome further education students into a communities life where to find happiness is permitted.

What I am afraid that could be misunterpreated (und hund) is that is not through insolence that i quest what i am taught. i have th emost (remote) respect for the position of a teacher. i reckon that is it impossible for a human being to be objective and knowing the wonderings of their students and it is why it is an interactive tuition that is needed to try to abridge gaps and misconceptions as well as misunderstanding or generational or class...inter-diction.

They provide you with good infos?? Intense, condense??

Work out punctuation and puncture. And pucker that are not worth the title of prof at university.

No cos basically as university is discreetly taking our purlieu nature

[Middle English purlew, piece of land on the edge of a forest, probably alteration (influenced by Old French lieu, place) of porale, purale, royal perambulation, from Old French porale, from poraler, to traverse: por-, forth (from Latin prō-, see pro-) + aler, aller, to go; see alley.]

http://www.thefreedictionary.com/Purlieu

Purparler, plurality.

Conversation or discussion preliminary to negotiation.

[French, from Old French, to discuss with the aim of reaching agreement, conversation preliminary to an agreement: pour, for, before (from Old French, from Latin prō-; see pro-) + parler, to talk; see parley.]

On a totally different note.

No cos basically as university is discreetly (creed-waster ideology) taking our purlieu nature. They are obtaining from some students to emphasize how the surrounding is green and lovely, which is true, but what about the establishment instead of protecting the inheritance from the past, and end try (dry dory forty) to enlarge it in view of the more than an environmental crisis more than known today????

They are contrarily to their publicity praising environmental actions and the natural, central and centurial beauty of the campus. They are building taking all the space “pricy pricky” (a description of

Who are you reling quishing profs? Who rect recruit them??

Rectify, deify, rect-hom. Hum.

No cause in human rights why not to take on one that are not but vague notion of manage rings and knots skills for crook, well u know, internationally big company.

And left out of the door real papal apple people that risks their lives (our fivers) or are very experimented in at least on modules and that would be great at entertaining us with their real expertise??

I mean I don’t get it.

On how our university are ruled like 5 stars hostels

And manage like anti-democratic businesses not allowing (instead of questing, investigation) the slightest time to debates...

By staff not knowing if they flee after lectures because they obey the market or because they are afraid of being incriminated by f...little students that cannot stand an opinion if they are contrary to the talc that still apply their mummy.

Or just because they are incompetent. And not competitive (jive), just the way they will teach you to react to the criticism, no debate, no teachings ethics, not ethics, just spoiled dummies.

Some truly are, but I won’t throw them stones as as I try to denounce students game never campaigning, none, but complaining (and without any intelligence or honesty will be taken their complain, as what do you want to expect from a nano uni that have lost , its duties to educate with embettering the so calle(n)d word,
Cos it is not to do the pest, no, no, no.

But you know how much it costs that, the info that they are hiding away.

They will constant cost your being ready for interview at the end of a day.

View, vie, wive.

And what they do the don, con, they count, mon amil

Additional question. Do you think ti is the majority of your poff that have read a book on pedagogy.

Because the situation is:

- They have to run towards other obligation that those of teaching, you see. It is with these arguments, here they argue, that some are more cod condescending that if I was the worst thinking monde, moldy money, monkey not yet manage not to communicate my relative intelligence, but proving it in laughing like a human in articulating is moody: wages and slip on banana as long as ape puck pundit punction. On salary.

Something intrude intrigue me too, ti is on intellectual ownership. How come that these head fob cattle leaves eve basically (and heave as for regeneration fog oxygen it is not the tons of wastage and tree cutting that will be produce from university green lying publicity)

- How come it is so ownerships, shipped like the taxes, and the research never handed, honor ship, the courses, even the description of a modules as roe is happy to provide 3 lines for their idiot (and edit indeed idiotic in scale with the forcing fording feeing foereign that pay for the pounds of sheet crap how to lick and persevere after university) but ready to commit (what) student.

WHO WOULD LIKE CHINA AND RUSSIA TO BECOME THEIR BIG BROTHE’S

China just going from undemocratic to dictatorial in on move or two.

WHAT YOU MIGHT NOT HAVE UNDERSTOOD ABOUT CHINA CENSORSHIP, IS THAT IT IS NOT INNER TO THE COUNTRY BUT BAN CHINESE FROM SAYING WHAT THEY THINK BUT NOT ONLY. THE IT GREAT WALL OF CHINA BANS THOUSANDS OF FOREIGN WEBSITES (AS HUGE AS GOOGLE, WIKIPEDIA, TWEETER, THE NEW-YORK TIME AND YOUTUBE, ALL BLOGS, AND ALL VIDEOS- AS IN VIDEO YOU CANNOT FISH FOR PARTICULAR LEXIC AND LINGUISTICS YOU WANT TO SEE DISAPPEAR).

THE NOVELTY IS THAT NOW YOU COULD GO TO PRISON TO TRY TO CIRCUMVENT THE CENSORS IN ORDER TO ACCES WHAT EUROPEANS OR AMERICANS CAN VIEW AND READ.

In fact, I have lived and worked in China, all Google and therefore Youtube are out of reach, and all videos as Chinese cannot cipher foreign videos for censoring them as content cannot be censored via automatic digital censoring websites using certain words (all foreign blogs are banned in China). I am very worried as people could, when I first came there, found free VPN online, enabling them to register their computer IP in another country and therefore circumvent censorship. Six months upon my arrival, you still could use a VPN but for money, the same amount of money you need to have an unlimited internet connexion (huge amount for a working class Chinese citizens). Personally, I decided not to take one, and ended up working hours; wasted as I could not access sites still listed in search engines, even ‘English teaching site’, TFL sites, educational sites, etc…

Even more worrying now the Chinese governments officially said that they can punish the use of VPN (only way to access foreign blogs, youtube, all videos, etc !!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!--) with computers ‘use bans on individual charge with browsing forbidden foreign internet material or by imprisoning them.
C.ET: AS A FURTHER NOTE: these past few weeks the news could not dry on how Shi, the Chinese president became the one figure of the party, comparing him to Marx and Mao.

But 2 years ago, Shi became at the same time as president, chief of the army, while treating their neighbors of land grabs- not talking of the Tibet that the English has given to them when they leave the colonial.

If today, Brexit might make a point of being royal, China gets along in clothes imperial.

And now with America, that elected the ones that said ‘America first’ perhaps wanting war or cooperation, go on with how American have been socially neglected, just maybe to appeal for some sort of economic or else conflict, thinking of how WW1 and WW2, permitted it to reach the top through being a creditor not a loaner like nowadays.

Mayo is the vote in Chinese that means null- the opposition dictatorship will have in their midst.

In china thousands of sites cannot be accessed. However, for years people had been able to download VPN (for free or after more assaults only by paying) that allowed them to access sites with the help of VPN- even if you are in china, your computer can browse as if it was in another country (a country without undemocratic, abusive censorship).

THAT WAS BAD, BUT NOW IF YOU ARE CAUGHT USING A VPN? IT HAS BEEN MADE ILLEGAL.

AMAZINGLY ENOUGH, I heard on the BBC radio how your searches recorded by the party and the state at large will influence how Chinese will have access to jobs, and even to services- as banks, phone and internet companies, etc, are nationalized. What is doubly amazing is that I cannot find for the moment discussions about it on the web. It might be a very recent unlocked news... see you later.

PS: SO CHINESE, TO NOTE, the interests that people have in freedom of expression is similar in the west. You may not censor a whole site but people will censor actors, agents there. For a beginning.

PS2: the only reason I am aware of that, is thanks to my having worked there. I listened to the news all the time, I would never have understood the seriousness of the situation through that, guess it proves I am a slow one.

PS3: I don’t know how it works in Russia, but from what I gleaned it has similar hues.

Like said the common wisdom the grail is just what cannot be terminated, an endless quest. Immortality. And to fight for a just cause, make it unmorbid. Death here is no desire but elsewhere.

Dis ailleurs. Ailleurs in French elsewhere.

D’ailleurs, something that is not here.

Just like Michel Zink says, the grail tale counts the revelation of silence and secrecy, that has to be broken when people need help or charity (here in the sense of brotherhood or solidarity). The edification of human knowledge cannot but be the sum of their goodness not a privilege, adding up to sacrileges.

the polygamous prophet of islam were married at a 9 year old child, (and) To worship worst form of sexual slavery.

And how this is (let to be) taught to children in UK and other liberals’ countries.

I think that this information are not prioritized at all because of people wanting a comeback of rampant slavery, sexual slavery included. In fact tools at regression and status-quo of progress and research versus professorate of horror and manipulative stories in order to have servants docile since dying and domiciliary.

(When you forgot it all about imposed and ritualized, rooted polygamist and knew nothing about sexual and other sort of slavery after pillages and wars- here what you got = what you are)

Also if you think I do not write well enough for your understanding, and that the above is a proof of islamophobia, just because it is exposing a fact, then you do not have to worry, take this to at least one of the highest in command of your university. I witnessed myself these beyond middle age white man, richer than you certainly will be with your spouse or partner included. They will be able or manage to just censor information like that…how come? For the better good of the community, no on the ground of religious sensitivity. But in sociology department the hell yeah, that is how one would joke but all the same be backed enough to obtain a promotion doing it.

A thought for the post-modern moderators.

?? check yourself on the internet — islamic schools etc... preach pedophilia in teaching people that mohamed the polygamous prophet of islam were married at a 9 year old child, (and) To worship worst form of sexual slavery.

mohammed, the islamic prophet “”“married“” a child.

Islam preaches worse than paedophilia (even though impossible) but like mohamed its prophet who was polygamous and whose last ‘spouse’ was a child.

Please check on internet, it is classical Muslim literature.

if you think this with honesty, know that you are wrong, information have had the ability to change things, i.e., to have to follow what a system would end up forcing people to do, here not paying tax, even robbery tax but force ‘marry’ kids, and here following Islamic prophet live, the one so many times invoked that for some people his name has become a way of punctuate and phrasing, to marry little girls with old men.

Also if you think I do not write well enough for your understanding, and that the above is a proof of islamophobia, just because it is exposing a fact that would lead anyone direct to the prison or gallows in certain Islamic states (not ISIS that is not a state, but many others: Pakistan, Soudan...), then you do not have to worry, take this to at least one of the highest in command of your university, I witnessed myself these beyond middle age white man, richer than you certainly will be with your spouse or partner included. To tell them? To insist and tell them? To oblige them? Not bona fide.

Look, literally I needed my degree. They invited me in a room where i was supposed to apologise to a Muslim believer for having unveiled the writings of their religion, saying I did not say it with the right words or tone (am wondering how they would speak to victims of this pedo ‘marriages’, in fact it is pedophilephilic). Since this day, I understood that in fact polygamy, paedophilia are actively protected by the west and it is for this reason that the uk etc., are in fact trafficking people, let FGM happen by the thousands, it is like that that some groups recruit, promising money, wife, and live in total dishonour but since even universities do.

In its discourse, taking for people for rid, dire rub-ish. Taking them childish.

BUT I COULD NOT IMAGINE, THAT A KING, NAME PM, COULD BREAK A WHOLE COUNTRY TO ITS CONTINENT. INCONTINENT.

Here former HEAD OF THE ONLY OF ITS SORT HUMAN RIGHT PROGRAM IN THE UK, SUBSIDISED BY THE EUROPEAN UNION, WELL BEFORE BREXIT, NOTE HOW THIS NEW BUILDING AIMING AT HOSTING A CENTER OF EXCELLENCE FOR HUMAN RIGHTS HAS BEEN CONVERTED 6 YEARS LATER INTO THE BUSINESS SCHOOL OF THE UNIVERSITY...

TO BE SURE IT WAS PART OF THE PLAN ALL ALONG.

THIS UNI THREATENED WITH STAFFS AND DISCIPLINARY TACTICS STUDENTS WHO DARE OPPOSING CUTS IN SOCIAL SCIENCES, AND DOUBLING FEES TO ENTER FURTHER EDUCATION.

THAT OTHER HEAD, MIND YOU A SOCIAL SCIENCES STAFF AS WELL, LIKE A MINISTER IN FRANCE DID TO US FOR THE SAME CUTS DEMONSTRATION 15 YEARS EARLIER, CAME TO OUR REUNIONS TO TELL US HE HAD TO SEE IF ITS CHILDREN AND WIFE WERE FINE FOR DINNER.

THOSE GUYS WHO PROFITS FROM SALARIES COMING FROM THEIR STATUS AND ROLE AS TEACHERS, HEADS, WRITERS, DIRECTOR OF SOME OTHER ORGANISATIONS, AND GUESTS ON THINK TANK, PLUS SOME DIVIDENDS ON WHEREVER THEY CAN TICK FROM THEIR GREAT MINDS SOME CORRECTION, A THESIS SUPERVISOR WHY NOT, THEY CAN STEAL IDEAS AND TRASH THE WORK WITHOUT MORE THAN 15 MIN OF THEIR THUMBING THROUGH THE WORK PAID LIKE THE STUDENTS HAD A TO PAY A WAGES FOR IT TO BE DONE BY THIS HUMP OF BONE THAT CANNOT ADDRESS
ANYLONGER THEIR OWN MIND CONTENT, THE ONLY THING THEY CAN SEE TO BE HOW THEY MUST HAVE BEEN SO SUPERIORILY INTELLIGENT TO BE ABLE TO DO ALL OF THAT, AT THAT RATE...

THE MUST OF MIST. THEY CANNOT. AND THE START OF FASCHISM, THEY ARE SO SICK THEY DO NOT KNOW THEY SPREAD THIN THEIR PETTINESS, LACK OF COMPETENCES, AND GAPING MINDS ALL OVER THE VALLEY.

MIST ON MISSING TO DETECT THE GREATEST DELUSION. THEY WORTH IT.

IF THIS HAD A TITLE, IT WOULD GO, EMBEZZLEMENT.

BEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEE.
May I also use this space to congratulate the Business School on its six new staff and 1.7 million commitment at a time when good, hard working scholars in the humanities and social sciences are facing redundancies.

I noticed that it is often very warm at yours, and i thought of what you told me about your kid being prone to cold. i used to work in care and one of the problem they have in residential home is that the heating is above 20 Celsius, and at this temperature people will experience much more chest and throat problem as it is ideal for bacteria to live on.

The allure of exact sciences that sociology wants to coat itself in. at the boot of the ‘power’, to abuses versatile. Till. Tile.

And hinting at the positivism in sociology. How sociology and psychology would like us to believe that the norms established security, and that they are in no instance the root of the problem. There is the insane and there is the perverted. And viewing how society goes, gays, guess whether it is to do with the academy ??

Just to add I was a mature student in an English university. I also happen to be a lesbian. i wrote an item on this, the guys at uni kept purposefully in the closet, lgbt was totally unreachable at uni, and gosh i tried, it is through someone telling me i finally found them by pure chance. i went and had to witness how the sole focus was on raising funding to go party for the gay pride in other countries than the uk. i also was part of the LGBT groups at unis in France when I was not so mature students, the atmosphere was sometimes so unreal and completely unfriendly, like iii I won’t say, towards an old dyke like me. What I gathered after is that the majority of them ending up into a complete hetero life style after having had a big go at monopolizing with force and to be quite frank dictatorship and intimidating fashion the top seats and function of the organisations. In paris the assoc was not in the closet because they are part integral of the uni, not mere societies.

Lack of empathy is a trait to psychopathy I would think! already not Asperger’s syndrome kids but autistic kids are treated in most schools as having serious intellectual impairment while it is the fact that their intelligence has been proven as high, one reason of the revolution and impact it had on the mainstream. just like the dumb people who were called institutionally stupid by the medical doctors of the 19th century fin de siècle- because they could not physically speak.

Perhaps with Asperger one could have a hard time relating to the words and feelings, displayed or experienced by others in common situations. grieve can be completely overwhelming. Also, I believe that greater empathy than normal may be an autistic trait, and often not as defect but turn into or consequences of having much more sensitivity. also compassion suffering for or with somebody else or ‘something else’ can have a very overwhelming effect.

FB(i) like so many meanstreams, well all actually are the chief gang of censorship. though of course they would not touch religion or other powers with a barge poll (pole). i mean by that they would not dream of disturbing them. everything will have to do with censorship. it strangles us already, and they just have to squeeze a tiny more to start killing...vast layers of the happy capitalized agents or citizens themselves. As the other layers of the population, well, the planet herself won’t go round as human activities, philosophies and believes, just think she is the apple they can binge on.

You forgot, dear Londoner, that you are talking about the world, in Africa for example where everyone is a refugee, with dictatorship and western that pays them bordello fees- the one when you manage to have enchained the stock you laugh upon. you know the mass poverty in the congo, or CAR?? maybe we like talking about the muslims too, why because to forget we are murderers and traffickers, and facilitate all sharia law... sharia laws is abhorrent but it is used to say to people having lost it all, that I could be the safety net of further enslavement! Islam relies on pedos but not only. And also, people looking for wives, but you know what, we destroyed everything, humanity is a vampire resting on its wreck, happy they did it, and soon without money.

It is why islam is growing as well, is that people gutted with their gyt, with amri America etc. think we need a counter-order. But all are so infamous, dirty in all their deeds, that they forget to tell you that everywhere trafficking is rising, that this way, people with hope, will hope that the planet will get rid of us any way.

I should not be working with these agencies that employed people that do not have to respect professional standards. They yet again unfortunately are not my bosses (mind this way they would have found manners to exploit me to death before sacking me), that would mean i have paid holiday, sick and medical protection, social welfare, retirement scheme etc, they just take 15% of what you agree to pay or of what I earn. I spent so many hours building profiles that I stayed. I’ ll try to do it independently from now. they have nothing to do with me. it is a contractor, marketing that bring service provider and customers website. Debase professional standards, take all the internet advertisement slot, included the one of my specific specialization or my unique post code, making impossible for the independents to advertise themselves successfully and make me paid every day in full ripping me of as I have to give a dividend for them. Yes they work, they intervene whenever it is awkward, and profit from making their websites difficult to use, or to make it impossible to delete information. Or setting weird protocol to claim the money they took first, as far as if one is not accomplishing aware and intentioned, they cannot claim it. On top of sending money without the right amount, without calculating what they took off it, and without the appropriate date or name of the clients. Just enormously tenant. it is just too bad the universities are not any longer. it is just too bad the universities are not any longer affordable, i.e. democratic, i.e. universal. are not any longer. didn't they referendum on it?
How China censorship forbids all videos (while next could be Russia), and blogs from western cultures: not an exaggeration Chinese people cannot access any YouTube, google (to name but a few), these sites are just entirely and exhaustively banned and since last year internet users could be imprisoned if they try to access them (by buying software able to jump the firewall). SAME AS FOR THE SUBJECT ABOVE, HORRENDOUS BUT NOWHERE CLEARLY IN THE MAINSTREAM MEDIA, SOMETIMES IN FACT INSISTING AND REPEATING THE OPPOSITE (like the BBC and to my knowledge all others major media institutions very own practice, so much for the 4th power, estate, and 4th branch of the government), THUS MAKING BELIEVE TO THE HUGE MAJORITY OF THE POPULATION THAT IN FACT THOSE GROUPS HAVE PEACEFUL INTENTS AND WELL-FOUNDED DOCTRINES, WHILE ANY DEBUTANTS AT IT, IF SERIOUSLY RESEARCHING, WOULD KNOW IT IS ONLY DECEPTIVE.

Cannot hyperlink because was on the radio, but worthy item by the BBC to which I will refer here because while censorship of all informal (all blogs and videos) and artistic western sources is taking place and that the main media does not talk directly about it, many blogs and alternative posts have been made about it (perhaps mainly by people having lived in China- in the past since now blogging for west (only possible with the help of software bypassing the Great Firewall of China) from china will be regarded as a criminal offence. However, the BBC (updated and ground-breaking- it happens) is the only one that I know that talked about how internet choices and activities made by their citizens are stored by the government and how it affects (positively or negatively) their welfare states, perspectives of jobs, of becoming civil servants, or benefiting from states services (in some part of China people cannot afford for their ID and multiple certificate applications), if state thinks that the citizens ticked the ‘wrong’ or the ‘right’ options.

Though, God knows the relief brought to some people on the perspective to be taken by China, as a worker, and as one that does not have – until proven guilty- to say they’ d bend to allah.

I am not pro-Jewish, simply because all religions are based on race, etc. discrimination. They all follow discriminatory tenets, have a restricted view on how to believe to god, when it comes to their general assertion, even though of course you have got to manage to discuss with some lauding the universal. And that they will follow on top of all that, blood lines at not or at discretion. fool folio follow.

But I don't forget that jews alongside gays and gypsies, have been in train and in extermination camps, while white think themselves as the master of psychology, philosophy and all other matters and masteries. Whites and all other colors, human degeneration simply.

And that Israel is a in fact state-tampons, and islam, contrarily to political overt parasitic states like we know many, them pace down themselves on slavery ownership and pedophilia. So actually, in this furiously fake sad and terminally sick context, I am pro-jew, oui.

If you wish look at this soup but it is just not convincing. It is the unbearable approach of a government covering for scandals such as Saville, P.I.E, absence of intervention by police and social services allowing teenagers grooming, and the fact that the UK is one of the best countries to grow human trafficking, the very recent release of public enemy number 1 such as Worboy, by judges still rom roaming the streets.

It has been a battle to adopt mimo, I can only wonder why people were not responding. maybe because I told them I was a walker, occasional boarder, and mimo was wild. but no one told me that, I had to reach the boss instead of the volunteer for her to be sent to me. it took 2 months of unanswered emails. and my dog was still there waiting for an adopter...

But my presumption and the why I was ferociously trying to adopt her at the end, I had the feeling that she could be kept for the rescue center, because she is motherly, even if she does not how to do it, wild but also protective and adorable. I was afraid she was used to amuse the dogs, but there I think it is too lawless to be enjoyable or even decent.

About the green wishes signatures on email, used to come with an icon, but I removed it as it was political. I don’t meet French here, I avoided purposefully, but it was a French failed date who gave me the idea. In fact it is why I dropped the icon because she wrote a book about green, environmental ideas, but the philosophy behind was to do your little things without imposing policy, and god knows that cannot work. (Recycling my little plastic, because they don’t have space to bury it globally, and take tens planes instead because anyhow there is no more affordable trains) environmentalists sometimes are at the heart of anti-environmentalist project. Ours in French not bar but bears.

Ears. Era.

But what can be said of our home, since nature has been brought to its threshold.

Also I love the fact that French allows generalist training in high school we desperately need people who are generalists, but this system send to the bin ep people who have done well being specialized from the beginning. I never had my bac a l aureate, my math was too far gone, though I wish I had worked on them, but the result is that the language I so cherished innerly almost as I did not understand I needed to do my homework at the times, though words have always been my favorite very breathing. – I no longer could study. Nothing.

General, gene.

Math, myth.

Favorite, favor. Voir.

Void, over, seed.

Deeds.

Portraited as nonsense poem just because the animal writes and thinks poetry.

I admit it is a very comical situation, as I keep on reading that this poem is nonsensical while I think the text is in its purpose or maybe end, highly philosophical or spiritual. I think it is a poem poetic in itself as it duly renders to the weasel their psychological dimensions and character.

For the rhythm and rhyme to marry I would I hope found something more dancing but I would have had to let the rhyme and rhythm sojourn in my head for a long while... and it was tempting. It is indeed my problem with a text I love, it could stay in me forever if I allow it. And ask for more. Eating probably.

For only, I came to me just at the end, not compulsory like, but since there is a question of gender, I thought I could transform it, giving it a lift as a cautionary tale.

ON HAVING BEEN ‘MODERATED’ AS I HINTED AT BREXIT, IN A COMPLETE INNOCENT WAY, FOR ONCE, ON A PROFESSIONAL FORUM GROUPING FRENCH AND BRITISH AS A THEME.

No it is not violent to use you as food, and sometimes it is so good. i will be very cliche but so much for the trickle down.

Dear deer, for French nationals living in the uk at the moment i think that they won’t have any trouble identifying what the concerns might be. it was not my intention to speak in code, it is was an ad hoc comment on the fishing policies (and namingly the hunting and agro-business -food industry) that have often been at the center of euroscepticism. a bit blurry, i know this just because of a lecture by a doc that i happened to have attended. as for the passage on violence, it was in response to the post that says that killing and eating animal is not violent. so i am SO absolutely sorry.

WELL I WAS IN SHOCKED BY THE REACTION OF THIS WOMAN, BUT THEN AFTER I UNDERSTOODE, HOW FROM A NORMAL THREAD YOU CAN I FACT GETTING THREAT BY A ‘MODERATOR’.

BECAUSE OF COURSE, HINTING AT BREXIT, WAS HINTING AT HOW PEOPLE THAT HAD BEEN WELCOMED MAKING THEIR LIVES IN A COUNTRY FOR 2 DECADES OR ALMOST FOR SOME. LEAVING EVERYTHING BEHIND (BUT YOU KNOW BETWEEN US, A COUPLE OF YEAR WOULD HAVE SUFFICED, TO SEE HOW UNSUBSTAINABLE SERVICING, SERVANTING, SUPPLEMENTING WILL BE.

Eat veg, you know i am from the countryside, i know how the farmers and the hunters and all the guys from the town just kill the countryside, so much so that it is only roads, no hays, no wood, so much so that it is no countryside anylonger. And of course, the veg are alive too, and it is to this world to manage to eat, to live without killing, without creating suffering, without letting them happen again and again, and just justify them or not Acknowledging them. A world where people breed creature, feed them, and their children to kill them after. A fucking daily dirty filthy meat mentally sicko. Hell from nowhere, it is where. We go.

In reality, in this realm, dogs are very healthy vegetarian too. Not even need to study and create for the canine, and vulpine. The cue, if they can...we can too. Have to.

AS usual the BBC, and the rest, will tackle a subject given looming headlines at best like here, but as almost always just talking about issues 30 years old, and this way give the false impression that subjects are tackle without a say. I mean ok, recent very good BBC reports on Chinese censorship, could come from their having censored themselves there, in Honk-Kong, but who told you that Muslim if following the life style of their prophet will have to torture, rape and killed, well once they are the sultans in a swing.

It is just like May saying that they are concerned for the death in the blaze in the London borough provoked by unfitted buildings, under the supervision of millionaire bosses or managers imbeciles. They did not say we will chase, and punish people building death traps for others, they did not say that they will inspect other construct (construe) cons’truth.

Not in fact in the uk, and hence certainly in many other countries, since any how it is lethal (let that) capitalism that is the leader (lard) of today’s policy, every one who knows how affairs and maters of life and business are managed, by all these blue prints managers that are represented (tat) by the politicians, who do not represent the people but I (them) the dishonest people and the way the country is misled- all examples of speech of how it is allowed in fact dictated on how you have to deal and mistreat customers, col-leagues, trainees, senior, juniors, qualified, newcomers, experts, whistleblowers and fired and firms.

The Nobel Prize in Literature will not be awarded this year.

No 2018 Nobel Prize in Literature, Panel Says Amid Sex Scandal

STOCKHOLM — The Swedish panel that awards the Nobel Prize in Literature said on Friday that it would take the extraordinary step of not naming a laureate this year — not because of a shortage of deserving writers, but because of the infighting and public outrage that have engulfed the group over a sexual abuse scandal.

C.E.T: while they fuck each other up, no awards for the rest of them or of us. What’ s the question. Is it completely am mad, or is it just to say that the literature winner are from their band and therefore will be pushed and lightly punished the same?

Yes, Artemis, it was intriguing, I by default is for literary translation but on this occasion, the less one appealed more to me...probably very interesting to study the contrast between early and later translation compared with the original. maybe Camus lost its i don't know maybe childish, so simplistic way of losing oneself, or losing one's life to this earlier translation. The same richness (or lack of it, or just straight forward to their point or purpose) of vocabulary that may be contained in a file, or the documentation leading to the guillotine or the cemetery. I like Gilibert because of it bringing more sophisticated words and expressions to me.

Censorship had been taken to an altogether new level during Camus time, just out of the religious one (for Camus Christianity in France and Islam in Algeria- and the 2 decade-long post-colonial civil war in Algeria. Islamist states even today would put to death someone who goes against the Islamic scriptures, in fact the Sharia law in islamic countries or any other countries advocate death penalty for people opposing the Coran and Mohammed' life to be divine, Sharia laws who were applied even in the remote part of Algeria more and more during Camus' life time, whereas traditional rural Algeria did not use to be muslim at all until very recently, a few years perhaps- and in fact even now- at least in places like resisting kably or with real berbere people-. The German state (while famously europe is all governed by the whole same noble family from spain to norway- with for example the british crown being of german descent) had burnt thousands of books, and Europe was cooperating, France on the forefront, following the trend.

The shaman able to transform into another shape not because they can but by being into so much communion or complicity with the animals themselves that, the live separate but drawn by one spirit.

It also means that only virtuous people can do this, by virtuous, one that gives their lifes for nature to be safe. That is very few from now to the back or earlier age.

Since time immemorial have to be though again.

But the fight it is at an end.

The animals (and others) even if they could speak as clearly as our species, which would be weird because species develop their own means of communications, just like groups of people dvp their own language, would be killed as they are physically and as we kill our own spirits and divinity thinking we are the only ones to do the works.
I learnt hearing complicated english with tv subtitles. and they are always late, not synchronised. a change in color helps. me if i had not been able to learn with subtitles, my english would be half what it is today. plus i am deaf to some accents in particular. :(

I mean I guess it is politically correct as everyone wants you to speak with a certain accent, as if they were native, which well it is in the def, they will never be. for an international language it has been (for some, in fact a few) delightful, no worry.

The UN dictatorship and its fluidity.

Convention in translation: replacing regional language with alteration of the one mainstream (already very simplified, shortened, pruned...) language.

I would be worried that to adopt a differenciation from standard language instead of transposing it with the help of another regional accent, is more a political decision that it is an artistic one. In fact I admit I am confused on whether this decision is made because of political, linguistics, literary or artistic considerations. However overall the political correctedness has won, just because why if else, the standard would be to ignore regional accents as a convention.

On another hand, to create one's own language deviation, (when allowed?) must be so much fun.

Of course, the size of the audience using a standard language could be the reason of adopting it rather than regional ones. but in the example of the chti, I believe it is an exercice for the French to understand accents and expressions, or re-discover them while they have been made disappeared from their own country. Also, it could very interesting for the translators to mirror expressions that have been lost in even the french culture as a whole and to transmit their imageries and wisdom into Spanish like in this example.

Social dialects I think follow the same rule.

As it is clearly stipulated in the course, the big challenge is to understand what underpins this socio-economic cleavages. Also it is possible that standardization has been adopted in order to evade the responsibility of the translators to understand and transmit. or to
I am ok to give my opinion, but i want to stress that i know dogs just domestically. i am in no way a professional. I do not know about these questions. i am all for them keeping them intact, but the problem i see is that when a rush comes in nature, they have the wilderness to kick it out. they can start running for miles, I don't know migrate, play or just fight, etc... doing crazy things. and even then one cannot stop rapes, and killings. As domesticated animals, in homes, my opinion is that it is too much to take. not maybe for an isolated animal but for one who socialize. and of course, they need to socialise, but this side, A is very lucky, he has ted, a family, social walks. if A was my dog, what would worry me at the moment, is the fact that he does not come back to me when I call. just like axel the big shepherd I have. For both of them, when they do not come back, then i come where the dogs -they do not come back because they are showing up their strength and authority...or seductive potential- to the other dogs- are and take them back on the lead, that is at this point walk off lead is finished, and i keep it on the lead till the end...but yet again am not a trainer, i just trust their intelligence and obedience, wishing they understand it is not acceptable. also at times i ended up other dogs being in the same room as B, because it was visible that there was physical sexual happenings- an erection to be blunt. i would be worried for T. ben is massive, and it is very likely that ben won't really been able to control himself. and even if ted says to him no 20 times, when there is nowhere to flee or hide... having said that, I do not want to be for the castration if it is not needed, because there are too many times, I thought I knew about something and knew too little or too wrong. but I could separate ted and ben when i d be not here, count on a better recall, etc. so I’ ll give my opinion but not as his master. [as a master I would go for castration, my girls are cut, because i cannot cope with menstruation, but also because i do not them to risk becoming pregnant, dogs are killed by the thousands... but as his master I could ensure - if I could- that my dog listens to me even when he is not happy about another dog. This I cannot do, because B does not half trust me like he could trust me if I was his owner.

the reason I would go for a castration in any circumstances is that if I had to separate 2 large dogs, it is simply very very dangerous. I would castrate as soon as the dog gives clear sign of him wanting to fight. I think he might be difficult to see it in A, he is so big, that no dogs will stand up to him...until...

I don't think they are unhappy this way. the reason is, they still feel desire and are able to have sexual relationships. in another note, we killed the nature all around us, so we must be in the same situation, the equivalent of having been maimed. which is certainly not ideal... but i see it as birth control, and a diversion from the primal instinct of establishing a colony, etc.. . . i mean humans also needs birth control...and the other means haven't been made easy.

Sorry about this long note, I love my pets very much, and it is a difficult subject.

Just an update on my uncastrated dogs prejudiced, I looked after some who were very well-behaved, sexually as well as aggressively. Very well behaved, without any problems. Maybe still persisting situations is the sense that something is different, create interrogation within the pack.

I was about to say maybe more strong-headed, but I am sure again it is prejudice.

Just still avoiding situation where the dogs I look after enter fights, so avoiding having big dogs who do not know each other at the same time.

Do not have the skills to prevent a fight without being bitten particularly with bigger dogs.

On the observed.

It takes many a time to understand surroundings. As a drama not only unfolding but re-explaining itself. Our thoughts, could them exist as our being or our becoming, belonging, long time longing. One will see a part of the actors, the second will hear their past, the third, their thoughts or their cries, the fourth, their verves and lamentations, oral, shadowed, trembling of cold, fear, inner, outer innervation or incitation, their future condoned consolation. Or like a French author said, of a past in front of you, and a happy future behind.

Be on belong, be trail,
Over and end a hen.

And if our tastes for drugs and whatever crave or carve our bodies through consumption was led by this acid that is missing to spur us out of action. To smoke the dead or spring new flesh on dew such as a zest of citron.

It took many months with my dog for my body to understand that one of this shape could be truly one of mine.

Like the act of adoption or to make one’s suffices entirely to make a line.

For correction, the will of people not wanting to socialise must be respected, equally; but for when I am under, I care obviously. Also I know I owe an apology- and reparation eventually. So sorry.

No that I know, I respect you very much, and I think I did not fail to not convey it. but basically, I d like my file to be clear, and maybe cease to systematically pass as the mental diseased at best at uni.
Also I don’t like sociolising, because I think that society is dangerous and too self-satisfied with their own record.

So I do something else when I attempt to make a difference for others or for myself. also I don’t like sociolising, because I think that society is dangerous and too self satisfied with their own record.

So I do something else when I attempt to make a difference for others or for myself. but that I write only because you were intelligent and sensitive enough to let me with a way of letting out a little bit. well a fair bit, a really fair bit.
it is not easy to be fair, in fact it is quite extraordinary.
So I am not gonna say sorry to you, but I am gonna say thank you. well of what?
anyhow we only know people when plunging into the adversity. and big stresses or more, only make the soul wondering what good are we worth after all weighted.
I hope I would react fine, even though surprise and struggles take the best or the worst of me and of this planet next to be immersed in all her predatory misery.

Miserabilism or nihilism refusal.
Refuse, and so our way to parady.

Not time for you to play cleverer.

Some scientists believe that everything can be explained without speaking of a diving. Divine.
But if even that was true, who or what would reveal to plunderers like those same ones.
A bunch of people that just organs orgain organised themselves around conducting experiments. torturing, what's why they denature everything. they are the gods and that’s it. who could blame them, it is what religious sects all is saying- slaying. to reproduce.
Organ, or-gain, ordain.

You mean 'je pense donc je....

Here some of my content, I am 'lobbying' (just sending the letter) to parliamentary, journalists, professionals, and everyone I can. It is condemned now by the law anti-spam but surely pedophilia and slavery possibly institutionalisable into anywhere, as protected by international laws on the rights of religious believes should be the concern of everybody. There is no front.

She would have been assessed as autistic, just the way in institution, no one speaks to autistic people normally, saying they have complex or pluri disability, even though autistic people are in the range of mental particularity having been to prove that they have a normal IQ, when not superior one.

I’d like gardens even better, but one will tend to ask gardeners to root out plants, etc... it might be a destructive activity, it is why i would avoid it, how paradoxical, to say the least.

Les machistes ne meritent pas la féminité.

No, but without taking her. because you know even if An was the best master and could take her with him at work, does he now? Basically she will lose her family, you know you are her mum too. but what you could manage to do, if An reacts with intelligence - I know it feels lonely without a dog, but he would still have J part-time or more, and then it is so cool to be on one's own too.

You could take J part-time, sometimes, holidays, or more.... there is one thing I know is that if she loses you, I guess or you or An but mostly the one who will stay with E, she will be heartbroken till the end of her life, it is inevitable.

The problem is that if you have problem between you, then it will impact on jess. you know whose dog is it? you take her only when it arranges you.....!!! drama. But I am sure that if you do not manage to take J now and then on holiday, her heart will be broken. literally. You know animals think a lot, they also have a lot of spare time to do so. she will think about sadness only, nostalgia, what you do, why she is not there, where s the bond, why she can't see you.... She is sensitive, J is particularly sensitive- you can see in her eyes the way they come to live, also she is still young, and she had for mission to be with a little boy and a family life, so busy, etc, etc.... you who are i am sure taking her into respect and you know true consideration. like a complete being, it is not every body who is able to do so. or able yes, but doing so, no. it is so easy and an entertaining and exciting pass-time

- unfortunately nothing that has stayed in the past, horrors are convenient and undeterred are their doers, to dismiss their being equals.

In term of health and care, the amount of money the state spent on agency for people not able to deliver one the job is stunning. I saw kids whose care plans cost millions of pounds of staff and building, with them resulting in absconsing, doing drugs from 12, never do homework, housework. not going to college..... etc, etc, etc. With one to one staff thing, I thought for years that I was hallucinating. You know taking non native speakers work a lot at the lower scale because it is such a cultural shock and also the staff take abuses, not only directed at them personally, but at their functions, mainly doing nothing, take no responsibility, see gangs forming, while sponsoring it, because the only thing that is left to them is to perfect vocabulary, slang, and accent.

Sponsor spoon,

Fuck sucking functioning.

Studying rare diseases will be keys to great discovery, without a doubt, as long as we don’t engineer them...

Deadly respiratory diseases due to air pollution cannot stop rising.

When you had close to nothing, you can understand why and how some people may in all piousity to decide and throw themselves, launch as well, into a cause, that is able some other ideals convey.

But then there are these ep people who have been completely disposed, dispossessed, and there are these people who have less than the nothing, no one else can hardly, and at all imagine.

I am though wondering whether the anti-Jew attitude might be a residue of an antic American attitude who since 2017 very much officially while having spent years menacing the whole world through their presidencies, just rationalise it.

The jacket, padding shoulders, make them all look so coquette.

Nearly as important as good insoles and shoes.

I am very homely. I stopped wearing slippers at home, as I have a fascia from having walked miles and days after my boots had become super comfortable, but too wide to really be closed to my feet. now at home i wear shoes that I only wear inside. particularly warm slippers tend not to support the arch or the sole at all. Plantar fasciitis might give you an inflammatory sensation during whole father, would do gout, it is like my feet, I don't know how to describe. It is a fire, stabbing inflamed sensation most say.

- ‘As animals move up the evolutionary ladder’

They have bu like people have managed to spurn autistic even dumb ep people for e centuries, so they do with animals.
Should they prove it, the animals, they would be experimented on, exploited or killed.
Dies, dei.

Humans are searching for life outside the solar system, also because they cannot understand, or will not, maybe shall not, that they grossly confounded what they called inanimate (in-animate or un-animate) with lifeless. A planet is an entity (titi) and is alive.
There cannot be a lifeless planet for example.

All these of an old age wisdom are in the animals, the vegetal, the fungal and mineral mind.
So then the humans will think but that’s ok we will put electric readers onto and into bitches’ brains to rake and drain.
Humans as a society, as this society, would make yourself believe that you would need to say. But you cannot discover the truth and the marvel of life if you torture, even when without too much say, or neglect or defect. Or...
Humans is about to be dis-crowned.

People mock or wonder about how dumb might be an animal who lives with human not understanding they will be killed in time.

But do humans realise how they participate to this slug slaughter???

MAYBE.

The funniest obviously is they don’t how they will be it.

Every thing goes circle.

It is a question of time and species, space, not only time, as when one wants to explain time, it has to go with rhythm and move. A trip, a travel, oscillating in the matter that surrounds-hour.

And this exemplifying what all that human being (hb), did not understand nor respect. Thinking there were only what they can eat that were alive, and eating them all the same.

What motivated my decision is that the ability to speak has historically and presently being taken into account in the granting of legal rights. If nature needs a representative to articulate its rights, one of the most notable injustice of the psychiatric and legal world had been to consider the inability of people to speak as evidence of their mental and intellectual disabilities (Colley, 1999) (Harvey, 1857) (Crowley, 2018), these scientific or medical assessments in turn instrumentalised in determining their diminished legal status.

Amusingly enough it is recommended universally to pay a lawyer to be represented anyway.

As who can equally articulate before the at artifice of justice, often proud to be mafia and capitalist.

A triumvirate (Latin: triumvirātus) is a political regime ruled or dominated by three powerful individuals known as triumvirs (Latin: triumviri).

I thought of becoming full time student in case of problem during brexit, but full-time student, frankly I can’t do it.

Part time job, part time study ok. Even if job is busy, busier than part time, but full-time study, for me it is no. My digesting system is not endemically so tenderly standardised, my banker’s is. What a fail.

Digestion issue for the unpalatable. Implant, impale.

Vegetarian but eating fish and chicken, they cannot feel any pain! and what about the horror?

It would be good if one could be mum, no numb from the stupidity of those who slaughter.
With Buddhism as with Hinduism, some people eat meat, some types of ‘meat’. Basically they are also meat eaters, only some are vegetarians, depending their schools or temples. I think Gujarati people are likely to be vegetarians. The shaolin are vegetarians.

If you ask me ‘meat’ is there used to give a certain sense of dignity that they don't have. (not the slaughtered animal ending on a plate- poor dear, again for them according to human psychology), but the whole industry. words are sometimes used to stop us thinking properly. above all the ones of tradition, when people w(h)ere or dying at 30 years old max or rich enough to have all farms and what was inhabiting it.

In terms of Brexit, sometimes often, bbc does not say much about things, but bbc 4 at least has a whole program a month about gambling addictions taken to a severe level of oblivion in the uk.

As for the backstop and the border of Ireland, surely the uk would not consider becoming a back door to any traffic, the north Korea or other terrorism linked.

Translations studies often would say that one has to satisfy what the target audience, i.e. the potential readers of a translation, know already. Like if these people could not do with receiving alternative meaning, or occurrences from other cultures, or like if a few words and notes was too difficult to handle compare with the rest of us who tried to be bilingual or several other languages in order to have a peek to the rest of the world. We are regented by f-akes, fi-ends and f-oes.

Am looking for a video about how china government grant points to their citizens according to their behaviors and allegiance to the party, point having a consequence, huge consequence on how they can thrive in their career or private life. has been done by the BBC by a german french tv, but none are stil.

if one needed one more example on how republicans stop giro and fire, they cut the trees and render a forest, soilless, bushless, soulless lair.

It is not even politic that, it is apocalyptic.

Ok, gosh, I wished I have known this before, I stopped all trade when I realized I was not licensed and supposed to, I have lost all my hard-gained customers. Thank you for this precious info.
The council suspended the license 6 month for a union and corporations completely and compel compellingly invalid reason. I had to complain they finally granted me the license after this first inspector who literally came to my home with the most insulting behavior, I am clearly minority people. not very white, not specific ethnic origin and gay as they come. This first inspector made me buy a lot of things before laughing at me and did not grant me the license. I saw a lot in my life but I did not know that kind of behavior could take place in the uk 2016. They finally granted me with the license just like this, when this person was out of the way, 6 months hours of covering my ponds, and hundreds of pounds down the drain, of things she asked me to buy and I did not need, not practically and never legally. I will avoid report it, because it would complain to the people who are assessing me, and I admit after that, they have been good to me...thank you for your help.
I just hope they realise and take action against that person. I was really afraid, cannot said it never happened to me, but this degree of hate and prejudice totally open in an inspector!! It is worth the judge series on the tv, really handy.

Just to say, it is good to know particularly for the food bills and also sometimes above all veterinary bills. small animals are just super company, I think people do not have them so often, for the kind of incontinence problem and also since they are less independent because of this, the spontaneous cuddle goes less easily. but a dog or a cat- any inter-species in fact, would have no problem being best mate with a gerbil, or 2. They are small animal rescues for animals, and also you can leave them overnight this is not a problem, I think there is water dispenser working. I could even take them for free here if you were to go more than it is possible to leave them. I am not sure but I guess even with a good dispenser, maybe no longer than a long weekend. just an idea. have a very nice month. i am just fascinated by birds, they watch tv all the time, some species, I’d guess most, their sight is so amazing. their visual intelligence, I can understand and witness all the time, is just so revolutionary, for a human being that never understood anything but its own breathing rather than awe awareness account, they have heard of it.

Food poisoning recurrent in china, industrial level. This is accounting for part of the population that are very poor and live on tipping sites, as the party does not even find the duty to pick the refuse. It is not from nowhere, even with a good salary it is difficult to afford veg that are not rotten in china and the rest. I also find curious that in china every drink you can find is all with sugar no diet drink there, if you want a fizzy thing that is not water (and in china you have to boil tap water before being able to drink it) you’ll have to take 50 calories sugar a glass or more. In europe it was very well know that states wanted people to smoke to avoid pensions and difficulties in managing an ageing population.
It’d be super if you could post the references, it is very hard to find mass media links to these horrific deeds.

It is so true what you said. for france exactly the same, before charlie hebdo attacks, they had been so many times targeted with the mass media half of the time mocking charlie hebdo treating them like arrivists and upstarts!!! For a enrolled mind to this ideology it was the clear green lights to their butchery......This is so disgusting, did you know that germany was hand to hand with the ottoman empire and that there are branchs of islam idolizing hitler. A sign.

People buy things from the street, because yellow pages or directories do not exist in communist china. Also quarters are dedicated to a specific products. So, in some districts you will find thousands of electronic, or in a different quarter thousands of cars, or doctors.... but nothing else in proper shops (only the same specific types of items again and again- that for the middle class that can afford it, workers cannot afford any of it- so to buy essentials they have to be street elected, the stales... and only normal that it is completely irregulated market very hard conditions, very little money, harsh competition...

They are arranged like fishermen villages or harbor with the market place all along the main street all day and year long, it is very nice of course in a way. It is lively and maybe this way people can still earn a little.

Buy,

But,

But = aim, goal in French.
About inserting the all-powerful and all-pervasive Latin here, I was wondering if Latin could have a special connotation since it is Stonehenge and that I think there is a very heavy history about the druids, the romans and the Christians for sure. I am not knowledgeable in the matter but since druids have been persecuted by some, could Latin be an issue in this very specific place. What do you think? Any Wicca reading it?

There is some literature about the animals, native animals or nature around directly inspiring the language, and a lot is transparent in English, twits, wolves, roar, etc, onomatopoeia, and many more but I forgot. It is a real treat to read about these, many, many of these.

I think it is almost an international appeal this reminder on the Roe Deer. I was thinking of the deer also as a first concern. Maybe I would not treat it differently because still thanks maybe to Santa Clause it is still a very well-known species. It is possible for a very lucky French person to have come across with deer in rather vast forests or domains in France. Those, some of those are still regional domains and not all are private, so you can just park (without being a member of the royal protection of birds, etc). I have no clues if it is all over England but the places I visited are with very narrow roads and parking is a massive issue. Mind when today you heard about how people have been trashing the Everest mount with rubbish so much so that the Chinese authorities has closed the path. Meaning now that one will have to very close to the party to be able to access it...

To come back to the deer, I think yes it is definitely British heritage, in that, they are all around London in the royal parks, and they would not be culled in these same parks twice a year with parks that are rather depleted of bushes (maybe someone came with the idea of cutting the undergrowth, the homes of animals, and raking the floor- fire or arson being a possibility- irony-), it would be hugely awesome to have them there.

There, their.

Very sorry about goûter, I did not mean to use it, it is true it is gout, I was swearing that one could say goûté, checked on line could not find it. I was born and bread (bred actually) French until I came here, but I guess now, that the mistake might come from mixing things up with bouquet, this or this is a joke I heard many times when I was a kid and assumed it was correct. It is when I taught French to non-native speakers that I realised that in fact I was not talking French but only the French specific to the regions I lived in, of the people I was with, be them friends or colleagues or family, etc. That is a very small number of people and situations, or TV or radio programs and books that I had come across with.

Defo, the ingredients in brackets, is so appetizing, parsley onion, the (farce). I will admit to you, if I had to translate a dish meat based I would not list the ingredients, out of sheer horror and utter repugnance. At the end of my career in care I stopped taking jobs that had something to do with meat, so I would do the same with translations. With translations it is ok, with care it is really difficult. amusing that.

Let’s not call it revealing.

Ok, one of the things that shocked me the most when I did my dissertation while trying to find relevant very very serious documents and primarily texts on governmental and inter-governmental websites was the proportion of links that would find themselves indefinitely broken. Without even the possibility of retrieving the original documents and sometimes nothing that had to do with them in the archives.

It still makes me deeply wonders though apathy won over.
L’ABATTOIR D’ALÈS

Abattoir made in France - Alès (English subtitles)

Des peines encourues dérisoires
La peine maximale ici encourue pour plus de 60 infractions est de 6 000 €... Tellement peu au regard des souffrances supplémentaires endurées par les animaux dans ces lieux déjà violents et cruels par essence. Peut-on imaginer que cette sanction dissuadera les abattoirs d’enfreindre la réglementation ?

C.ET: SHORT TRANSLATION : AFTER THIS ORGANISATION REVEALING, 60 ILLEGAL ACTS BY ALL PROFESSIONALS, DIRECTORS, EMPLOYEES, VETS!!! MAXIMUM FOR ALL OF THEM FINES OF 6000 EUROS.

This is the case, what procurers think they have to do, in general. No wonder about how well Vichy could have thriven. (with English whose royals are of german origin, and the german that have been historically in pairs with the ottoman empire, and some branches now of islam that are pro-nazis) they were right the risk is that no more wars after that, is it a risk though, nature would say differently as ultimately the human plots is to leave her a barren stone, if any.

TO ANSWER a famous French songwriter: no, this human world is nothing near serious.

So many thumb downs, c est ces gens sont tellement degueulasses, que ce ne sont meme plus des gens, pourquoi? ca profite.
Before, without her, I saw my life like death. Now death is the smile in which I would find her like the sun is Ra.

Mile is in the sequence and the essence of the travel.

Homeless, without address.

TRAVELLERS PEOPLE.

In another way, 'sans domicile fixe' means for most people, people in danger of living or living in the street, while administratively everything has been done to condemn life style such as travelers, etc. not having a fixed address, a permanent residency is totally condemning while it could have been dealt or dealt very differently.

I say that because it is the appellation 'sans domicile fixe'. And this means that the society, today, will make life impossible for you. What do I think of 'gens du voyage'? They are people. What else I think of it, is that it is a way of life that will be proscribed by the good god not Poseidon but possession. Also it will kill arts and craft from traveling. or people from instructing...as long as people respect the land they go into and that sedentary people do the same thing. but the truth, it is not about that. there are no lands left anyhow. the forests are gone, the animals are very very seldom (serfdom) -life - vegan- and by the way homeless, there is no life possible without woods, bushes, undergrowth, unpolluted air and streams, what is to see, is dying land, suffering lots exploited and concretised is what is left. travelling now to see is the voyeurism of how people, humans are godless. And I am not talking about how they manage it now.

Travelling for leisure is now to see is the voyeurism on death.

Also what i think is that people have recognised a little what happened to the jews sent from every corner of europe into concentration camps. while religions have their agenda of their own and very often organised society in which their members will be treated with privileges (i mean by that, while your peer human is regarded and considered with all the almighty random thoughts of dominance and inferiority).

Commemorations for the gypsies, homosexuals- orientation, but homosexuality is present in all societies- and all other classifications- that could unfortunately like religion end up being ‘politicised’ in the view of being at the origin of unjust treatment-, and for the other targets of nazi ideologies have been famously and are still now absent from the perpetrators -collaborators included- commemorative activities.

Anyone who does not understand that ‘racism’ or ‘ethnicism’ of its real name does not work in every direction is immature or has not suffered that intensely. If unaware of it. Or has just been so inner battered that they would not recognized it as biased.

Battered, or to make suffer inside or outwardly to make sure no development occurred.

Pep people call prostitution what is in reality the worst imprisoning and crimes against humanity. As prostitution is accepted.
Rehearsal, here hear sale: Smug faces, parrot like repetition, and incoherence explained.

This BUNCH hilariously jesting on democracy and the will of people that are once pull forward (not when (ex) education become or remain unaffordable- no, that won’t disturb or disrupt the lords). No one is for any split second of a ram -random- remain and except because they are not politicians in web minister but just forgers why????

Because WE ARE WITNESSING THE ONGOING NOT BATTLE BUT ORDELY COHESION OF A PARLIAMENT THAT BY A REFERENDUM STARTED THE PROCESS OF GIVING MORE AND MORE POWER TO ITSELF. POWER, SOME OF IT, AND THE LEGITIMATE ONE THAT TRY TO PROTECT FOR EXAMPLE GOVERNMENT TO ALLOW INSECTICIDES DECIMATING THE BEES LIKE ENGLAND HAS DONE, LEGITIMATE, WHEN IT WAS, A POWER IN ANY CASE HAD BEEN DEVOLVED TO EUROPE-THE REGION. AND NOW EXIT FROM IT MEANS BLUNTLY THAT THIS POWER WILL COME BACK TO WHOM??? NOT THE EUROPEAN MP A LOT TRYING TO BREAK EUROPE OR BRINGING BACK THE AXIS BUT TO THE PARLIAMENT- themselves now sole guarantor, defender and definer of their own cor-o-nation, (and s.audi collaboration explained sharia law all over the outlet and outland England as it stays while and after shatting wales and Scotland, what will be left? The commoner wealth) TO THEIR LOCAL GOVERNMENTS WHERE THEMSELVES AND FRIENDS WILL BE SO QUIET TO FAKE, TAKE Ache is a word of the past, as the past has some horizon. Heck-lures.

For just one in brakets: one can go on, on and on, against ill islam and its sharia, pedophilia, slavery, that is thin and think inner to it. But for the moment the ones who permits sharia law in England are not the millions of muslims preaching that their prophet is that ignominy on themselves. Not stopping the ONES responsible – the non-muslims allowing that- for that while increasing islamophobia, while islam could soon become compulsory for the rest of it is what?? Nazis and castrated (of which I am, enable to do one single thing against the plague of child marriages to list again that one, and on which they are right, it is not pedophilia it is worse than that, pedophilia can be stopped and cure, and disarmed not one cult combining millions that are respected and in power and expanding in all manners on top of that- soringly sorry but I am not the one venerating a pedo and sex slave owner being adorated by millions and protected by billions by what people self-called tolerant instead of scelerat (French for polluted, soiled, miserable, petty, ignorant, pervert, weak, lurid, rogue coming criminals.)

All about terrorism yes because, contrarily to the definition of terrorism, what they do is sponsored terror that is states organised.

Why does ‘decisions’, incisions making (deck dis) sometimes take so long, for the MPs to understand where lie their profits, nothing ever to do with human rights, democracy and them to be served and serving.

‘Naming things gives us power over them.’

Anon.

Or does it?

Humanity thinks it has defined it.

The proof of it not thinking.

It was a story extremely traumatizing and shameful for me, because I neglected and lost control of something extremely important to me, because this project was taking all the time I had. This project that reveals itself to have been launched un seriously. That was doomed to fail, that did not unfortunately last. That caused me, caused me but entirely by my own fault, greed and stupidity, to my horror, to not have been able even to think, to solve, to find, to love. To save. In fact I did let death kill this little dog. I killed him.

I do come upon words that hid the devil leading to that.

Unfortunately, or not, the project success or failure would not have changed anything, though the secret that on that light the kindest say is that my life is naught.
I cannot remember clearly what I felt, but an horror a deadly one on my subject, on my subset. But this is now knowledge e certainly that I elude mostly but when reappearing really, there is nothing more that I envy. Repair can’t be and my brain switched off to show how my being will follow suit definitely.

Just as an answer, thank you for the discount, it makes it possible for me to go on booking with you. But while i am sure people would have considered you first because the fees were on the customers' sides, and make them realize that the amount is for the carers, for the vet and ads. more than 15 percent will decide service providers to opt for other agencies now. personally, the moment it is over 15 %, even if i know it probably would not work, i would try to launch my own publicity as 15 % is already an excruciating fee.

In france the big scandal is that i think since napoleon, the farmers had to leave tracks for people to be able to circulate through the countryside. almost all of these tracks have been swallowed by farming and no one can do more than a few hundred meters at best because of illegal fencing. this your mairie should know, maybe you can use this. maybe there is no need to create tracks as the ones existing had been illegally taken away.

It is good to follow the light of the day for sleeping. let's hope for the tracks though, I stopped cycling in London for fear people would start bumping into cyclists by play. and it is so dangerous without that. one cannot cycle on the borders of the roads that are dilapidated with holes all over and cars that push and speed, and the bends without any visibility. but i know what you mean, my dream would be to have a home without anything around it. and when i say anything is no trace of 'civilisation'. more and more a dream.

I wonder whether instinct does not revolve around death. Death speaking, death warmed up or warning, running, moving of sorts.

Censorship master.
Pedophilia conducted on the millions of people scale through the life of Mohammed the prophet of Islam, piss upon him, horrify me more. And it should the elites of political culture as I guess they know about this prophet of which they welcome the worship, is a life of slavery maker, owners and worse even -or equal because it is hard to do better than sex slavery admittedly- deeds.

Towards the homogenization of the cultures or rather the hegemony of the ones that are self-serving and adapt to whatever just to eat, drink, slave, rite, and riot notwise notwithstanding.

You just or they just has to say for you: similarity the women always has been low and with them the homos. And that is it, you have a common enemy. Homophobia and misogyny.

Immigration is good, from the pint pin point oint of view of the sadist, that you call on slaves or grey matter, brought up by others. That you will create utter poverty for. Is savy, no more to say than this. It is an inert intern -ash ion all elites and their fleas conspiracy. Flee. But where. Revolt but whom -womb- and against what and how? Without in not many days no food.

Agree with you, there is however something that worries me. It is the religion or ideology race. No one of them doing nothing towards being good to nature and to life, but into establishing itself in order to take slaves or servants of others. I am not Jews and I do not know if it is really representative but for example for the Jews I am shocked at Jewish people seeing themselves as the priests of the world, and not allowing conversion to their faith at the same time. at the inner belief of the jewish based on sacrifices...we are in a race for slavery and serfage. nothing to do with religion or spirituality. of which it should feel well humble the one thinking that the cosmos is written on pages they themselves can read and go and kill for laugh out loud. shalom.

To emergently say, the new inquisition could come from where unexpected for still the major majority. To research more but I found Islamic sites prohibiting witchcraft, i.e. druids, again, any other rites, trad and rites and wed, and the gypsies. For their eyes on india that will also come handy. And half of the thousands miles around Germany- well la boheme.

WHY do they say it is a miracle animals talking these species so original?

Because no one listens, you want people and animals animate miracles for you? First step: stop kill them. or else, it is a special miracle you will have to witness. I guess.

Jew, non jews saved, that would be pure racism, would it not be? i get now how religions, same with everything up to the hindus that think of castes and special reincarnation, that think that the soul old, sold, would not choose an animal to come back to purity. religions are the thought man is god, amongst and above all. it is why here they made hell come true. be careful not to inspire so aryan filthy filial or of that thread and trade philosophy.

The ones that claim to be against cherry Charlie Hebdo, contribute to assassination, and not only of them, but on all people (not peoples- countries are to subservient to aspire to this idea) that want to live.

Human with choice that eat animals in all conscience or are ignorant, and nowhere is to be seen nature around them, or is so superficial that they won't mind other humans killed the same, or do it in full conscience and are satanic and therefore soon to be said, laid and slain.

And if or when waned nature is not to be seen, it is because humanity has been pushed further down proudlying, proding paradise lost. The end of their purgatory.

And od not think of buying places in Tibet or rebuying it, humanity is unity.

With the animal reign (neigh for the noble, the conquest of horse has ended, no roads is long enough or fear of trafficking) and all oath others she can, she has seen. Scene, sceau (sea-l) seat, see eerie.
Stretching is super important, but also ample moves, rotations, you know like cardio. make the articulations work. but with sports is what one loves, the rest is too boring. limbs and joint moves, should or are done with every sport, they are just moves to allow your body to go on, and get united or untied.

Shoulders i have been told is the most complex joint in the body. many times, of moves they can do, at different degree. Plus, near the head, the neck and throat, near the cardiac, diaphragm and respiratory system. all the upper back. take care of them. :)

I so don’t do it, and ache that only writing about it, mentioning it...hopefully have some effects.

I am vegan, but still gets a, the hellish problem- plants are sentient.

Who is the anti-christ?

(not saying that in Christianity, anti-christ the first one was peter, pope of the popes).

C.ET: I have no idea who think that or say they see it coming, but here.

Clearly to identify as muslims, Christians and jews, all abrahmaic is to say war is on earth, and they don’t even talk about the hindus, boudhists and non-monotheist thinkers or thinking thinner

Just to say since jesus christ was before christianity, in the logics of line, who believes in a return, announced that it will be at its ends of hegemony for a restricted idea of an universe that people seriously sees as barbed, bearded.

Religions are specist. They give humanity at the center, when it is not, not taking account of other creations, only to eat them or enslave them, standing for what they would do to other species, to extraterriality but also to their own.
At least how it is mainly practiced, religion?
Extraterrial, supernatural or magic. But notwithstanding what humans do not know because they destroy instead of caring.
Of course humans and other species alike, we are in the same monde.

Just occurred (ochre) to me, these people who lives hundreds of years. Could not they be family name instead of one person only, families, schools, or temples?

Yes religion, spiritism will cm come back into mainstream discussions, into unveiled reve = dream revelation, not of higher sphere that no one can even see or regard as they banish themselves soiling the foundations. Will come back, as we will have to implore that this torture, this earth threat will be put to a stop rubbish litter is what will become our strand just like one eats become what it should not have hurt and revive death enchanting.

And people would use to travel the act of conversion. From a religious culture to another, when culture there had. As only marriage and cruel rules to beat up the members of one’s society while licking the others so silly, it means human aberration, that will allow them to forget they think they are god. So ok hilarious but however reduction.

The humans that think that they philosophise, but that only do is to speak a language that they happen to share from time to time jeers at animals they should have been despised by.

Poetry comes, when I first had a very rational thought, that I could not write, because of a lack of a paper, because I am tired, or to stirred still by the threat and thread of the discussion/discursion.
So then when I know that it was a idea and that I would rather writing it down, then the particular course it had taken is gone from the context and have to be reinscribed into sounds whose now wombs is the one of a brain that I have known too much connections that were redundant and worn it down, and too few of the though open (welcoming it like its child) ones it knows it should have wooed for unwind towards its soul.

To see what happens when the peste (not to confused with peseta) will understand that it let kill and kill itself its m-other, its kids, in the future, the past in all strand of time and that this space won’t be long before claiming, just howling, protection from ether, or either.
To almost damned oneself, save from knowing what a being could endure without its whole soul- or a worse version of that has to be seen- but that one who would think of dying not, but to lure one’s destiny, famously, no one can.
Just the prayers to wish to do better.
I wondered about why I had not tried to study literature. The answer for me came up when I read literary critics that were of excellent quality. I understood then that I did not understand the texts I read. Good literature is full of references and is, many academics, described narration as being like a thread. That is to say the writer choose one word and not another for a very strong reason and that will give the book its meaning, mystery, a symbolic system, a psychology, depths, wrought-textures and strength, etc…or alike to the creation of a skin, a content, contended, organs and finally a body, that can take life itself when articulated. In a text, when critics work they usually create echoes, linking everything they said about everything else pre or post suggestions.

It is when I understand I was not talented at it- it will generally ask from the ones who write or want to decipher a large and developed culture. Not necessarily through reading.

I do not think it is possible at all to start translating before having read a text. Or else, it will be anything but literature.

The resistsants are the ones that go against a fashistic regime and have lost what was previously in their lives to beat it or to try to. Some have lost everything; the saints are the ones that never counted it all their lives enduring. But a society that wants saints, people suffering just because they won’t be help towards bravery, is a society of perversity such that it drifts towards a nazillon system.

And then when, if the resistsants are won, they may, sometimes, often, they may or they will- or shall depending the sources read and respected- be replaced by the other guys that now will condemn perhaps drastically, without compassion or maybe empathy (no that you don’t fight, but the humility that tells you that your life has also been cultural- what would I have done if borne in a criminal family- though pray that the ex-crimes might support resistance, that in cases crimes left them outside the acknowledgement and approval this bounding sclerotic apparel. Improving the gays if struggled, sacrifice, and for us o now top of the chains, the deal. But what are they top of the chains, because of being in collaboration with people that want to destroy and steal.

The other guys that will when the time is opportune, take away the discourse, modified, of the resistance, their strength and force, their weapons above all, not to continue to combat but to seize it all. Perpetuation so of a collaborative movement that do not care about anything but to seize goods and soil ideas.

Communication is from a certain form of intelligence towards another, the only possibility for interaction is their overlapping view. 2 geniuses not enlightened in similar ways, would not understand each other. Our interactions with other species is this, only humans do not even attempt to communicate, but mostly nick-ate.

The web-like impression of the Palestinian scarf.

The text does not talk about (hiding from) children but infantilization. Make you think, make you feel, make you talk, make you react, make you vote, make you do, make you discriminate, make you eat, make you ate and love, make you make. It is like that, the world. Make you sneer at, nozzle, muzzle. Emotions dependencies for crippled. Sorry hating, so for crippling.

Maybe it is also about the dictact of what emotions are, if they are and what they should be. Also emotions can be made to replace actions, sentiments, thoughts maybe. A culture thing. Embroiled in emotions, or when emotions drive us in the wrong direction or to a stand-still maybe. Suppression of those can be of the same manipulative fabric, social reproduction versus individual, personal, intimately-corresponding, independently lived and well-weighed constructions. Why not here to give an idea of how badly this is commonly use hint at aversion therapies?

I also was expecting a room in a spanish villa with in the shadow a shoe-horse like commuting wall in black and white, like in a chien andalou. to have opened the scene to a court-yard makes the noise coming from the funerals that is really omnipresent in the scene, be even more part of the characters- possibly an interaction (though in the film one cannot hear the procession, in the play it is heard). It is well done to be in the open-air as it is like we are listening to a pseudo secret that is being divulged to the whole village and procession at the same time. The way the chief-servant, the governess talk is really theatrical, she talks for her voice to be heard beyond the villa's walls. one can feel them approaching as a table is laying down for them. the first scene is painful because of the servant french-polishing the floor, a huge area in the patio, it means that what she is performing can only be an endless chore. this way the weight of the hierarchy abuses and locks upon the individuals is clearly set and made this oppression, one that cannot be lifted. A croissant? Sacrosanct and repeated types of exchanges, irritated, ritualized observations. and an immutable play. the set of a set.

Religion prays for power, as sine since it if they pray prayed for god, they would do so attending any and every of the world's creatures. Not by loving an image they think they made.

Legion, pray. Religions pay.
Legion, pray. Religions pay.

Everything is in our story about destroying and around it our demented stories of loath and love, or the ones that made us alive, surviving or going further than the debased high t reason otherwise owned.

Power Distance

I could not say. social conventions, social strates or immobility, social and cultural diversity all might be shaping, unshaping or contribute in some sense to emotional development or obstacles (hinderment) or its reverse make people focus on emotion rather than thinking or action. I don't know.

Parents also respond to social expectations, power or disempowerment- positively or negatively so. You know aversion therapies- it is the perfect example of how people are ready to kill someone just because of their genders. it is perfectly ok for females to fancy males but not so for males, et v/v. it is elaborated and consensual torture and imprisonment in reality.

Power Distance, we need to interpret emotional dependency as greater reliance by the less powerful on those who hold power.

This phrase is extremely powerful and just says that the one holding the emotions are just under scrutiny, like a rat in a lab maybe. because you know at any time anyone can tell you that it is not appropriate what you feel, or how you look, and when you are in a servile position, i think we all are though, any pretext can be summoned and if you do not want to say it is because of the way you worked then you will target people psychologically, you are asked to respond emotionally while the one in power can get rid of this demand and act immorally. ??
To support that claim that I might be stronger in France, that emotional dependency, France famously used its medical staff or psychologists to target people. In other countries, you do not need to prove or say that you staff shows signs of depression to fire or to avoid hiring him—instead of evaluating their work and the goodness of what they are asked to do,. infrastructures, ... but I'll be honest I have no notion of psychology and I know I am very bad at it. Psychology is a very important domain too, but might, like all others, be used sadistically. What emotionally you need to induce to convince people of the goodness of inequality? I guess nothing that good. A sense of fate, mediocrity, and biological limitation and despair, mistaken for love or strength or real connection often.

Or it is because emotion is here cofounded, mixed up with servility or immaturity. Or in a world of emotion when people are made ignorant of wars, they are in fact put in a prison. The need for people to strike a balance with emotions ok, we all strive for love, though that is sentiment, but I don't know maybe emotion are a flow, sensation, instincts, that happy or not we have to understand.

Or are we talking about deference, and also showing respect for what is corruption?

Starting by love your dad 100 times a day, while the same person renders your mum miserable, and want nothing good for their family... Clan spirit complex, might be wanting to be too on self-protection, or might want to trade with other tradesperson clans = trade your kids in that same scenery.

ALSO, an English person, can say to their family more easily, I take my bag and go around the world with a passport that is a key and a language I can work with, not a French person. But also English society I'd say is more rigid due to the royals, and the same royals asking for a respect on traditions (all traditions and religions) rather than the modernity. Mind it is the modernity that has defined how things used to be, you know history written by the conquerors. So I am not sure one has to put so much pressure emotionally if they can do so 'philosophically'.

Also in England there is less scrutiny in how the power is exerted, independent regulators, so if one cannot fire you in France without having to give good examples of how you failed, instead of setting-up people with verifiable lies they will do it on feelings. Too nervous, bizarre attitudes, etc..etc, temp-tress. Of course, derision, but in the mouth of the devil can be found fountains of trumpery.

Also it is old school to pretend to target someone emotionally, to suppress their emotions or all sorts, why in fact it is done for question of politics. One will say that homos are not good, abnormal, etc. that is to say to dismiss, while what they want is this distortion, this tension, that makes people dead with sickness, and what makes the ones that want hurt and so wounded people for free, makes other thrive on the annihilation of competition. But not only. It is so entertaining to be able to watch daily inflicted misery by people who mock the same reason why they say they did it-morals.
Really amusing, today, bbc just before 5. scientists say the Neandertals’ faces (protruded features) conveyed emotions, essential to the communication (ok but does not mean that emotions conveyed are pure or true or a missing link) and by extension the survival of the species.

What one can answer: communication ok but does not mean that emotions conveyed are pure or true or a missing link. i think that the opinion they say they have is a stance on eugenics. that is people again that say that the controls of emotions are keys to survival to evolution and they say it as it was premises: and you would have to agree... muzzled, muted. interestingly, muted, mutant.

What they wanted was thinking. But to be able to do this, one has to fight. And while fighting they forgot all about thinking and the needs (the stupefaction, action, lows-and-downs, the joys and the fearsome drifts, and the never this time will be ending lamentations) attached to it. And all was lost, as it is.

As in my youth I would blacken thousands leaves of paper, to say the feeling, the sentiments, the torpor, that accompany the love of my dreams departure.

Now I refuse to say anything on the one of my life.

As when this love is gone, I ll just been filled with a death desire.

Once found the puns, one can build the story. a reverse of how words were born, a correlation of sounds sliding and the elaboration of meaning jumping from stones to stones. puns i believe are the ruins of language very construction. puns for memory purposes and also because words are part of a canvas, they take their colors from the shades next to it by declination ( declamation), and off what already was on the pallet or next to the painters or available to the scene depicted, thought- when worked or admired not slurred and covered.

I wanted to draw. I never had done. I scribbled yes while holding my pen, in despair, in waiting, in the void. I knew that if I was not dying soon enough o I would have none.

To crave your feature, to carve your figure. It is just poor proposed rhyme as one cannot be hungry when its body is suspended at the body in the sky that spoke to ya, and that I will have to follow to meet again ya.

I would have to draw to create your presence, now I know that I ll never again be next to you, just see you, to entirely again beg the fate that it gave me work to suit the recorded race- but anyone that you do not want to be with me could see.

So sow fate disperse me.

That I know that after death I would recompose to finish to raise, not finish the race, as you as always will limber, saccage, secate what the next life shall manage to compose with. You did not even destroy my vessel as I have now to err aware of its pulled apart component, that never can breathe for more than for themselves, the fire there, not inside, helping the scares, sanitizing the scars, mocking, feigning the sky maybe. Miming. Mimicking envy.

There are national and international agencies hiring people without mentioning that it is compulsory to have a license. There are hundreds of people unlicensed on the web, but these people are not to blame; these agencies are. It is very complicated to find a job without them and pay extorting fees, as they are on top page of any research results including ones with very precise post codes.

\[1^i\] And protective of its sole certainty, to be. Cannot quite approach how then would people prevent too much undergoing a philosophy, or a society, or their lack of boundaries, internal or external. Finite or eternal.

\[2^i\] And what then would be validated out of the state of being aware, if it was to stay as it is, vulgar, sadistic killers. Nowadays even killing for fur, cosmetic, useless experimentation. But even to have access the technology to eat healthily and though killing animals to satisfy taste and a reluctance to change, even if we take comfort increase more than happily, now amongst our taken for granted lists of rights, and liberties.

\[3^i\] These amalgamations through data is one of the many seeded by words. It makes us oblivious of the gravity of what sexual abuses are. The ‘killing’ of an individual, whose traumas goes beyond repair, because of the abuses impact themselves but also as society not through disempowerment this time but complicit actions often reacts with further stigmatisation. Why these abuses could stay unhealable? Not because of their victims’ fragility but because society knowing remained passive, not actively enough stopping and preventing.
